

Rural and Regional Adjustment (Variation of Resilient Homes Assistance Scheme) Amendment Regulation 2023

Human Rights Certificate

Prepared in accordance with Part 3 of the Human Rights Act 2019

In accordance with section 41 of the Human Rights Act 2019, I, Mark Furner MP, Minister for Agricultural Industry Development and Fisheries, provide this human rights certificate with respect to the Rural and Regional Adjustment (Variation of Resilient Homes Assistance Scheme) Amendment Regulation 2023 made under the Rural and Regional Adjustment Act 1994.

In my opinion, the Rural and Regional Adjustment (Resilient Homes Scheme) Amendment Regulation 2023, as tabled in the Legislative Assembly, is compatible with the human rights protected by the Human Rights Act 2019. I base my opinion on the reasons outlined in this statement.

Overview of the Subordinate Legislation

The Amendment Regulation is made under the Rural and Regional Adjustment Act 1994.

The authorising law for the regulation is sections 3, 10, 11 and 44 of the Rural and Regional Adjustment Act 1994.

The main objective of the Amendment Regulation is to increase participation and improve operation and administration of the Resilient Homes Assistance Scheme (the Scheme) by clarifying and expanding the definitions of eligible works.

The Amendment Regulation amends the Scheme, which will allow the Queensland Rural and Industry Development Authority to provide grants to a greater number of Queensland homeowners who were impacted by recent floods and/or are at risk of future flooding events to either 'raise', 'demolish and replace' or 'relocate' their home to reduce the impacts of future flood events on Queenslanders homes.

Human Rights Issues

Human rights relevant to the subordinate legislation (Part 2, Division 2 and 3 Human Rights Act 2019)

The Amendment Regulation has been considered with regards to the Human Rights Act 2019 and it has been determined that no human rights are engaged by the Amendment Regulation.

Conclusion

I consider that the Rural and Regional Adjustment (Resilient Homes Scheme) Amendment Regulation 2023 is compatible with the Human Rights Act 2019 because it does not limit human rights.
