200A	Directions to prisoners subject to parole order	1
		2
(1)	The purpose of this section is—	3
(a)	to enable the movements of a prisoner who is subject to a parole order to be restricted; and	4 5 6
(b)	to enable the location of the prisoner to be monitored.	7 8
(2)	A corrective services officer may direct the prisoner—	9 10
(a)	to remain at a stated place for stated periods; or	11 12
(b)	to wear a stated device; or	13
(c)	to permit the installation of any device or equipment at the place where the prisoner resides.	14 15 16
(3)	A corrective services officer may also give other reasonable directions to the prisoner that are necessary for the proper administration of a direction under subsection (2).	17 18 19 20
(4)	A direction under this section must not be inconsistent with a condition of the prisoner's parole order.	21 22 23

Clause 9	Replacement of ch 5, pt 1, div 5, sdiv 1 (Chief executive powers)	24 25
	Chapter 5, part 1, division 5, subdivision 1—	26
	omit, insert—	27
	Subdivision 1 Chief executive powers	28

201	Chief executive may amend parole order	29
(1)	The chief executive may, by written order, amend	30

a prisoner's parole order if the chief executive reasonably believes the prisoner— 1 2

(a) has failed to comply with the parole order; 3 or 4

(b) poses a serious and immediate risk of harm to himself or herself; or 5
6

(c) poses an unacceptable risk of committing an offence. 7
8

Example of an amendment— 9

the addition of a condition imposing a curfew for the prisoner 10 11

(2) The written order has effect for the period of not more than 28 days, stated in the order, starting on the day the order is given to the prisoner. 12
13

202 Parole board may cancel amendment 15

(1) If the chief executive makes an order under section 201 amending a parole order, the chief executive must give the secretariat written notice of the grounds for making the order. 16
17
18
19

(2) The written notice must be given to the secretariat immediately after the order is made. 20 21

(3) The chief executive must give the parole board any further information about the amendment requested by the board. 22
23
24

(4) The parole board may, at any time, cancel the order. 25
26

Clause 10 Amendment of ch 5, pt 1, div 5, sdiv 2, hdg (Parole board powers) 27 28

	generally	1
Clause 11	Insertion of new ch 5, pt 1, div 5, sdiv 2A	2
	Chapter 5, part 1, division 5—	3
	insert—	4
	Subdivision 2A Requests for immediate suspension	5 6
	208A Request for immediate suspension of parole order	7 8
	(1) This section applies if the chief executive reasonably believes that a prisoner the subject of a parole order—	9 10 11
	(a) has failed to comply with the parole order; or	12 13
	(b) poses a serious and immediate risk of harm to another person; or	14 15
	(c) poses an unacceptable risk of committing an offence; or	16 17
	(d) is preparing to leave the State, other than under a written order granting the prisoner leave to travel interstate or overseas.	18 19 20
	(2) The chief executive may, by written notice given to the secretariat, ask the parole board to—	21 22
	(a) suspend the parole order; and	23
	(b) issue a warrant for the prisoner’s arrest.	24
	(3) The notice must state the grounds on which the request is made.	25 26

---

208BP	Prescribed board member may suspend parole order and issue warrant	1
		2
(1)	If a request is made under section 208A, a prescribed board member must, as a matter of urgency—	3
		4
		5
(a)	consider the request; and	6
(b)	decide whether or not to suspend the parole order.	7
		8
(2)	The prescribed board member may decide to suspend the parole order only if the member reasonably believes the prisoner—	9
		10
		11
(a)	has failed to comply with the parole order; or	12
		13
(b)	poses a serious and immediate risk of harm to another person; or	14
		15
(c)	poses an unacceptable risk of committing an offence; or	16
		17
(d)	is preparing to leave the State, other than under a written order granting the prisoner leave to travel interstate or overseas.	18
		19
		20
(3)	If the prescribed board member decides not to suspend the parole order, the member must give the chief executive written notice of the decision.	21
		22
		23
(4)	If the prescribed board member decides to suspend the parole order, the member must—	24
		25
(a)	by written order, suspend the parole order; and	26
		27
(b)	issue a warrant, signed by the member or an officer of the secretariat prescribed by regulation, for the prisoner’s arrest.	28
		29
		30
(5)	The order has effect from when it is made.	31
(6)	The warrant may be directed to all police officers.	32
(7)	When arrested, the prisoner must be taken to a	33

prison to be kept there until the suspension ends. 1

208C Parole board must consider suspension 2

- (1) If the prescribed board member decides, under 3
section 208B, to suspend the parole order and 4 issue a warrant for the prisoner's arrest, the parole 5 board must, within the period prescribed by 6 regulation— 7
- (a) confirm the prescribed board member's 8 decision; or 9
- (b) set aside the decision. 10
- (2) Section 208 applies to a decision of the parole 11 board to confirm the prescribed board member's 12 decision as if it were a decision to suspend a 13 parole order under section 205(2). 14
- (3) Subsections (4) to (6) apply if the parole board 15 decides to set aside the prescribed board 16
member's decision. 17
- (4) The suspension and the warrant stop having 18 effect. 19
- (5) If the warrant has been executed, the prisoner 20
must be released. 21
- (6) For this Act, the prisoner is taken not to have been 22
unlawfully at large for the period— 23
- (a) starting when the order was made by the 24
prescribed board member under section 25
208B; and 26
- (b) ending when the parole board decided to set 27
aside the prescribed board member's 28 decision. 29

Clause 12 Replacement of ch 5, pt 2 (Parole boards) 30

Chapter 5, part 2— 31

---

omit, insert—

Part 2 Parole Board 1
Queensland 2
3

Division 1 Establishment and 4
functions 5

216 Establishment 6

The Parole Board Queensland (the parole board) 7 is established. 8

217 Functions 9

The functions of the parole board are— 10

(a) to decide applications for parole orders, 11
other than court ordered parole orders; and 12

(b) to perform other functions given to it under 13
this Act or another Act. 14

Division 2 Powers 15

218 Powers generally 16

The parole board has the power to do anything 17 necessary or convenient to be done in performing 18
its functions under this or another Act. 19

219 Power to require attendance 20

(1) The parole board may, by written notice (an 21 attendance notice) given to a person, require the 22 person to attend a meeting of the board at a stated 23 time and stated place— 24

| (a) | a prisoner's application for a parole order, other than a court ordered parole order; or  | 2930                   |
| (b) | a prisoner's parole order, including a court ordered parole order.  | 3132                   |

- 220 Expenses of attendance and documents produced 1 2
- (1) If a person is required by an attendance notice to 3 attend a meeting of the parole board, the 4 secretariat must pay the person's reasonable 5 expenses of attending the meeting as certified by 6
the board member presiding at the meeting. 7
- (2) If the person produces a document under section 8
219(2)(c), the parole board may inspect the 9 document or make copies of it. 10

Division 3 Membership 11

- 221 Membership 12
- (1) The parole board consists of the following 13
members (each a board member)— 14

224 Term of appointment

- (1) The president and each deputy president holds office for the term, not longer than 5 years, stated in the board member's instrument of appointment.
- (2) An appointed board member, other than the president or a deputy president, holds office for the term, not longer than 3 years, stated in the member's instrument of appointment.
- (3) However, if a successor has not been appointed by the end of the appointed board member's term, the member continues to hold office until a successor is appointed.
- (4) An appointed board member may be reappointed.
- (5) However, a person holding office as the president

- or a deputy president may be reappointed to the office only if—
- (a) no term of appointment is longer than 5 years; and
  - (b) the person does not hold the office for more than 10 years in total.

225 Conditions of appointment

- (1) The president and each deputy president are to be paid the prescribed salary.
- (2) An appointed board member, other than the president or a deputy president, is to be paid the remuneration and allowances decided by the Governor in Council.
- (3) An appointed board member holds office on the terms, not otherwise provided for by this Act, decided by the Governor in Council.
- (4) An appointed board member is appointed under this Act and not the Public Service Act 2008.

226 Vacancy in office

- (1) An appointed board member's office becomes vacant if—
  - (a) the member completes the member's term of office; or
  - (b) the member resigns office by signed notice given to the Minister; or
  - (c) the member's appointment is terminated by the Governor in Council under subsection (2) or (3).
- (2) The Governor in Council may, at any time, end the appointment of a community board member for any reason or none.

[s 12]

---

- (3) The Governor in Council may terminate the appointment of another appointed board member if the member—
- (a) is guilty of misconduct of a type that could warrant dismissal from the public service if the member were an officer of the public service; or
  - (b) becomes incapable of satisfactorily performing the functions of a board member because of physical or mental incapacity or for some other reason.
- (4) In this section—
misconduct see the Public Service Act 2008, section 187(4).

227 Leave of absence

- (1) The Minister may approve a leave of absence for the president.
- (2) The president may approve a leave of absence for a deputy president, professional board member or community board member.
- (3) However, only the Minister may approve a leave of absence of more than 20 business days for a deputy president or professional board member.

228 Acting appointments

- (1) The Governor in Council may appoint a qualified person to act in the office of a prescribed board member for all or part of a period in which—
- (a) the office is vacant; or
  - (b) the person holding the office is absent from duty or the State or can not, for another reason, perform the duties of the office.

- (2) A person may not be appointed to act in the office for—
- (a) a continuous period of more than 3 months; or
  - (b) a period that, with the periods of other appointments of the person to act in the office, form a continuous period of more than 3 months.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply to the appointment of a person to act in the office of the president or a deputy president if, in recommending the person for the appointment, the Minister complies with section 223(2)(b).
- (4) The Minister must consult with the president before recommending a person to act in the office of deputy president.
- (5) In this section—
qualified, in relation to an appointment to act in an office, means qualified for appointment to the office.

229 Preservation of rights

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a person is appointed as a prescribed board member; and
  - (b) the person resigns the person's role as a public service officer in order to accept the appointment.
- (2) The person keeps all rights that have accrued to the person as a public service officer, or that would accrue in the future to the person because of that employment, as if service as a prescribed board member were a continuation of service as a public service officer.

[s 12]

- (3) At the end of the person's term of office or on resignation as a prescribed board member— 1 2
- (a) the person has the right to be appointed to an office in the public service on the same terms and conditions that applied to the person before being appointed as a prescribed board member; and 3 4
5
6
7
- (b) the person's service as a prescribed board member is taken to be service of a like nature in the public service for deciding the person's rights as a public service officer. 8

Division 4 Proceedings 12

230 Conduct of business 13

Subject to this division, the parole board may conduct its business, including its meetings, in the way it considers appropriate. 14
15
16

231 Quorum 17

A quorum for a meeting of the parole board is 3 board members. 18 19

Note— 20

For the board members who must be present at a meeting at which particular matters about parole orders are considered, see also section 234. 21
22
23

232 Presiding at meetings 24

- (1) The president presides at all meetings of the parole board at which the president is present. 25
26
- (2) If the president is absent from a meeting and the parole board has only 1 deputy president, the deputy president is to preside. 27
28
29

- (3) If the president is absent from a meeting and the parole board has more than 1 deputy president, the deputy president chosen by the president is to preside.
- (4) If neither the president, nor any of the deputy presidents, are present at a meeting, a professional board member chosen by the president is to preside.

233 Meetings generally

- (1) The parole board must meet as often as is necessary to perform its functions.
- (2) A meeting may be called by the president or, in the absence of the president, a deputy president.
- (3) In the absence of the president and each deputy president, an officer of the secretariat prescribed by regulation may call a meeting to consider whether a parole order should be amended, suspended or cancelled.
- (4) The parole board may hold meetings, or allow board members to take part in meetings, by using a contemporaneous communication link between the members.
- (5) A board member who takes part in a meeting under subsection (4) is taken to be present at the meeting.
- (6) A question at a meeting of the parole board must be decided by a majority of votes of the board members present.
- (7) If there is an equality of votes, the board member presiding at the meeting has a casting vote.
- (8) A prisoner granted leave to appear before the parole board under section 190 may appear before a meeting—

[s 12]

---

- (a) by using a contemporaneous communication link between the prisoner and the parole board; or
- (b) if the prisoner has a special need—by attending personally.

234 Meetings about particular matters relating to parole orders

- (1) This section applies if, at a meeting of the parole board, the board is to consider—
  - (a) a prisoner’s application for a parole order; or
  - (b) the amendment, suspension or cancellation of a prisoner’s parole order.
- (2) The matter must not be considered at the meeting unless—
  - (a) if the prisoner is a prescribed prisoner—the following board members are present at the meeting—
    - (i) the president or a deputy president;
    - (ii) a professional board member;
    - (iii) a community board member;
    - (iv) a public service representative;
    - (v) a police representative; or
  - (b) otherwise—a professional board member, a community board member and at least 1 other board member are present at the meeting.
- (3) In this section—

prescribed prisoner means—

  - (a) a prisoner mentioned in—
    - (i) section 181(1); or

- (ii) section 181A(1); or 1
  - (iii) section 182A(1) or (2); or 2
  - (iv) section 183(1); or 3
  - (v) section 185B(1)(a); or 4
  - (b) a prisoner who is imprisoned for— 5
    - (i) a serious violent offence; or 6
    - (ii) a serious sexual offence; or 7
    - (iii) an offence committed with the 8 circumstance of aggravation stated in 9
the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, 10
section 161Q(1). 11
  - serious sexual offence* see the Dangerous 12
Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003, schedule. 13

235 Attendance of staff member at meetings 14

- If asked to do so by the president, a deputy 15
president or an officer of the secretariat prescribed 16
by regulation, a staff member must— 17
- (a) attend a meeting of the parole board, 18 including by using a contemporaneous 19 communication link between the staff 20 member and the board; and 21
  - (b) give the information the parole board asks 22 for to help it decide a matter relating to a 23
parole order. 24
