body or remains of the victim has not been located.	1 2
175D Meaning of restricted prisoner	3
A prisoner is a restricted prisoner if the prisoner has been sentenced to life imprisonment for—	4 5
(a) a conviction of murder and the person killed was a child; or	6 7
(b) more than 1 conviction of murder; or	8
(c) 1 conviction of murder and another offence of murder was taken into account; or	9 10
(d) a conviction of murder and the person has on a previous occasion been sentenced for another offence of murder.	11 12 13
Part 1AB Parole declarations	14
Division 1 Restricted prisoner declarations	15 16
175E Making restricted prisoner declaration	17
The president may make a declaration under this division (a restricted prisoner declaration) about a restricted prisoner.	18 19 20
175F Restricted prisoner report	21
(1) The chief executive may, at any time during a restricted prisoner's period of imprisonment, give the president a restricted prisoner report about the prisoner that includes information the chief executive considers is relevant to any of the	22 23 24 25 26

matters mentioned in section 175H(2). 1

- (2) If the chief executive is given a notice under 2 section 193AA(2), the chief executive must give 3 the president a restricted prisoner report about the 4 prisoner within 28 days after being given the 5 notice. 6

175G If restricted prisoner report given to 7 president 8

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive, under 9
section 175F, gives the president a restricted 10 prisoner report. 11
- (2) The president must— 12
- (a) if a restricted prisoner declaration (the 13 current declaration) is in force for the 14 prisoner—decide whether to make a 15 declaration (a new declaration) about the 16 prisoner to take effect on the day 17 immediately after the day the current 18 declaration ends; or 19
- (b) if there is no restricted prisoner declaration 20 in force for the prisoner—decide whether to 21 make a restricted prisoner declaration about 22
the prisoner. 23
- (3) As soon as practicable after being given the 24 restricted prisoner report, the president must give 25 the restricted prisoner a written notice stating 26 that— 27
- (a) the president has received the report about 28
the prisoner; and 29
- (b) the president must decide— 30
- (i) if a current declaration is in force for 31
the prisoner—whether to make a new 32 declaration; or 33

[s 7]

- (ii) if there is no current declaration in force for the prisoner—whether to make a restricted prisoner declaration about the prisoner; and
 - (c) if a restricted prisoner declaration is made about the prisoner, the prisoner may not apply for parole under section 180 during the period stated in the declaration; and
 - (d) the prisoner may, within 21 days after the notice is given (the stated period)—
 - (i) give the president a written submission about the making of the declaration; and
 - (ii) ask the president to consider any material the prisoner considers relevant to the submission.
- (4) The president may extend the stated period if the president considers it reasonable in the circumstances.

175H Deciding to make restricted prisoner declaration

- (1) The president may make a restricted prisoner declaration about a restricted prisoner if the president is satisfied it is in the public interest to do so.
- (2) In considering the public interest the president must have regard to the following matters—
 - (a) the nature, seriousness and circumstances of the offence, or each offence, for which the prisoner was sentenced to life imprisonment;
 - (b) any risk the prisoner may pose to the public if the prisoner is granted parole;

- (c) the likely effect that the prisoner's release on parole may have on an eligible person or a victim. 1
3
- (3) Also, in deciding whether to make a restricted prisoner declaration the president must have regard to the following information— 4 5
6
- (a) the restricted prisoner report about the prisoner; 7 8
- (b) if an eligible person has, under section 188, at any time made a submission in relation to a parole application made by the prisoner—the submission; 9 10
12
- (c) any relevant remarks made by a court in a proceeding against the prisoner for the offence for which the prisoner was sentenced to a term of life imprisonment; 13
14
15
16
- (d) if the prisoner made a submission under section 175G(3)(d)—the submission. 17 18
- (4) Without limiting subsections (2) and (3), the president may have regard to any other matter or information the president considers relevant to the public interest. 19 20
21
22
- (5) If the president considers it reasonable in the circumstances, the president may— 23 24
- (a) defer deciding whether to make the restricted prisoner declaration; and 25 26
- (b) ask any person for further information or documents the president reasonably requires to decide whether to make the declaration. 27
28
29
- (6) The president must decide whether to make the restricted prisoner declaration within the following period— 30 31
32
- (a) if the president has deferred making the decision under subsection (5)—150 days after receiving the restricted prisoner report; 33
34
35

[s 7]

- (b) otherwise—120 days after receiving the restricted prisoner report. 1 2
- (7) A failure to make a decision within the period mentioned in subsection (6) does not affect the validity of the president’s decision. 3 4
5
- (8) In this section— 6
victim see the Victims of Crime Assistance Act 2009, section 5. 7 8

175I If restricted prisoner declaration made 9

- (1) If the president makes a restricted prisoner declaration, the declaration must state— 10 11
 - (a) the reasons for the decision; and 12
 - (b) the day the declaration takes effect; and 13
 - (c) the day the declaration ends; and 14
 - (d) that the restricted prisoner may not apply for parole under section 180 while the declaration is in force; and 15
17
 - (e) if the prisoner’s application for parole was deferred under section 193AA(2)—that the application for parole is refused. 18 19 20
- (2) The day the declaration takes effect must not be— 21
 - (a) if a restricted prisoner declaration is in force for the prisoner—a day before the current declaration ends; or 22
23
24
 - (b) otherwise—a day before the day the declaration is made. 25 26
- (3) The day the declaration ends must not be later than 10 years after the day the declaration takes effect. 27
28
29
- (4) In deciding the term of the declaration the president must— 30 31

- (a) be satisfied the term is in the public interest; 1
and 2
 - (b) have regard to the matters mentioned in 3
section 175H(2). 4
 - (5) The president must give a copy of the declaration 5 to— 6
 - (a) the prisoner; and 7
 - (b) the chief executive; and 8
 - (c) the parole board. 9
 - (6) In this section— 10
current declaration see section 175G(2). 11

175J If restricted prisoner declaration not made 12

- (1) This section applies if the president decides not to 13 make a restricted prisoner declaration about a 14 restricted prisoner. 15
- (2) As soon as practicable after making the decision 16
the president must give written notice of the 17 decision to— 18
 - (a) the prisoner; and 19
 - (b) the chief executive; and 20
 - (c) the parole board. 21
- (3) If the prisoner's application for parole was 22 deferred under section 193AA(2), the notice 23 given to the prisoner must state that the 24 application is referred to the parole board for 25 hearing and deciding under part 1, division 2. 26
- (4) Nothing in this section limits the president from 27 considering whether to make a declaration about 28
the prisoner if the president receives another 29 restricted prisoner report under section 175F. 30

[s 7]

Division 2	No cooperation declarations	1 2
175K Application of division		3
	This division applies if—	4
	(a) a no body-no parole prisoner applies for a parole order under section 176 or 180; or	5 6
	(b) the parole board decides to consider whether a no body-no parole prisoner has given satisfactory cooperation.	7 8 9
175L Parole board may make no cooperation declaration		10 11
	If the parole board is not satisfied a no body-no parole prisoner has given satisfactory cooperation, the parole board must make a declaration under this division (a no cooperation declaration) about the prisoner.	12 13 14 15 16
	Note—	17
	See sections 176B, 180(2)(d) and 193A(2).	18
175M Parole board may request commissioner’s report		19 20
	(1) This section applies if—	21
	(a) a no body-no parole prisoner’s application for a parole order is deferred under section 193A; or	22 23 24
	(b) the parole board is given a notice under section 175S(4) or 175T(3); or	25 26
	(c) at anytime after a no body-no parole prisoner begins to serve the prisoner’s period of imprisonment, the parole board	27 28 29

- decides to consider if the prisoner has given satisfactory cooperation. 1 2
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the parole board must,
by written notice, ask the commissioner for a commissioner's report about the prisoner. 3 4
5
- (3) If an appeal has been made to a court against the conviction or sentence to which the period of imprisonment relates, the parole board must not ask for a commissioner's report until the appeal is decided. 6
7
8
9
10
- (4) The written notice must state the day the parole board proposes to consider if the prisoner has given satisfactory cooperation (the proposed hearing day). 11
12
13
14
- (5) The commissioner must comply with the request by giving the parole board the commissioner's report at least 28 days before the proposed hearing
day. 15
16
17
18
- (6) The parole board must give the chief executive a copy of the notice given to the commissioner. 19 20
- 175N Parole board must notify no body-no parole prisoner 21
22
- (1) This section applies if the parole board is given a commissioner's report under section 175M. 23 24
- (2) The parole board must give the no body-no parole prisoner a written notice stating that— 25 26
- (a) the board has received a commissioner's report about the prisoner; and 27 28
- (b) the board must consider whether to make a no cooperation declaration about the prisoner; and 29
30
31
- (c) if a no cooperation declaration is made about the prisoner—the prisoner may not 32 33

[s 7]

- apply for parole during the period the declaration continues in force; and 1 2
- (d) the prisoner may, within 21 days after the notice is given (the stated period)— 3 4
- (i) give the board a written submission 5
about the making of the declaration; 6
and 7
- (ii) ask the board to consider any material 8
the prisoner considers relevant to the 9 submission. 10
- (3) The parole board may extend the stated period if 11
the board considers it reasonable in the 12 circumstances. 13

1750 Deciding if satisfactory cooperation 14

- (1) In deciding whether a no body-no parole prisoner 15 has given satisfactory cooperation, the parole 16 board— 17
- (a) must have regard to— 18
- (i) the commissioner’s report about the 19
prisoner; and 20
- (ii) any information the board has about 21
the prisoner’s capacity to give 22 satisfactory cooperation; and 23
- (iii) any relevant remarks made by the court 24 that sentenced the prisoner to the term 25 of imprisonment the prisoner is serving 26 for the homicide offence; and 27
- (iv) if the prisoner asks the board to 28 consider a transcript of a proceeding 29 against the prisoner for the homicide 30 offence—the transcript; and 31
- (b) may have regard to other information the 32 board considers relevant. 33

- (2) In this section— 1
transcript, of a proceeding, means a transcription 2 of a record under the Recording of Evidence Act 3 1962 of the proceeding. 4

175P If prisoner does not give satisfactory cooperation 5 6

- (1) This section applies if the parole board makes a no 7 cooperation declaration about a no body-no 8 parole prisoner. 9
- (2) The no cooperation declaration must state— 10
- (a) the reasons the board is not satisfied the 11 prisoner has given satisfactory cooperation; 12
and 13
 - (b) the day of the board’s decision; and 14
 - (c) that the prisoner may not apply for parole 15 under section 176 or 180 unless the prisoner 16 is given a notice under section 175Q; and 17
 - (d) that the prisoner may, at any time, make a 18 reconsideration application. 19
- (3) The parole board must, as soon a practicable after 20 making the no cooperation declaration, give a 21 copy of the declaration to— 22
- (a) the prisoner; and 23
 - (b) the chief executive. 24
- (4) If the prisoner stops being a no body-no parole 25 prisoner, the no cooperation declaration ends. 26

175Q If prisoner gives satisfactory cooperation 27

If the parole board is satisfied a no body-no parole 28 prisoner has given satisfactory cooperation, the 29 parole board must give the prisoner and the chief 30 executive a written notice, stating— 31

[s 7]

- (a) that the board is satisfied the prisoner has given the cooperation; and 1 2
- (b) the date of the decision; and 3
- (c) if a no cooperation declaration is in force for the prisoner—that the declaration is ended; and 4 5
6
- (d) that the prisoner may apply for parole under— 7 8
 - (i) section 176; or 9
 - (ii) if eligible—section 180. 10

175R Prisoner may make reconsideration application 11
12

- (1) This section applies if the parole board makes a no cooperation declaration about a no body-no parole prisoner. 13
15
- (2) At any time after the prisoner is given a copy of the no cooperation declaration made under section 175P, the prisoner may apply to the president or a deputy president (a reconsideration application) asking the president or deputy president to call a meeting of the parole board to reconsider the board’s decision to make the no cooperation declaration. 16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
- (3) The reconsideration application must be in the approved form. 24 25
- (4) The application may state— 26
 - (a) whether the prisoner has given the police additional information; or 27 28
 - (b) whether there has been a material change in the prisoner’s capacity to cooperate satisfactorily; or 29 30
31
 - (c) the reasons the prisoner considers it is appropriate to grant the application. 32
33

- (5) In this section— 1
additional information, in relation to a no 2 body-no parole prisoner, means information the 3 prisoner has not previously given to the police in 4 relation to the investigation of the homicide 5 offence to identify the victim’s location. 6

175S Deciding reconsideration application 7

- (1) This section applies if a no body-no parole 8 prisoner makes a reconsideration application. 9
- (2) The president or deputy president must decide the 10 application by granting or refusing it. 11
- (3) The president or deputy president may only grant 12
the application if, after considering the 13 application, the president or deputy president is 14 satisfied— 15
- (a) the prisoner has given the police information 16 that the parole board may consider to be 17 additional information; or 18
- (b) there has been a change in the investigation 19 of the homicide offence to identify the 20 victim’s location to justify the parole 21 board’s reconsideration; or 22
- Example—* 23
- The president or deputy president is aware that 24
another prisoner has provided information to 25 identify the victim’s location. 26
- (c) there has been a material change in the 27
prisoner’s capacity to cooperate; or 28
- (d) for another reason, it would be appropriate 29 in the interests of justice for the board to 30 reconsider the prisoner’s cooperation. 31
- (4) If the president or deputy president grants the 32 reconsideration application, the president or 33 deputy president must give a written notice to— 34

[s 7]

- (a) the prisoner; and 1
- (b) the parole board; and 2
- (c) the chief executive. 3
- (5) The notice given under subsection (4) to the 4
prisoner must state that the parole board will 5
reconsider the no cooperation declaration made 6
about the prisoner. 7
- (6) If the president or deputy president refuses to 8 grant the application, the president or deputy 9 president must give the prisoner a written notice 10 stating the prisoner's reconsideration application 11 is refused. 12
- (7) In this section— 13
additional information see section 175R(5). 14

175T Discretion to call meeting to reconsider 15

- (1) The president or deputy president may, at any 16 time after a no cooperation declaration is made 17 about a prisoner, call a meeting of the parole 18 board to reconsider the making of the declaration. 19
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), in deciding 20
whether to call the meeting, the president or 21 deputy president may have regard to any of the 22 matters mentioned in section 175S(3). 23
- (3) If the president or deputy president decides to call 24
the meeting, the president or deputy president 25 must give a written notice to— 26
 - (a) the prisoner; and 27
 - (b) the parole board; and 28
 - (c) the chief executive. 29
- (4) The notice given under subsection (3) to the 30
prisoner must state that the parole board will 31
reconsider the no cooperation declaration made 32

	about the prisoner.	1
	175U If reconsideration application granted or meeting called	2 3
	(1) As soon as practicable after receiving a notice under section 175S(4) or 175T(3), the board must meet and reconsider whether the prisoner has given satisfactory cooperation.	4 5 6 7
	(2) If the parole board decides the prisoner has given satisfactory cooperation, the board must give the prisoner a notice stating—	8 9 10
	(a) that the no cooperation declaration in force for the prisoner is ended; and	11 12
	(b) the prisoner may, subject to sections 176 and 180, apply for a parole order.	13 14
	(3) If the parole board decides the prisoner has not given satisfactory cooperation, the board must give the prisoner a notice stating that the no cooperation declaration continues in force for the prisoner.	15 16 17 18 19

176A Deciding applications made by restricted prisoner	1 2
(1) This section applies if a restricted prisoner applies for an exceptional circumstances parole order and a restricted prisoner declaration is in force for the prisoner.	3 4 5 6
(2) The parole board must refuse to make the parole order unless the board is satisfied—	7 8
(a) the prisoner, as a result of a diagnosed disease, illness or medical condition—	9 10
(i) is in imminent danger of dying and is not physically able to cause harm to another person; or	11 12 13
(ii) is incapacitated to the extent the prisoner is not physically able to cause harm to another person; and	14 15 16
(b) the prisoner has demonstrated that the prisoner does not pose an unacceptable risk to the public; and	17 18 19
(c) that the making of the parole order is justified in the circumstances.	20 21
(3) If the parole board grants the prisoner parole, the board must give the chief executive written notice of the board’s decision as soon as practicable after the decision is made.	22 23 24 25
176B Applications made by no body-no parole prisoner	26 27

	350A Proceeding for offence against s 131A	25
	(1) A charge of an offence against section 131A must be heard and decided summarily if the	26 27

[s 20]

- prosecution elects to have the charge heard and decided summarily. 1 2
- (2) A Magistrates Court that summarily deals with 3
the charge for the offence— 4
- (a) must be constituted by a magistrate; and 5
- (b) has jurisdiction despite the time that has 6 elapsed from the time when the matter of 7 complaint of the charge arose; and 8
- (c) may hear and decide the charge at any place 9 appointed for holding a Magistrates Court 10 within the district in which the accused 11 person was arrested on the charge or served 12 with the summons for the charge under the 13 Justices Act 1886. 14
- (3) However, a Magistrates Court must abstain from 15 dealing summarily with the charge if satisfied, on 16 an application made by the prosecution and the 17 defence, that because of the nature or seriousness 18 of the offence or any other relevant consideration 19 the defendant, if convicted, may not be adequately 20 punished on summary conviction. 21
- (4) If the Magistrates Court abstains from 22 jurisdiction— 23
- (a) the court must stop treating the proceeding 24
as a proceeding to hear and decide the 25 charge summarily; and 26
- (b) the proceeding for the charge must be 27 conducted as a committal proceeding; and 28
- (c) a plea of the defendant at the start of the 29 hearing must be disregarded; and 30
- (d) the evidence already heard by the court is 31 taken to be evidence in the committal 32 proceeding; and 33

- (e) the Justices Act 1886, section 104 must be 1 complied with for the committal 2 proceeding. 3

350B Maximum penalty for offence against s 131A 4 dealt with summarily 5

The maximum penalty that may be imposed on a 6 summary conviction for an offence against 7 section 131A is— 8

- (a) if the Magistrates Court is a court 9 constituted by a magistrate imposing a drug 10 and alcohol treatment order under the 11
Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, part 12
8A—100 penalty units or 4 years 13 imprisonment; or 14
- (b) otherwise—100 penalty units or 3 years 15
imprisonment. 16

350C Appeal against decision to decide charge 17 against s 131A summarily 18

- (1) This section applies if a person is summarily 19 convicted or sentenced for an offence against 20 section 131A. 21
- (2) The grounds on which the person may appeal 22 include that the Magistrates Court erred by 23 deciding the conviction or sentence summarily. 24
- (3) The grounds on which the Attorney-General may 25
appeal against the sentence include that the 26
Magistrates Court erred by deciding the sentence 27 summarily. 28
- (4) On an appeal against the sentence relying on a 29 ground that the Magistrates Court erred by 30 proceeding summarily, the court deciding the 31
appeal may, if it decides to vary the sentence, 32
impose the sentence the court considers 33

411B Application for police assistance removal order	1 2
(1) This section applies in relation to a person, other than a child, who—	3 4
(a) having been admitted to a watch-house, is taken to be in the commissioner’s custody under the Corrective Services Act 2006 , section 8; and	5 6 7 8
(b) before being taken to a corrective services facility, wishes to provide information to help the police service to investigate an offence or gather intelligence in relation to criminal activity on the basis that the person is not a suspect for—	9 10 11 12 13 14
(i) the offence the subject of the investigation; or	15 16
(ii) an offence involved in the criminal activity; and	17 18
(c) is able to provide the information only by being removed from the watch-house and taken to a place that is not a police establishment.	19 20 21 22
(2) A police officer may apply to a magistrate for an order (a police assistance removal order) for the removal of the person in custody (the relevant person) to the custody of a police officer to enable the person to provide information to help the police service investigate an offence or gather intelligence in relation to criminal activity.	23 24 25 26 27 28 29
(3) Before making an application for a police assistance removal order, a police officer must obtain the approval of a police officer of at least the rank of detective superintendent.	30 31 32 33
Note—	34
See also sections 411C and 411D.	35

[s 37]

- (4) The application must be— 1
- (a) made in person; and 2
- (b) sworn and state the grounds on which the 3
order is sought. 4
- (5) The magistrate may refuse to consider the 5 application until the police officer gives the 6 magistrate all the information the magistrate 7 requires about the application in the way the 8 magistrate requires. 9
- Example—* 10
- The magistrate may require additional information 11
supporting the application to be given by statutory 12 declaration. 13

411C Consent of relevant person required 14

- (1) Before applying for a police assistance removal 15 order, a police officer must obtain the written 16 consent of the relevant person. 17
- (2) The police officer must inform the relevant person 18 that the relevant person may seek legal advice 19 before deciding whether to give consent to be 20 removed to the custody of a police officer for the 21 purposes of a police assistance removal order. 22
- (3) The relevant person's consent must also, if 23
reasonably practicable, be electronically recorded 24
by the police officer. 25
- (4) However, the relevant person may refuse to 26
consent to the electronic recording of the consent. 27

411D Making, and effect, of police assistance 28 removal order 29

- (1) A magistrate may make a police assistance 30 removal order only if the magistrate is satisfied 31
the relevant person has consented to be removed 32 into the custody of a police officer for the 33

- purposes of an investigation of an offence or intelligence gathering in relation to criminal activity on the basis that the person is not a suspect for—
- (a) the offence the subject of the investigation; or
 - (b) an offence involved in the criminal activity.
- (2) If a police assistance removal order is made, the relevant person can not, during the assistance period, be questioned by a police officer about—
- (a) an offence the person has been charged with; or
 - (b) the commission of an offence the person is suspected of being involved in.

411E What police assistance removal order must state

- A police assistance removal order must state the following—
- (a) the name of the relevant person and the watch-house in which the person is in custody;
 - (b) the name of the police officer (the relevant police officer) who will have control of the relevant person while the person is absent from the watch-house;
 - (c) that the watch-house manager must release or make arrangements for the release of the relevant person into the custody of the relevant police officer;
 - (d) the reason for the relevant person’s removal;
 - (e) the places, if known, to which the relevant person is to be taken during the assistance period;

[s 37]

- (f) that the relevant person must be returned to the watch-house as soon as reasonably practicable after the assistance period ends or the relevant person withdraws consent to help the police service; 1
2
3
4
5
- (g) any other conditions the magistrate considers appropriate. 6 7

411F Assistance period 8

A police officer may keep a relevant person in custody under a police assistance removal order for no more than 8 hours (the assistance period), unless the assistance period is extended. 9
10
12

411G Application for extension of assistance period 13
14

- (1) A police officer may apply for an order extending the assistance period before the period ends. 15 16
- (2) The application must be made to— 17
 - (a) a magistrate; or 18
 - (b) a justice of the peace (magistrates court); or 19
 - (c) if there is no magistrate or justice of the peace (magistrates court) available—another justice of the peace other than a justice of the peace (commissioner for declarations). 20 21
22
23
24

411H Further consent of relevant person required 25

- (1) Before applying for an extension of the assistance period under section 411G, a police officer must obtain the further written consent of the relevant person to the extension of the assistance period. 26
27
28
29
- (2) The relevant person may seek legal advice before deciding whether to give consent to the extension 30 31 of the assistance period. 1

(3) The relevant person's consent must also, if 2
reasonably practicable, be electronically recorded 3
by the police officer. 4

(4) However, the relevant person may refuse to 5
consent to the electronic recording of the consent. 6

411I When assistance period may be extended 7

(1) A magistrate or justice may extend the assistance 8 period for a relevant person if satisfied— 9

(a) the relevant person has given consent for the 10 assistance period to be extended; and 11

(b) the extension of the assistance period is 12 reasonably necessary. 13

(2) An order may extend the assistance period for a 14 reasonable time of not more than 8 hours. 15

(3) There may be only 1 extension of the assistance 16 period for a police assistance removal order. 17

411J Withdrawal of consent 18

(1) A relevant person may withdraw consent to help 19
the police service under this division at any time. 20

(2) If a relevant person withdraws consent after the 21 person is taken into custody under a police 22 assistance removal order, the relevant police 23 officer must return the person to the watch-house 24
as soon as reasonably practicable. 25

10.23A Proceeding for offence against s 10.21BA

- (1) A charge of an offence against section 10.21BA must be heard and decided summarily if the prosecution elects to have the offence heard and decided summarily.
- (2) A Magistrates Court that summarily deals with the charge for the offence—
- (a) must be constituted by a magistrate; and
 - (b) has jurisdiction despite the time that has elapsed from the time when the matter of complaint of the charge arose; and
 - (c) may hear and decide the charge at any place appointed for holding a Magistrates Court within the district in which the accused person was arrested on the charge or served with the summons for the charge under the Justices Act 1886.
- (3) However, a Magistrates Court must abstain from dealing summarily with the charge if satisfied, on an application made by the prosecution and the defence, that because of the nature or seriousness of the offence or any other relevant consideration the defendant, if convicted, may not be adequately punished on summary conviction.
- (4) If the Magistrates Court abstains from jurisdiction—
- (a) the court must stop treating the proceeding as a proceeding to hear and decide the charge summarily; and
 - (b) the proceeding for the charge must be conducted as a committal proceeding; and
 - (c) a plea of the defendant at the start of the hearing must be disregarded; and

[s 51]

- (d) the evidence already heard by the court is taken to be evidence in the committal proceeding; and
- (e) the Justices Act 1886, section 104 must be complied with for the committal proceeding.

10.23B Maximum penalty for offence against s 10.21BA dealt with summarily

The maximum penalty that may be imposed on a summary conviction for an offence against section 10.23A is—

- (a) if the Magistrates Court is a court constituted by a magistrate imposing a drug and alcohol treatment order under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, part 8A—100 penalty units or 4 years imprisonment; or
- (b) otherwise—100 penalty units or 3 years imprisonment.

10.23C Appeal against decision to decide charge against s 10.21BA summarily

- (1) This section applies if a person is summarily convicted or sentenced for an offence against section 10.21BA.
- (2) The grounds on which the person may appeal include that the Magistrates Court erred by deciding the conviction or sentence summarily.
- (3) The grounds on which the Attorney-General may appeal against the sentence include that the Magistrates Court erred by deciding the sentence summarily.
- (4) On an appeal against the sentence relying on a ground that the Magistrates Court erred by proceeding summarily, the court deciding the 1

appeal may, if it decides to vary the sentence, 2
impose the sentence the court considers 3 appropriate up to the maximum sentence that 4 could have been imposed if the matter had been 5 dealt with on indictment. 6
