67I What is reasonably practicable in ensuring safety

26
27

In this part, reasonably practicable, in relation to a duty to ensure safety, means that which is, or was at a particular time, reasonably able to be done in relation to the duty, weighing up all relevant matters, including—

28
29
30
31
32

- (a) the likelihood of a safety risk, or damage to property, happening; and 1 2
 - (b) the harm that could result from the risk or damage; and 3 4
 - (c) what the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, about the risk or damage; and 5 6
 - (d) what the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, about the ways of— 7 8
 - (i) removing or minimising the risk; or 9
 - (ii) preventing or minimising the damage; and 10 11
 - (e) the availability and suitability of those ways; and 12 13
 - (f) the cost associated with the available ways, including whether the cost is grossly disproportionate to the likelihood of the risk or damage. 14 15
16
17

67J Duty holders for road-based public passenger service 18 19

- (1) Each of the following persons is a duty holder for a road-based public passenger service— 20 21
 - (a) an operator of the service; 22
 - (b) a registered operator of a motor vehicle used to provide the service; 23 24
 - (c) the driver of a motor vehicle used to provide the service; 25 26
 - (d) a booking service provider for the service; 27
 - (e) if the service is a personalised transport service—a holder of a personalised transport service licence for a motor vehicle used to provide the service; 28 29
30
31

[s 38]

- (f) if the service is a personalised transport service and an authorised booking entity who provides booking services for the service is a foreign person—the entity’s local nominee. 1
2
3
5
- (2) Also, a person who is contracted by a volunteer association that provides a public passenger service to drive a motor vehicle provided by the service is taken to be a duty holder for a road-based public passenger service. 6 7
9
10
- (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a reference in this chapter to a duty holder for a road-based public passenger service does not include a reference to the State or an authorised person. 11 12
13
14
15

67K Relationship with other safety laws 16

- (1) If a provision of this part and a provision of another safety law deal with the same thing and it is possible to comply with both provisions, a person must comply with both provisions. 17
18
19 20
- (2) However, to the extent it is not possible for the person to comply with a provision of this part and a provision of another safety law dealing with the same thing, the person must comply with— 21
22
23
24
 - (a) the provision of the other safety law; or 25
 - (b) if, under the other safety law, the person is required to comply with a provision of another safety law—the provision of the other safety law. 26 27
28
29
- (3) Evidence of a contravention of this part is admissible in any proceeding for an offence against a provision of another safety law. 30 31
32
- (4) If an act, omission or circumstance constitutes an offence under this part and another safety law, the 33 34 offender is not liable to be punished more than 1

once for the act, omission or circumstance. 2

Division 2 Principles 3

67L Principle of shared responsibility 4

- (1) The effect that activities associated with 5
providing a road-based public passenger service 6 have on safety is the shared responsibility of each 7 duty holder for the service. 8
- (2) The level and nature of a person’s responsibility 9 for an activity depends on— 10
 - (a) the functions the person performs or is 11 required to perform, whether exclusively or 12
occasionally; and 13
 - (b) the nature of the safety risks created by the 14
carrying out of the activity; and 15
 - (c) the person’s capacity to control, eliminate or 16
minimise the risks. 17

67M Principles applying to duties 18

- (1) A person may have more than 1 duty because of 19
the functions the person performs or is required to 20 perform. 21
- (2) More than 1 person can concurrently have the 22
same duty. 23
- (3) Each person must comply with the duty to the 24 standard required under this part even if another 25 person has the same duty. 26
- (4) If more than 1 person has a duty for the same 27
matter, each person— 28
 - (a) is responsible for the person’s duty in 29
relation to the matter; and 30

[s 38]

- (b) must discharge the person's duty to the extent to which the person—
 - (i) has the capacity to influence and control the matter; or
 - (ii) would have the capacity but for an agreement or arrangement purporting to limit or remove that capacity.
- (5) A person's duty can not be transferred to another person.
- (6) Compliance with relevant transport legislation or a safety law is not, of itself, evidence that a person has discharged a duty under this part.

Division 3 Nature of primary duties 13

67N Primary duty of care generally 14

- (1) This section applies to each duty holder for a road-based public passenger service, other than a driver for the service.
 - Note—*
 - See section 67O for the primary duty of care of a driver for a road-based public passenger service.
- (2) Each duty holder must ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the safety of the person's activities, including business practices and making decisions, in providing the road-based public passenger service.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), each duty holder must—
 - (a) eliminate safety risks or, to the extent it is not reasonably practicable to eliminate safety risks, minimise those risks; and

- (b) ensure the person’s conduct does not directly or indirectly encourage another person, including another duty holder for the service, to contravene a provision of relevant transport legislation relating to—
- (i) the provision of a road-based public passenger service; or
 - (ii) a motor vehicle used to provide a road-based public passenger service.
- (4) In this section—
- business practices* means a person’s practices in running a business associated with providing a road-based public passenger service, including—
- (a) the operating policies and procedures of the business; and
 - (b) the arrangements for preventing or minimising safety risks associated with the person’s practices.

670 Primary duty of care of driver

- A driver for a road-based public passenger service must, in providing the service—
- (a) take reasonable care for their own safety; and
 - (b) ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that their activities do not adversely affect the safety of other persons, including, for example, by ensuring—
 - (i) they do not drive while fatigued; and
 - (ii) they appropriately secure wheelchairs into a vehicle in accordance with any relevant vehicle and equipment specifications; and

[s 38]

(iii) they comply with relevant transport legislation. 1
2

67P Duty of executive officer of corporation 3

(1) If a corporation has a safety duty under section 4
67N or division 4, an executive officer of the 5 corporation must exercise due diligence to ensure 6
the corporation complies with the duty. 7

Maximum penalty—the penalty under section 8
67V, 67W or 67X for an offence relating to a 9 safety duty committed by an individual. 10

(2) The executive officer may be proceeded against 11 for, and convicted of, an offence against 12 subsection (1) even if the corporation has not been 13 proceeded against for, or convicted of, an offence 14 relating to the duty. 15

(3) In this section— 16
due diligence includes taking reasonable steps 17 to— 18

(a) acquire, and keep up to date, knowledge 19 about the safe conduct of activities relating 20 to providing a road-based public passenger 21 service; and 22

(b) gain an understanding of— 23
(i) the nature of the corporation’s 24 activities relating to providing a 25 road-based public passenger service; 26 and 27

(ii) the hazards and safety risks associated 28 with those activities; and 29

(c) ensure the corporation has, and uses, 30 appropriate resources to eliminate or 31
minimise those hazards and risks; and 32

- (d) ensure the corporation has, and implements, processes—
 - (i) to eliminate or minimise those hazards and risks; and
 - (ii) for receiving, considering, and responding in a timely way to information about those hazards and risks and any incidents; and
 - (iii) for complying with the corporation’s safety duty; and
 - (e) verify the resources and processes mentioned in paragraphs (c) and (d) are being provided, implemented and used.
