2 Commencement	6
This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.	7
3 Application of Act	8
(1) This Act applies in relation to a trust whether created before or after, or partly before and partly after, the commencement of this Act, except to the extent this Act or another Act provides otherwise.	9 10 11 12
Note—	13
For an example of an Act providing otherwise, see the Land Act 1994 , section 90.	14 15

(3) This Act does not prevent a settlor conferring on a trustee any powers additional to or greater than those conferred under this Act.	18 19 20

(ii)	the nature and seriousness of the breaches make the person unfit to act as a trustee.	6 7
(2)	The court may, by order—	8
(a)	disqualify the person from being appointed as a trustee of any trust for a stated period; and	9 10
(b)	if the person is a trustee of another trust when an order is made under paragraph (a)—remove the person as trustee of the other trust.	11 12 13

- (i) convey the trust property; or 7
- (ii) receive the dividends or income of the trust 8
property; or 9
- (iii) sue for or recover the trust property; or 10
- (e) the last continuing trustee of a trust has died and 1 of the 11
following applies— 12
- (i) there is no personal representative of the last 13
continuing trustee; 14
- (ii) the personal representative of the last continuing 15
trustee can not be found; 16
- (iii) it is uncertain who the personal representative of 17
the last continuing trustee is; or 18
- (f) it is uncertain whether the last trustee of a trust known to 19 have been entitled to, or possessed of, any trust property 20 is alive or dead; or 21
- (g) in circumstances where 2 or more trustees were jointly 22 entitled to, or possessed of, trust property, it is uncertain 23 who the survivor of the trustees was; or 24
- (h) trust property is vested in a trustee and it appears to the 25 court to be expedient to make a vesting order. 26
- (2) Also, this division applies if— 27
- (a) a person, who is required to do so under a court order, 28
neglects or refuses to— 29
- (i) convey any property; or 30
- (ii) receive the dividends or income of any property; or 31

 - (ii) makes an order for the specific performance of a contract concerning land; or

- (3) For this section, a trustee is entitled to, or possessed of, trust property even if—
- (a) the trust property is held jointly with another person; or
 - (b) the trustee is entitled to, or possessed of, the trust property by way of mortgage or otherwise.

171 Court may make vesting and other orders etc.

- (1) The court may, on application or on its own initiative, make an order (a vesting order) vesting the trust property or other property in any person in any way and for any estate or interest that the court directs.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies subject to section 172.
- (3) As well as, or instead of, making a vesting order in relation to the trust property or other property, the court may make any declaration or order, or give any direction, in relation to the property that it considers appropriate, including—
 - (a) for the purpose of making a vesting order under subsection (1), a declaration that a person is a trustee, within the meaning of this Act, of the property; and

(b)	an order releasing a contingent right or disposing of a contingent right to any person as the court directs; and	1 2
(c)	an order appointing a person to convey the property or release a contingent right.	3 4
(4)	If the court makes a vesting order in relation to the trust property or other property, it may also make a declaration, or give a direction, about the way the right to transfer the property is to be exercised.	5 6 7 8
(5)	In this section—	9
	contingent right , in relation to property, includes—	10
(a)	a contingent right of an unborn person, or of unborn persons of a class, who, on coming into existence, would become entitled to, or possessed of, the property under a trust; and	11 12 13 14
(b)	the estate or interest in the property that an unborn person, or unborn persons of a class, mentioned in paragraph (a) would become entitled to, or possessed of, on coming into existence.	15 16 17 18
172	Restrictions on vesting orders in particular circumstances	19 20
(1)	If a vesting order is to be made consequential on the appointment of a new trustee, including on the appointment of a new trustee to replace a trustee, the trust property must be vested in the persons who, on the appointment, are the trustees.	21 22 23 24 25
(2)	If a vesting order is to be made consequential on the removal of 1 or more of a number of trustees without being replaced, or on the discharge of a trustee under section 30, the trust property must be vested in the continuing trustees alone.	26 27 28 29
(3)	A vesting order may vest shares that are not fully paid up in a person only if—	30 31
(a)	the person applies for the order or consents to the order being made; or	32 33

[s 173]

(b)	the court directs that the person’s consent be dispensed with.	1 2
173	Effect of vesting and other orders	3
(1)	A vesting order—	4
(a)	divests the trust property or other property to which the order relates from the persons in whom the property was vested immediately before the order was made; and	5 6 7
(b)	without any conveyance, transfer or assignment, vests the property in—	8 9
(i)	the person named, as trustee or otherwise, in the order; or	10 11
(ii)	if more than 1 person is named, as trustee or otherwise, in the order—the persons named in the order, as joint tenants.	12 13 14
(2)	However, to the extent the divesting and vesting of the trust property or other property have effect only if notified, registered or recorded under the requirements of another Act or of a law of another State or the Commonwealth, the divesting and vesting of the property are subject to the requirements of the other Act or law.	15 16 17 18 19 20
174	Transfer of property under vesting order	24
(1)	The person in whom the trust property or other property is vested under a vesting order must, for the purpose of effecting the notification, registration or recording of the order under a requirement mentioned in section 173(2)—	25 26 27 28
(a)	produce the order to the relevant registrar or other person having the function of receiving notification of, or registering or recording, the vesting; and	29 30 31

(b)	do any other act that is required by the relevant registrar or other person for that purpose.	1 2
(2)	The vesting order, or the notification, registration or recording of the order, does not have effect as a breach of covenant or condition, or give rise to the forfeiture, of any lease or agreement for lease or other property.	3 4 5 6
(3)	If the consent of a person is needed to the conveyance, transfer or assignment of any property—	7 8
(a)	the vesting of the property under a vesting order is subject to the consent, unless the order otherwise provides; but	9 10 11
(b)	the consent may be obtained after the making of the vesting order by the persons named in the order.	12 13
175	Powers etc. of person named in vesting order as trustee	14
(1)	This section applies if a vesting order vests property in a person as trustee.	15 16
(2)	The person named in the vesting order as trustee has all the powers, authorities and discretions of, and may in all matters act as, a person who had originally been appointed as a trustee of the trust property under the trust instrument.	17 18 19 20
(3)	However, the court may—	21
(a)	under the vesting order, limit the trustee’s powers as the court considers appropriate; or	22 23
(b)	under section 179 or 183, enlarge the trustee’s powers as the court considers appropriate.	24 25
176	Circumstances relating to validity of vesting and other orders etc.	26 27
(1)	This section applies in relation to a vesting order or any other order, declaration or direction made, or given, under section 171.	28 29 30

- (2) The fact that the order, declaration or direction is founded, or purports to be founded, on an allegation of the existence of a circumstance mentioned in section 170(1) or (2) is conclusive evidence of the circumstance alleged in any court on any question about the validity of the order, declaration or direction. 1
2
4
6
- (3) However, if the order, declaration or direction has been improperly obtained, nothing in this Act prevents the court from— 7
9
- (a) in the case of a vesting order—directing a reconveyance of the property the subject of the order; or 10 11
- (b) making an order in relation to the payment of costs occasioned by the improper obtaining of the order, declaration or direction; or 12
13
14
- (c) making a further order or declaration, or giving a further direction, under section 171. 15
16

Division 5 Orders in relation to property and claims of children 17 18

177 Court may make orders in relation to property or claim of child 19
20

- (1) If a child is beneficially entitled to property of which there is no trustee, the court may, on application by the child's litigation guardian, make an order, on the terms the court considers appropriate, appointing the litigation guardian or another person the court considers appropriate— 21
22
25
- (a) to deal with the property; or 26
- (b) to exercise in relation to the property the powers conferred on a trustee under this Act. 27
28
30
31
32

- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if the settlement or compromise may be sanctioned under the Public Trustee Act 1978, section 59 by a court or the public trustee. 1
3
- (4) The court must not make an order under subsection (1) or (2) unless it appears to the court that the order is for the benefit of— 4
6
- (a) the child; or 7
- (b) the child and another person. 8
- (5) An act done under an order made under this section is binding on the child. 9 10
- (6) In this section— 11
deal, with property, includes sell, convey, lease, mortgage, charge and sue for and recover the property. 12 13

Division 6 Conferral of additional management powers 14 15

178 Definition for division 16

In this division— 17

management power, in relation to a trust, means any power for the management or administration of the trust or the trust property, including, for example— 18 19
20

- (a) the power to surrender, release or otherwise dispose of the trust property; and 21 22
- (b) the power to retain the trust property; and 23
- (c) the power to buy, invest in or acquire trust property or engage in another transaction for the trust; and 24
- (d) the power to expend an amount out of trust funds. 26

[s 179]

179	Court may confer additional management powers	1
(1)	This section applies in relation to a trust if the court is satisfied—	2 3
(a)	the exercise of a particular management power—	4
(i)	would be expedient in the management or administration of the trust property; or	5 6
(ii)	would be in the best interests of the persons, or the majority of the persons, beneficially interested in the trust property; and	7 8 9
(b)	the management power can not be exercised because—	10
(i)	it is inexpedient, difficult or impracticable to exercise the power without a court order; or	11 12
(ii)	the trustee does not have the management power under this Act, the trust instrument or otherwise.	13 14
(2)	For subsection (1)(b)(ii), it does not matter that the trustee does not have the particular management power because—	15 16
(a)	this Act allows the power, which would otherwise be conferred on the trustee under this Act, to be excluded or modified under the trust instrument; and	17 18 19
(b)	the trust instrument excludes or modifies the power.	20
	Note—	21
	See section 82(3) in relation to the powers that may be excluded or modified under the trust instrument.	22 23
(3)	The court may, by order, confer the management power on the trustee, either generally or in a particular matter, and on the terms and subject to any conditions the court considers appropriate.	24 25 26 27
(4)	Without limiting subsection (3), the court may direct—	28
(a)	how an amount authorised to be expended is to be paid; and	29 30
(b)	how the costs of any transaction are to be borne; and	31
(c)	the extent to which the amount or the costs are to be apportioned between capital and income.	32 33

180	Court may revoke or vary order	1
(1)	The court may, by further order, revoke or vary an order made under section 179.	2 3
(2)	The revocation or variation of an order made under section 179 does not affect any act or thing done in reliance on the order before the person doing the act or thing became aware of the application to the court to revoke or vary the order.	4 5 6 7
181	Persons who may apply for order	8
	An application for an order under section 179 or 180 in relation to a trust may be made by—	9 10
(a)	any trustee of the trust; or	11
(b)	any person beneficially interested in the trust property.	12
Division 7	Variations of trusts	13
182	Meaning of protective trust	14
(1)	For this division, a trust is a protective trust if, under the trust, income is, without prejudice to any prior interest—	15 16
(a)	held on trust for the benefit of a person (the principal beneficiary)—	17 18
(i)	for the period of the principal beneficiary’s life or a lesser period (in either case the trust period); or	19 20
(ii)	until the trust (the primary trust) sooner fails or determines because of an intervening event; and	21 22
(b)	if the primary trust fails or determines during the trust period—held on trust for the remainder of the trust period to be applied, as the trustee considers appropriate, for the maintenance, education or advancement (including past maintenance or education) of 1 or more of the following persons—	23 24 25 26 27 28

- (i) the principal beneficiary and the principal beneficiary's spouse or issue; 1 2
4
7
9
- (3) In this section— 10
 - income* includes an annuity and any other periodic payment of income. 11 12
 - intervening event*, in relation to a primary trust, means an event provided for under the trust instrument that, if it happens, results in— 13
14
15
 - (a) the principal beneficiary of the primary trust being deprived of the right to receive the income, or part of the income, of the trust; and 16
17
18
 - (b) the consequent failure or determination of the primary trust. 19 20

183 Power of court to authorise variations of trust 21

- (1) The court may make an order under this section approving an arrangement in relation to a trust for any of the following persons (each a restricted beneficiary)— 22
24
 - (a) a person under a legal incapacity who has an interest under the trust, whether directly or indirectly and whether vested or contingent; 25
26
27
 - (b) a person (whether ascertained or not) who may become entitled, directly or indirectly, to an interest under the trust at a future date or on the happening of a future event (each later in time than the date of an application to the court under this section) because the person becomes— 28
29
30
31
32
33

- (i) a person of a particular description; or 1
- (ii) a member of a particular class of persons; 2
- (c) an unborn person; 3
- (d) a person who, if a protective trust failed or determined, 4 would be a member of the class of persons mentioned in 5 section 182(1)(b)(i) or (ii). 6
- (2) An arrangement may— 7
- (a) vary or revoke all or any of the trusts; or 8
- (b) enlarge the powers of the trustees to manage or 9 administer any of the trust property. 10
- (3) An arrangement may be approved only if carrying out the 11 arrangement would be for the benefit of the restricted 12
beneficiary. 13
- (4) However, subsection (3) does not apply if the restricted 14
beneficiary is— 15
- (a) an unascertained person whose entitlement is dependent 16 on a future event that the court is satisfied is unlikely to 17 happen; or 18
- (b) a person mentioned in subsection (1)(d). 19
- (5) An order approving an arrangement may be made regardless 20 of— 21
- (a) who has proposed the arrangement; or 22
- (b) whether there is any other person beneficially interested 23 in the trust property who is capable of assenting to the 24 arrangement. 25
- (6) Notice of an application to the court for an order under this 26 section must be given to all persons as the court directs. 27
- (7) This section does not limit the court’s powers under division 28
6. 29
- (8) This section does not apply in relation to a trust affecting 30
property settled by an Act. 31

Division 8	Applications for directions	1
184	Court may give directions about particular matters	2
(1)	The court may, on application by a trustee, give the directions it considers appropriate about—	3 4
(a)	the trust property; or	5
(b)	the management or administration of the trust property; or	6 7
(c)	the exercise of any power or discretion vested in the trustee.	8 9
(2)	An application for directions under subsection (1) must be served on each person having an interest in the application, or on any of them as the court considers expedient.	10 11 12
185	Protection of trustee acting under court directions	13
(1)	If a trustee acts in accordance with a direction of the court given under section 184, the trustee is taken, in relation to the trustee's own liability, to have discharged the trustee's duty as trustee in the matter the subject of the direction.	14 15 16 17
(2)	Subsection (1) applies even if the direction is later varied or set aside.	18 19
(3)	However, this section does not protect the trustee from liability for an act done under the direction if, in obtaining the direction, or in agreeing (either expressly or impliedly) with the court in making the order giving the direction, the trustee—	20 21 22 23 24
(a)	commits a fraud; or	25
(b)	wilfully conceals a material matter; or	26
(c)	misrepresents a material matter.	27
(4)	In this section— varied or set aside includes invalidated, overruled and declared to be of no effect.	28 29 30

	relevant power , in relation to a trustee or another person, means a power in relation to trust property or a trust that—	7 8
	(a) is conferred on the trustee or other person under this Act or otherwise; and	9 10
	(b) must be exercised in a fiduciary capacity.	11
187	Application for review or directions	12

	(ii) a right of proper administration in relation to a trust; and	17 18
	(b) the person—	19

	(ii) has reasonable grounds to apprehend an act, omission or decision (each an apprehended decision) of a trustee or another person, in the exercise of a relevant power, by which the person will be aggrieved.	23 24 25 26 27
	(2) The person may apply to the court, on a ground mentioned in section 188(1)(a) or (b), to—	28 29

[s 188]

(a)	review the relevant decision; or	1
(b)	give directions in relation to the apprehended decision.	2
188	Grounds for review or directions	3
(1)	The court may review the relevant decision, or give directions in relation to the apprehended decision, on the ground—	4 5
(b)	without limiting paragraph (a), the relevant power was, or would be, exercised by the trustee or other person—	9 10
