 - (a) a person ceases to be an employee of a unit of the State public sector and becomes an employee of another entity (the new employer) that is not a unit of the State public sector; and
 - (b) immediately before becoming an employee of the new employer, the person is a member of the scheme; and
 - (c) any of the following apply—

 - (ii) the person and the new employer each gives written notice to the board that he, she or it agrees to the person's continued membership of the scheme;

- (iii) the Minister declares, by gazette notice, that on becoming an employee of the new employer the person keeps all the person's existing and accruing rights relating to superannuation; and
 - (d) for a new employer who has given notice under paragraph (c)(ii)—the Minister approves the new employer for this section.
- (2) This Act applies in relation to the employment of the person as if the new employer were a unit of the State public sector.
 - (3) While a notice declaring that the person is eligible for membership of the scheme is in force under section 13, the person or the new employer may not revoke a notice given under subsection (1)(c)(ii).
 - (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that if, under subsection (2), this Act applies in relation to the person's employment—
 - (a) the person's membership or entitlement to membership of the standard defined benefit category of the scheme is unaffected by the change in the person's employment; and
 - (b) section 32N does not apply to the person.
 - (5) A gazette notice mentioned in subsection(1)(c)(iii) may have retrospective operation to the day the person becomes an employee of the new employer if the gazette notice provides for it.

 - (a) a person's employer ceases to be a unit of the State public sector (the relevant event) and the person continues to be an employee of the employer; and

- (b) immediately before the relevant event, the person is a member of the scheme; and
 - (c) any of the following apply—
 - (i) the relevant event happens under an Act that provides that, on the happening of the relevant event, the person keeps all the person's existing and accruing rights relating to superannuation;
 - (ii) the person and the employer each gives written notice to the board that he, she or it agrees to the person's continued membership of the scheme;
 - (iii) the Minister declares, by gazette notice, that, on the happening of the relevant event, the person keeps all the person's existing and accruing rights relating to superannuation; and
 - (d) for an employer who has given notice under paragraph (c)(ii)—the Minister approves the employer for this section.
- (2) This Act continues to apply in relation to the employment of the person as if the employer were a unit of the State public sector.
- (3) While a notice declaring that the person is eligible for membership of the scheme is in force under section 13, the person or the employer may not revoke a notice given under subsection (1)(c)(ii).
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that if, under subsection (2), this Act applies in relation to the person's employment—
- (a) the person's membership or entitlement to membership of the standard defined benefit category of the scheme is unaffected by the happening of the relevant event; and
 - (b) section 32N does not apply to the person.
- (5) A gazette notice mentioned in subsection(1)(c)(iii) may have retrospective operation to the day of the happening of the relevant event if the gazette notice provides for it.

- (6) In subsection (4)—

standard defined benefit category see section 32M.

13B Continuation of eligibility for membership after ceasing to be an employee, spouse or entitled former spouse

- (1) To remove doubt, it is declared that, if a person's contributory membership has ended, the person continues to be eligible for membership of the scheme while the person is entitled to a benefit, under the scheme, relating to the person's contributory membership.

- (2) In this section—

contributory membership means a person's membership of the scheme, while the person is an employee of a unit of the State public sector, the spouse of a member or an entitled former spouse, on the basis of the person's eligibility under a notice under section 13.
