Taxi and Limousine Industry Assistance Scheme Regulation 2016

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Taxi and Limousine Industry Assistance Scheme Regulation 2016.

2 Main purpose of regulation

The main purpose of this regulation is to provide for 2 schemes for the payment of financial assistance to certain persons for the purposes of—

- (a) the Transport Operations (Passenger Transport) Act 1994, section 155A; and
- (b) the Rural and Regional Adjustment Act 1994, section 11.

3 Approval of schemes

The schemes set out in parts 3 and 4 are approved under the Rural and Regional Adjustment Act 1994, section 11(1)(c).

Part 2 Interpretation

4 Interpretation

- (1) The dictionary in schedule 1 defines particular words used in this regulation.
- (2) A term used in this regulation and not defined in schedule 1 has the same meaning in this regulation as it has under the Transport Operations (Passenger Transport) Act 1994, section 155A.

[s 5]

- (3) A reference in this regulation to a provision of the Transport Operations (Passenger Transport) Regulation 2005 is a reference to the provision as in force on the relevant day.

5 What is a relevant licence

- (1) A relevant licence is—
- (a) a taxi service licence in force immediately before the relevant day; or
 - (b) a limousine service licence, other than a special purpose limousine service licence, in force immediately before the relevant day.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to a licence whether or not the licence is suspended under the Transport Operations (Passenger Transport) Act 1994.

Part 3 Transitional assistance

Division 1 Preliminary

7 Purpose of financial assistance

The purpose of financial assistance that may be given under the scheme is to assist relevant holders of relevant licences to adjust to changes in the taxi service industry and limousine service industry.

7A Who is the relevant holder of a relevant licence

- (1) The relevant holder of a relevant licence is—
- (a) if, under this section, the transport chief executive declares a stated person is the relevant holder of the licence—the stated person; or

- (b) otherwise—the person listed on the relevant licence register as the holder of the licence immediately before the relevant day.
- (2) The transport chief executive may, by notice given to the authority or other relevant persons, declare that a stated person is the relevant holder of a relevant licence.
- (3) The transport chief executive may declare a person is the relevant holder of a relevant licence only if—
 - (a) the person was listed on the relevant licence register as the holder of the licence immediately before the relevant day; or
 - (b) the licence was transferred to the person and the transport chief executive was given notice of the transfer under the Transport Operations (Passenger Transport) Regulation 2005, section 54(2) or 98(2) before the relevant day; or
 - (c) both of the following apply—
 - (i) the licence was vested in, or was transferred to, the person whether by operation of law or otherwise;
 - (ii) having regard to the matters relating to the vesting or transfer, the transport chief executive is satisfied the person should be declared to be the relevant holder of the licence.

Example for paragraph (c)—

If a relevant licence is vested in an executor of a deceased estate, the transport chief executive may be satisfied the executor should be declared to be the relevant holder of the licence.

- (4) If a group of 2 or more persons is the relevant holder of a relevant licence—
 - (a) the group of persons is collectively the relevant holder of the relevant licence; and
 - (b) for working out the number of relevant licences held by the group of persons, only the relevant licences held by the persons as part of the same group are to be counted.

[s 8]

Example—

If A, B and C are the relevant holder of a relevant licence, only the relevant licences held by A, B, and C collectively are counted for working out the number of relevant licences held by A, B and C as a relevant holder. Any relevant licences held by A, B or C individually, and any licences held by a group that includes some but not all of A, B and C or includes all of A, B and C but also includes other persons, are not counted.

- (5) For this section, the transport chief executive may, by notice, ask a person for information the transport chief executive considers necessary to identify the relevant holder of a relevant licence.

8 What is the transitional assistance amount

The transitional assistance amount for the relevant holder of a relevant licence is—

- (a) for a relevant holder in relation to a taxi service licence—
- (i) if the relevant holder held only 1 taxi service licence immediately before the relevant day—$20,000 for the licence; or
 - (ii) if the relevant holder held 2 or more taxi service licences immediately before the relevant day—$40,000 in total for all the licences; or

Example for paragraph (a)(ii)—

If A held 3 taxi service licences immediately before the relevant day, the transitional assistance amount for A is $40,000 in total for all the licences.

- (b) for a relevant holder in relation to a limousine service licence—$10,000 for each limousine service licence, other than a special purpose limousine service licence, held by the relevant holder immediately before the relevant day.

Division 2 General provisions

- (2) For a relevant licence for which a group of 2 or more persons is the relevant holder, the authority may disclose information about 1 of the persons to the other persons for the purpose of inviting the group of persons to apply for financial assistance under the scheme.

Part 4 Industry hardship assistance

Division 1 Preliminary

20 Purpose of financial assistance

The purpose of financial assistance that may be given under the scheme is to assist eligible persons who are experiencing hardship as a result of structural changes in the taxi service industry and limousine service industry.

Example—

If A, B and C are the relevant holder of a relevant licence, only the relevant licences held by A, B, and C collectively are counted for working out the number of relevant licences held by A, B and C as a relevant holder. Any relevant licences held by A, B or C individually, and any licences held by a group that includes some but not all of A, B and C or includes all of A, B and C but also includes other persons, are not counted.

25 Declaration about relevant holder of relevant licence

26 Who is the relevant operator for a relevant licence

- (1) The relevant operator for a relevant licence is—
 - (a) if a taxi service licence was the subject of a lease immediately before the relevant day—the person who was, immediately before the relevant day—
 - (i) an accredited operator; and
