Tourism Services Regulation 2003

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Tourism Services Regulation 2003.

2 Commencement

This regulation commences on 1 December 2003.

3 Fees

The fees payable under the Act are stated in schedule 1.

3A Fee exemption or reduction for particular applications for renewal of registration

- (1) This section applies in relation to an application for renewal of a registrant's registration made under section 22(1) of the Act if the registration expires between 1 February 2020 and 31 January 2021, both dates inclusive.
- (2) Despite section 3—
 - (a) if the application is for registration for a term of 1 year—no registration renewal fee is payable for the application; and
 - (b) if the application is for registration for a term of 3 years—the registration renewal fee payable for the application is $1,574.
- (3) This section expires on 31 March 2021.

4 Keeping records and other documents

- (1) This section applies to a person who is, or has been, an inbound tour operator.

- (2) The person must keep the person's accounting records for a financial year for at least 7 years after the end of the financial year.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (3) The person must, for each travel package arranged by the person that includes visiting a place, or travelling, in Queensland, keep a copy of the following until the retention day for the travel package—

- (a) all itineraries and quotations used by the person for the travel package;
- (b) all documents used by the person to promote the travel package.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (4) In this section—accounting records, of a person, means the financial records kept by the person for carrying on the business of an inbound tour operator.

retention day, for a travel package, means the day that is 2 years after the later of the following days—

- (a) the last day a tourist arrives in Queensland under the travel package;
- (b) the day the person ceases to use, or materially changes, the travel package.

5 Change in circumstances for which notice must be given

For section 33 of the Act, a change in any of the following circumstances for a registrant is prescribed—

- (a) the registrant's name;
- (b) the name under which the registrant carries on business;
- (c) the registrant's residential address, business address or postal address;
- (d) the registrant's phone number, fax number, mobile phone number or email address;

- (e) any change that would make the registrant no longer a suitable person to hold registration under section 13 or section 14 of the Act;
- (f) for a corporation, the composition of the executive officers of the corporation;
- (g) for a partnership, the composition of the partners in the partnership.
