Public Service Regulation 2018

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Public Service Regulation 2018.

2 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 15 defines particular words used in this regulation.

Part 2 Public service offices

Division 1 Declared public service offices, heads of office, applied provisions and applied rulings

3 Declared public service offices, their heads, applied provisions and applied rulings—Act ss 21 and 23

- (1) Schedules 2 to 13 state—
 - (a) the entities declared to be public service offices under section 21(1)(b) of the Act; and
 - (b) for each office—
 - (i) the person declared to be the head of the office under section 21(2)(b) of the Act; and
 - (ii) the applied provisions under section 23(2)(a)(i) of the Act for the office; and

[s 4]

- (iii) the applied provisions under section 23(2)(a)(ii) of the Act for the persons, other than public service employees, who are employed in the office; and
 - (iv) the rulings (each an applied ruling) about matters that apply, with all necessary changes, for a declared public service office and stated employees.
- (2) The application of an applied ruling for a Hospital and Health Service or Queensland Health is subject to division 3.

Division 2 Application of applied provisions and applied rulings

4 Application of applied provisions

- (1) The applied provisions apply to a declared public service office and its employees as if—
- (a) the office were a department; and
 - (b) the declared head of the office were the chief executive of the department; and
 - (c) the office's employees were public service employees.
- (2) If the declared public service office is a Hospital and Health Service or Queensland Health, the application of an applied provision is subject to division 3.

5 Transfer or redeployment of employees under applied provisions

- (1) On the transfer or redeployment of an employee of a declared public service office to the public service under an applied provision—
- (a) the employee is employed under the Act; and
 - (b) the employee retains and is entitled to all rights that have accrued to the employee because of the person's employment with the declared public service office; and

- (c) the employee's service as an employee of the declared public service office is taken to be service of a like nature in the public service for deciding the employee's rights as a public service employee; and
 - (d) the transfer or redeployment does not break the employee's continuity of service.
- (2) On the transfer or redeployment of a public service employee to or into a declared public service office under an applied provision—
- (a) the employee is employed—
 - (i) if the office is Queensland Health—under the Hospital and Health Boards Act 2011; or
 - (ii) if the office is the Gasfields Commission—under the Act; or
 - (iii) otherwise—under the Act under which the entity is established; and
 - (b) the employee retains and is entitled to all rights that have accrued to the employee because of the person's employment as a public service employee; and
 - (c) the employee's service as a public service employee is taken to be service of a like nature with the declared public service office for deciding the employee's rights as an employee of the declared public service office; and
 - (d) the transfer or redeployment does not break the employee's continuity of service.

6 Application of applied provisions to particular appeals

- (1) This section applies to a declared public service office if chapter 7 of the Act is an applied provision for the office.
- (2) The commission chief executive must declare, under a directive, the employees of the office to whom section 195(1)(g) of the Act applies as if the employees were senior executives or senior officers.

[s 7]

- (3) A declaration under subsection (2) may only be made if the commission chief executive considers that the employee is performing duties that would, if the employee were a public service officer, be duties of—
 - (a) for an employee to whom the section is to apply as if the employee were a senior executive—a senior executive; or
 - (b) for an employee to whom the section is to apply as if the employee were a senior officer—a senior officer.
- (4) For applying chapter 7 of the Act to an office or an employee (other than a health service employee) of the office—
 - (a) the reference in section 194(1)(b) to a disciplinary law is taken to include a reference to a law, other than the Act, under which employees of the office are disciplined (prescribed disciplinary law); and
 - (b) the reference in section 194(1)(b)(ii) to a disciplinary declaration made under section 188A is taken to include a reference to a declaration made under the prescribed disciplinary law that states the disciplinary action that would have been taken against the employee if the employee's employment had not ended.

7 References to repealed rulings

- (1) This section applies if a ruling about a matter mentioned in this regulation is repealed and a new ruling dealing with substantially the same subject matter is made.
- (2) A reference in this regulation to the repealed ruling is taken to be a reference to the new ruling.

Division 3 Application of particular applied provisions and rulings—health service employees

8 Application of Act, s 133 (Chief executive’s power to transfer or redeploy)

- (1) Section 133 of the Act does not apply in relation to the transfer or redeployment of a health service employee to another position as a health service employee, unless the employee is an employee requiring placement under a directive.
- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that section 133 applies in relation to the transfer or redeployment of—
 - (a) a public service officer to a position as a health service employee; and
 - (b) a health service employee to the public service.

9 Application of Act, ch 7 (Appeals and reviews) and rulings about appeals

Chapter 7 of the Act and rulings about appeals apply to decisions made in relation to health service employees under the Hospital and Health Boards Regulation 2012, part 3 as if a reference to a transfer decision includes a decision about the movement of a health service employee under that part.

10 Rulings about change of pay date for Queensland Health employees

- (1) For applying a ruling about change of pay date for employees of Queensland Health to a health service employee employed by a Hospital and Health Service, a reference in the ruling to Queensland Health is taken to be a reference to the Hospital and Health Service.
- (2) This section does not limit section 3(2).

11 Rulings about transfer and appointment expenses

A ruling about transfer and appointment expenses applies to a health service employee only if the employee is a member of a class of employees declared by the chief executive (health) in writing as being a class of employees to whom the ruling applies.

12 Rulings about individual employee grievances

- (1) For applying an individual employee grievance ruling in relation to managing a health service grievance, a reference in the ruling to the commission chief executive is taken to be a reference to the Hospital and Health Board for the Service.

- (2) In this section—

health service grievance means a grievance by an employee in a Hospital and Health Service about the health service chief executive of the Service.

Hospital and Health Board, for a Service, see the Hospital and Health Boards Act 2011, schedule 2.

individual employee grievance ruling means a ruling about managing an individual employee grievance.

13 Rulings about recruitment and selection

- (1) For applying a ruling about recruitment and selection in relation to deciding whether a mandatory qualification is required for a position as a health service employee, a qualification consultation requirement in the ruling—
 - (a) for a position as an employee in Queensland Health, including as an employee in a Hospital and Health Service—does not apply to the chief executive (health); or
 - (b) for a position as an employee in a Hospital and Health Service—applies to the health service chief executive of the service as if a reference in the ruling to the commission or the commission chief executive were a reference to the chief executive (health).

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent the qualification is required—
- (a) to comply with an industrial instrument; or
 - (b) to satisfy a requirement under a law of the Commonwealth or the State, including a requirement for accreditation or registration.
- (3) In this section—

qualification consultation requirement means a requirement to consult with, or report to, the commission or the commission chief executive about deciding whether a mandatory qualification is required for a position.

Part 3 Provisions about employment

Division 1 Application of part to health service employees

14 Application of part to health service employees

In this part, a reference to—

- (a) a public service employee includes a reference to a health service employee; and
- (b) a public service employee's chief executive includes a reference to the head of the public service office in which the health service employee is employed; and
- (c) a department includes a Hospital and Health Service; and
- (d) a chief executive of a department includes a health service chief executive.

Division 2 Employee records

15 Meaning of employee record

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), each of the following documents is, to the extent the document contains information about a public service employee, an employee record—
 - (a) a report, correspondence item or other document about the employee's work performance, work conduct or work history;
 - (b) a medical report about the employee;
 - (c) a written allegation of misconduct by the employee.
- (2) None of the following documents is an employee record about the public service employee—
 - (a) a medical report about the employee indicating that disclosure of information in the report to the employee might be prejudicial to the employee's mental or physical health or wellbeing;
 - (b) a document created by an appropriately qualified person for the primary purpose of providing a professional counselling service to another public service employee that contains information about the employee;
 - (c) a document about the employee that—
 - (i) is a public interest disclosure, or record of a public interest disclosure, made under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010; or
 - (ii) was brought into existence for that Act's administration;
 - (d) a document about the employee relating to suspected corrupt conduct under the Crime and Corruption Act 2001 or an investigation of the conduct;
 - (e) a document about the employee relating to a suspected criminal offence or an investigation of the offence;

- (f) a document that is subject to legal professional privilege.
- (3) In this section—
- misconduct* see the Act, section 187(4).

16 When an employee record is in an entity's possession

- (1) An employee record is in an entity's possession if—
- (a) the entity has the record in its possession, under its control, or is otherwise entitled to have access to the record; or
 - (b) the record is in the possession, or under the control, of an employee of the entity in the employee's official capacity.
- (2) For subsection (1)—
- (a) if the entity is the Minister, a person is an employee of the entity if the person is an employee of the department administered by the Minister; or
 - (b) if the entity is the chief executive of a department, a person is an employee of the entity if the person is an employee of the department.

17 Dealing with employee record if detrimental to employee's interests

- (1) This section applies if a public service employee's chief executive intends to take either of the following actions (each a detrimental action)—
- (a) use an employee record about the employee in a way that could reasonably be considered to be detrimental to the employee's interests;
 - (b) place on the employee's employment file an employee record about the employee that could reasonably be considered to be detrimental to the employee's interests.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the chief executive must ensure that, at least 14 days before taking the detrimental action—
 - (a) the employee is given the opportunity to read the record and to acknowledge having read it by initialling it; and
 - (b) the employee is given a copy of the record; and
 - (c) if the employee has refused to read the record or to acknowledge having read it by initialling it, the refusal is noted on the record; and
 - (d) the employee is given the opportunity to respond in writing at any time to the record's contents; and
 - (e) any written response by the employee is attached to the record.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if the chief executive reasonably considers that giving the employee access to the record under subsection (2) would be likely to prejudice an existing relevant investigation or inquiry.
- (4) The chief executive must give the employee access to the record in the way mentioned in subsection (2)(a) to (e) immediately after whichever of the following happens first—
 - (a) the chief executive no longer reasonably considers that giving the employee access to the record would be likely to prejudice a relevant investigation or inquiry;
 - (b) the end of the period of 6 months after the detrimental action is taken.

18 Employee record in possession of another chief executive

- (1) This section applies to a chief executive of a department (the relevant chief executive) if—
 - (a) an employee record about a public service employee is in the relevant chief executive's possession; and
 - (b) the relevant chief executive is not the employee's chief executive.

- (2) The relevant chief executive must give the record to the employee's chief executive as soon as practicable.
- (3) However, if the employee has been seconded to another department for a total period of less than 6 months, subsection (2) only applies if the relevant chief executive and the employee's chief executive agree in writing that the relevant chief executive give the record to the employee's chief executive.

Note—

The relevant chief executive may still need to comply with a commission chief executive directive about giving the employee's personal and employment details to the employee's chief executive.

- (4) Also, subsection (2) does not apply to a referee's report or other document received for a selection process to fill an employment vacancy in the department.

19 Access to employee record

- (1) This section applies if a chief executive has possession of an employee record about a public service employee.
- (2) The employee may, on request—
 - (a) inspect the record; or
 - (b) take an extract from, or copy, the record.
- (3) Subject to subsections (4) to (7), the inspection, taking of the extract or copying (the requested action) must be allowed at a time and place convenient to the chief executive within 21 days after the request.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if the record contains personal information of a person (the other person) other than the employee.
- (5) The chief executive may refuse the employee access to all or part of the record—
 - (a) if the chief executive is satisfied the access—
 - (i) would be an unreasonable invasion of the privacy of the other person or someone else; or

- (ii) may cause harm to the other person or someone else; or
 - (iii) would be contrary to a law; or
 - (iv) is likely to be refused if the request for access was an access application made by the employee under the Information Privacy Act 2009 or the Right to Information Act 2009; or
- (b) in other circumstances stated under a relevant directive of the commission chief executive.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies if the chief executive reasonably considers the requested action would be likely to prejudice an existing relevant investigation or inquiry.
- (7) The chief executive must allow the requested action immediately after whichever of the following happens first—
 - (a) the chief executive no longer reasonably considers the requested action would be likely to prejudice the relevant investigation or inquiry;
 - (b) the end of the period of 6 months after the employee requests the requested action.
- (8) In taking the requested action, the employee must not remove anything from the record.
- (9) In this section—
personal information see the Information Privacy Act 2009, section 12.

Division 3 General provision

20 Prescribed State employees—Act, s 26B
