Transport Legislation (COVID-19 Emergency Response) Regulation 2020

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Transport Legislation (COVID-19 Emergency Response) Regulation 2020.

2 Purpose

The purpose of this regulation is to provide exemptions from, and otherwise modify the application of, particular regulatory requirements under the transport regulations—

- (a) to minimise risks to the health and safety of persons caused by the COVID-19 emergency; and
- (b) to alleviate the financial burden on persons caused by the COVID-19 emergency; and
- (c) to ensure the effective and efficient regulation and administration of transport activities during the COVID-19 emergency and particular periods after the emergency ends.

3 Definitions

In this regulation—

chief executive, in relation to the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Regulation 2016, includes the general manager of MSQ.

COVID-19 emergency means the public health emergency declared on 29 January 2020 under the Public Health Act 2005, section 319(2), as extended and further extended under section 323 of that Act.

department's website—

- (a) see the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995, schedule 4; or
- (b) for the publication of a notice that relates to the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Regulation 2016—includes MSQ’s website.

exemption notice, for part 2, see section 6(1).

extension notice—

- (a) for part 3—see section 9(1); or
- (b) for part 4, division 1—see section 13(1).

grant includes issue and renew.

relevant requirement see section 5.

transport approval means any accreditation, certificate, consent, determination, exemption, licence, permit, registration or other authorisation, however described, granted under any of the following Acts—

- (a) the Tow Truck Act 1973;
- (b) the Transport Infrastructure Act 1994;
- (c) the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Act 1994;
- (d) the Transport Operations (Passenger Transport) Act 1994;
- (e) the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995.

transport regulation means any of the following regulations—

- (a) the Tow Truck Regulation 2009;
- (b) the Traffic Regulation 1962;
- (c) the Transport Infrastructure (Waterways Management) Regulation 2012;
- (d) the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Regulation 2016;

- (e) the Transport Operations (Passenger Transport) Regulation 2018;
 - (f) the Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Accreditation and Other Provisions) Regulation 2015;
 - (g) the Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Dangerous Goods) Regulation 2018;
 - (h) the Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 2021;
 - (i) the Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Vehicle Registration) Regulation 2021;
 - (j) the Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Vehicle Standards and Safety) Regulation 2021.

4 General provision about notices

- (1) A notice published by the chief executive under this regulation may—
 - (a) apply generally to all persons and matters or be limited in its application to—
 - (i) particular persons or classes of persons; or
 - (ii) particular transport approvals or classes of transport approvals; or
 - (iii) particular vehicles or classes of vehicles; and
 - (b) make different provision in relation to—
 - (i) different persons or classes of persons; or
 - (ii) different transport approvals or classes of transport approvals; or
 - (iii) different vehicles or classes of vehicles.
- (2) In this section—

vehicle has the meaning given by the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995, schedule 4.

Part 2 Modification of application processes and related requirements

5 Application of part

This part applies in relation to a provision of a transport regulation mentioned in schedule 1 to the extent the provision provides for any of the following matters (each a relevant requirement)—

- (a) a requirement that a person making an application under the transport regulation include in or with the application, or produce with the application, a document or other thing;
- (b) a requirement that a person who has made an application under the transport regulation give the chief executive particular information or a particular document for the chief executive to decide the application or grant a transport approval;
- (c) another requirement that must be satisfied by or in relation to a person making an application under the transport regulation for the chief executive to decide the application or grant a transport approval;

Example—

a circumstance relating to the person’s eligibility to be granted a transport approval

- (d) a requirement that a person making an application, or who has made an application, under the transport regulation pay a fee, whether on the making of the application or otherwise, for any transport approval or other thing to which the application relates.

6 Publication of exemption notice

- (1) The chief executive may, in relation to the provision, publish a notice (an exemption notice) on the department’s website stating that, while the notice is in effect, persons are exempt from all or a stated part of a stated relevant requirement.

- (2) The chief executive may publish the exemption notice only if the chief executive considers, having regard to the COVID-19 emergency, that 1 or more of the following applies—
 - (a) it would not be practicable for persons to comply with, or satisfy, the relevant requirement;
 - (b) it would not be reasonable for persons to be required to comply with, or satisfy, the relevant requirement;
 - (c) complying with, or satisfying, the relevant requirement may risk the spread of COVID-19 within the community;
 - (d) if the relevant requirement relates to payment of a fee—exempting persons from all or part of the relevant requirement may alleviate the financial burden on persons;
 - (e) exempting persons from all or part of the relevant requirement would promote the effective and efficient regulation and administration of land transport activities.
- (3) The exemption notice must state—
 - (a) the day the notice is published; and
 - (b) the period for which the notice has effect.
- (4) For subsection (3)(b), the period must be a period ending not later than 6 months after the day the COVID-19 emergency ends.
- (5) The exemption notice takes effect on the day it is published on the department's website or on any later day stated in the notice.

7 Effect of exemption notice on relevant requirement

- (1) This section applies if an exemption notice is in effect in relation to a relevant requirement that would otherwise apply for deciding an application under a transport regulation.
- (2) The relevant requirement is taken not to apply to the extent stated in the exemption notice and the chief executive may decide the application accordingly and, if applicable, grant any transport approval to which the application relates.

Part 3 Modification of provisions for transport approvals

8 Application of part

This part applies in relation to a provision of a transport regulation mentioned in schedule 2 to the extent the provision provides for the term or duration, however described or provided for, of a transport approval.

9 Publication of extension notice

- (1) The chief executive may, in relation to the provision, publish a notice (an extension notice) on the department's website stating—
 - (a) the period, after the transport approval would expire or otherwise end, for which the approval is to continue in effect; or
 - (b) the day, after the transport approval would expire or otherwise end, until which the approval is to continue in effect.
- (2) For subsection (1)—
 - (a) the period must be a period ending not later than 6 months after the day the COVID-19 emergency ends; or
 - (b) the day must be a day not later than 6 months after the day the COVID-19 emergency ends.

- (3) The chief executive may publish the extension notice only if the chief executive considers, having regard to the COVID-19 emergency, that 1 or more of the following applies—
 - (a) it would not be practicable for persons to apply for a renewal of the transport approval or a new approval of the same type;
 - (b) it would not be reasonable for persons to apply for a renewal of the transport approval or a new approval of the same type;
 - (c) applying for a renewal of the transport approval or a new approval of the same type may risk the spread of COVID-19 within the community;
 - (d) continuing the transport approval in effect may alleviate the financial burden for persons;
 - (e) continuing the transport approval in effect would promote the effective and efficient regulation and administration of land transport activities.
 - (4) The extension notice must state the day the notice is published.
 - (5) The extension notice takes effect on the day it is published on the department's website or on any later day stated in the notice.

10 Effect of extension notice on transport approval

- (1) This section applies if an extension notice is published in relation to the transport approval.
- (2) The transport approval is taken to continue in effect, after the day it would expire or otherwise end—
 - (a) for the period stated in the extension notice; or
 - (b) until the end of the day stated in the extension notice.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies—
 - (a) even if the term or duration of the transport approval, as continued in effect under that subsection, is greater than any maximum term or period, however described, provided for the approval under a transport regulation; and

[s 11]

- (b) despite anything stated in the approval.

Part 4 Modification of particular offence and requirement provisions

Division 1 Extension notices

11 Application of division

This division applies in relation to a provision of a transport regulation mentioned in schedule 3 under which—

- (a) a person commits an offence if the person fails to do a particular thing within a particular period; or
- (b) a requirement may be made of a person to do a particular thing within a particular period.

12 References to particular periods for doing things

A reference in this division to a particular period, under a provision of a transport regulation, for doing a particular thing includes a reference to any expression of time provided for under the provision for doing the thing.

Examples of expressions of time in a provision—

- a provision requiring a person to do a thing immediately
- a provision requiring a person to do a thing promptly

13 Publication of extension notice

- (1) The chief executive may, in relation to the provision, publish a notice (an extension notice) on the department's website stating a period for doing the particular thing that is longer than the period provided for under the provision.

- (2) The chief executive may publish the extension notice only if the chief executive considers, having regard to the COVID-19 emergency, that 1 or more of the following applies—
 - (a) it would not be practicable for persons to do the particular thing within the particular period;
 - (b) it would not be reasonable for persons to be required to do the particular thing within the particular period;
 - (c) doing the particular thing within the particular period may risk the spread of COVID-19 within the community;
 - (d) providing a longer period for doing the particular thing would promote the effective and efficient regulation and administration of land transport activities.
- (3) The extension notice must state—
 - (a) the day the notice is published; and
 - (b) the period for which the notice has effect.
- (4) For subsection (3)(b), the period must be a period ending not later than 6 months after the day the COVID-19 emergency ends.
- (5) The extension notice takes effect on the day it is published on the department's website or on any later day stated in the notice.

14 Effect of extension notice on period for compliance

- (1) While the extension notice is in effect, the provision applies as if the reference in the provision to the particular period for doing the particular thing were a reference to the period stated in the notice.
- (2) If, when the extension notice takes effect, a person has not done the particular thing but the period for doing the thing has not ended, the provision applies as if the reference in the provision to the particular period for doing the thing were a reference to the period stated in the notice.

- (3) If, when the extension notice ends, a person has not done the particular thing but the period for doing the thing as extended under this section has not ended, the provision continues to apply as if the reference in the provision to the particular period for doing the thing were a reference to the period stated in the notice.

Division 2 Specific provision

15 Modified application of Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 2021, s 253

- (1) During the special measures period, the Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 2021, section 253 applies with the modifications provided for under this section.
- (2) Each of the following medical certificates is also taken to be a recently issued medical certificate for the Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 2021, section 253—
 - (a) a medical certificate that, immediately before the commencement, was taken to be a valid medical certificate under this section as in force immediately before the commencement;
 - (b) a medical certificate that was a recently issued medical certificate on the commencement that would, but for this section, cease to be a recently issued medical certificate during the special measures period.
- (3) The Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 2021, section 253 is taken to provide that section 253(1) of that regulation does not apply to a person mentioned in the section who does not hold a recently issued medical certificate (including a recently issued medical certificate provided for under subsection (2)) if, having regard to the COVID-19 emergency—

- (a) it would not be practicable for the person to obtain a recently issued medical certificate; or
 - (b) it would not be reasonable for the person to obtain a recently issued medical certificate; or
 - (c) attempting to obtain a recently issued medical certificate may risk the spread of COVID-19 within the community.
- (4) In this section—

recently issued medical certificate see the Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 2021, schedule 9.

special measures period means the period—

- (a) starting on the commencement; and
- (b) ending 6 months after the day the COVID-19 emergency ends.

Part 5 Expiry

16 Expiry

This regulation expires 6 months after the day the COVID-19 emergency ends.

Part 6 Transitional provision for Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 2021

17 Particular references in extension notice published under s 9 on 25 April 2020

- (1) This section applies to the notice published by the chief executive under section 9(1) on 25 April 2020 to the extent the notice relates to the expired driver licensing regulation, section 128.
- (2) On the commencement—
 - (a) a reference in the notice to the authority of a non-Queensland driver licence holder to drive on a Queensland road under the expired driver licensing regulation, section 128 is taken to be a reference to the authority of a non-Queensland driver licence holder under the new driver licensing regulation, chapter 5 to drive, or learn to drive, a motor vehicle on a Queensland road under the non-Queensland driver licence; and
 - (b) a reference in the notice to the expired driver licensing regulation, section 128(6) is taken to be a reference to the new driver licensing regulation, section 211 or 212.
- (3) In this section—

expired driver licensing regulation means the expired Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 2010.

new driver licensing regulation means the Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Driver Licensing) Regulation 2021.

Part 7 Transitional provision for Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Vehicle Registration) Regulation 2021

18 Particular references in exemption notice published under s 6 on 25 April 2020

- (1) This section applies to the notice published by the chief executive under section 6(1) on 25 April 2020 to the extent the notice relates to particular provisions of the expired vehicle registration regulation.
- (2) On the commencement, a reference in the notice to the following provisions (each a former provision) of the expired vehicle registration regulation includes a reference to the provision stated for the former provision—
 - (a) section 13—the new vehicle registration regulation, section 20;
 - (b) section 13(1)(c)—the new vehicle registration regulation, section 20(2)(b)(i);
 - (c) section 13(1)(g)—the new vehicle registration regulation, section 20(2)(d);
 - (d) section 13(1)(h)—the new vehicle registration regulation, section 20(2)(e);
 - (e) section 36—the new vehicle registration regulation, section 137;
 - (f) section 54—the new vehicle registration regulation, section 54;
 - (g) section 54(6)(a)(ii) or (b)—the new vehicle registration regulation, section 54(1)(a)(ii) or (b);
 - (h) section 120—the new vehicle registration regulation, section 220;
 - (i) schedule 3, part 4, item 21—the new vehicle registration regulation, schedule 4, part 5, item 28.

(3) In this section—

expired vehicle registration regulation means the expired
Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Vehicle Registration) Regulation 2010.

new vehicle registration regulation means the *Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Vehicle Registration)
Regulation 2021*.
