 - (ii) any period when the Chief Magistrate is absent from duty or from the State or is, for any other reason, unable to perform the duties of the office.

Part 5

Court governance advisory committee

15 Establishment of court governance advisory committee

A court governance advisory committee (advisory committee) is established.

16 Functions of advisory committee

The advisory committee has the following functions—

- (a) to make, in conjunction with the Chief Magistrate, a transfer policy for magistrates;
- (b) to make transfer recommendations on matters referred to it by the Chief Magistrate under section 23 having regard to the transfer policy;
- (c) to consider and make recommendations about other matters affecting Magistrates Courts referred to it by the Chief Magistrate.

17 Composition of advisory committee

- (1) The advisory committee has the following members—
 - (a) the relevant Deputy Chief Magistrate;
 - (b) the State Coroner;

- (c) 3 temporary members.
- (2) The relevant Deputy Chief Magistrate is the chairperson of the advisory committee.
 - (3) The temporary members are magistrates selected by the Chief Magistrate in consultation with the chairperson and the State Coroner.
 - (4) However, at least 1 of the temporary members must constitute a Magistrates Court at a place outside the south-east Queensland Magistrates Courts districts.
 - (5) Temporary members of the advisory committee hold appointment for 2 years.
 - (6) A magistrate who was a temporary member of the advisory committee may not be reappointed as a temporary member for at least 4 years after the magistrate's last appointment as a temporary member ended.
 - (7) A temporary member of the advisory committee may resign by signed notice given to the Chief Magistrate.
 - (8) In this section—

relevant Deputy Chief Magistrate means—

- (a) if there is only 1 Deputy Chief Magistrate—the Deputy Chief Magistrate; or
- (b) if there is more than 1 Deputy Chief Magistrate—a Deputy Chief Magistrate selected by the Chief Magistrate.

19 Presiding at meetings

- (1) The chairperson presides at all meetings of the advisory committee at which the chairperson is present.
- (2) If the chairperson is absent, the member chosen by the members present is to preside.

20 Conduct of meetings

- (1) A question at an advisory committee meeting is to be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.
- (2) Each member present at the meeting has a vote on each question to be decided and, if the votes are equal, the presiding member has a casting vote.
- (3) If a member becomes aware that the member has a conflict of interest in relation to a matter before the advisory committee, the member must—
 - (a) disclose the issue giving rise to the conflict to the advisory committee; and
 - (b) take no further part in the consideration of the matter.
- (4) However, a failure to disclose a conflict of interest does not, of itself, affect the advisory committee's consideration of the matter or any transfer recommendation made in relation to the matter.
- (5) Subject to this part, the advisory committee may conduct its meetings in any way it considers appropriate, including, for example, by permitting its members to take part in its meetings by using any technology that reasonably allows members to hear and take part in discussions as they happen.

Example of use of technology—

teleconferencing

21 Transfer policy

- (1) The advisory committee, in conjunction with the Chief Magistrate, must make a policy (transfer policy) to guide decisions about which magistrates are to constitute Magistrates Courts at particular places.

- (2) The advisory committee, in conjunction with the Chief Magistrate, may amend the transfer policy to ensure its continuing effectiveness.
- (3) The transfer policy must set out the procedures to be used and the matters to be considered for the purposes of transfer recommendations and transfer decisions.
- (4) The transfer policy may include other matters relevant to transfer recommendations or transfer decisions that the advisory committee considers appropriate but the policy must reflect the following principles—
 - (a) magistrates are expected to serve in regional areas;
 - (b) generally, a magistrate, under a transfer recommendation or transfer decision, is to constitute a Magistrates Court at the place for a period of between 2 and 5 years;
 - (c) generally, before making a decision about which magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court at a particular place, expressions of interest are to be called for from magistrates willing to constitute a Magistrates Court at the place;
 - (d) subject to subsection (5), if no expressions of interest are received, magistrates without prescribed regional experience are to be considered for constituting a Magistrates Court at a place in regional Queensland before magistrates with prescribed regional experience;
 - (e) a magistrate is to be consulted before a decision is made about where the magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court;
 - (f) a magistrate's personal circumstances are to be taken into account before a decision is made about where the magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court.
- (5) The transfer policy must also provide that regard is to be had to a magistrate's transfer history.

(6) In this section—

magistrate's transfer history means the number of places at which a magistrate has constituted a Magistrates Court, and the number of times a magistrate has been required to change residence in order to constitute Magistrates Courts at places, since the magistrate's appointment as a magistrate.

magistrates without prescribed regional experience means magistrates who have not constituted a Magistrates Court at a place or places in regional Queensland at all or for at least 2 years within the last 10 years.

magistrates with prescribed regional experience means magistrates who have constituted a Magistrates Court at a place or places in regional Queensland for at least 2 years within the last 10 years.

regional Queensland means that part of Queensland outside the Beenleigh, Brisbane, Caboolture, Cleveland, Gold Coast, Ipswich, Maroochydore and Redcliffe Magistrates Courts districts.

22 Magistrates may express interest in where they are willing to constitute Magistrates Courts

- (1) A magistrate may, at any time, advise the Chief Magistrate of a place or places where the magistrate is willing to constitute a Magistrates Court.
- (2) The Chief Magistrate must advise the advisory committee of the magistrate's willingness to constitute a Magistrates Court at the place or places and the advisory committee may take that into account when considering making transfer recommendations.

Part 6 Transfer recommendations and transfer decisions

Division 1 Referral

23 Decisions about constituting Magistrates Courts

- (1) The Chief Magistrate must refer the following matters to the advisory committee for consideration and a transfer recommendation—
 - (a) for the purposes of section 5(5), whether a magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court at a place other than a place mentioned in the magistrate’s appointment under section 5(3);
 - (b) for the purposes of section 12(2)(a), whether a magistrate is to continue to constitute a Magistrates Court at the place where the magistrate currently constitutes a Magistrates Court and, if not, where a magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court.
- (2) The Chief Magistrate is not required to act under subsection (1)(b) only because of the ending of the period for which a magistrate is required to constitute a Magistrates Court at a place if the magistrate does not ask for a transfer decision.
- (3) When the period to which subsection (2) applies ends, the magistrate is to continue to constitute the court at the place until a transfer decision is made requiring the magistrate to constitute a Magistrates Court at another place.
- (4) Subsection (1) applies whether the matter is initiated by the Chief Magistrate or a particular magistrate.
- (5) The Chief Magistrate may refer to the advisory committee, for consideration and a transfer recommendation, the question of which magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court at a place where the person who was the magistrate—
 - (a) has ceased to be a magistrate under section 42; or

- (b) has been the subject of a transfer decision under section 12(2)(a) requiring the magistrate to constitute a Magistrates Court at another place; or
- (c) has been the subject of an agreement under section 5(4); or
- (d) has been the subject of a decision under section 5(5).

Division 2 Role of advisory committee

24 Magistrate's right to be heard

- (1) If the advisory committee is proposing to make a transfer recommendation, the advisory committee must—
 - (a) give the magistrate who is the subject of the proposed transfer recommendation written notice—
 - (i) that the advisory committee proposes to make the transfer recommendation; and
 - (ii) of what the proposed transfer recommendation is; and
 - (b) allow the magistrate at least 14 days after receiving the notice to make representations to the advisory committee about the proposed transfer recommendation.
- (2) The magistrate may make representations to the advisory committee within the time allowed by written submission or verbally.
- (3) If the magistrate wishes to make representations verbally, allowing the magistrate to make the representations to the advisory committee using teleconferencing technology is enough to satisfy the magistrate's right to be heard.
- (4) In this section—

teleconferencing technology means teleconferencing or other technology that reasonably allows the members and the magistrate to hear, and take part in discussions about, the representations while the representations are being made.

25 Advisory committee to consider representations

The advisory committee must consider any representations made by the magistrate having regard to the transfer policy.

26 Advisory committee to make transfer recommendation

When making a transfer recommendation, the advisory committee must have regard to the transfer policy and give concise reasons for the transfer recommendation to the Chief Magistrate.

Division 3 Role of Chief Magistrate

27 Chief Magistrate to consider transfer recommendation

The Chief Magistrate must consider the advisory committee's transfer recommendation and the transfer policy when making a transfer decision.

28 Chief Magistrate not bound by transfer recommendation

- (1) The Chief Magistrate is not bound by the advisory committee's transfer recommendation.
- (2) If, having considered the advisory committee's transfer recommendation, the Chief Magistrate proposes to make a transfer decision that differs from the transfer recommendation, the Chief Magistrate must—

- (3) The magistrate may make representations to the Chief Magistrate within the time allowed by written submission or verbally.
- (4) If the magistrate wishes to make representations verbally, allowing the magistrate to make the representations to the Chief Magistrate using teleconferencing technology is enough to satisfy the magistrate's right to be heard.
- (5) If the Chief Magistrate makes a transfer decision that does not differ from the transfer recommendation, it is not necessary that the Chief Magistrate allow the magistrate who is the subject of the transfer decision an opportunity to make further representations about the transfer decision to satisfy procedural fairness requirements.
- (6) In this section—

 - (c) whether or not the transfer decision differs from the advisory committee's transfer recommendation.
- (2) The Chief Magistrate must also give the magistrate and the advisory committee concise reasons for the transfer decision.
- (3) The requirement to give reasons does not require the Chief Magistrate to give reasons why the magistrate who is the subject of the transfer decision was chosen instead of another magistrate.

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the Chief Magistrate makes a transfer decision under section 12(2)(a); and

40 Power of Supreme Court judge on review

- (1) A Supreme Court judge may, by order, affirm the transfer decision or declare the transfer decision to be of no effect.

 - (b) the applicant was not afforded procedural fairness by the Chief Magistrate.
- (3) Each party to the review must bear the party’s own costs.
- (4) However, the judge may award costs to the applicant if, in exceptional circumstances, the judge considers that an award of costs is appropriate.
