‘Requirement to be licensed under this Act or Liquor Act

‘6.(1) Before a person may lawfully sell wine, the person must be licensed under this Act or be authorised to sell wine under the Liquor Act.

‘(2) A person may obtain a wine producer licence to sell wine under this Act if the business the person will conduct under the licence will involve—

(a) selling wine made from fruit grown by the person on the premises to which the licence will relate; or

(b) selling wine made by the person on the premises to which the licence will relate.

‘(3) A person may obtain a wine merchant licence to sell wine under this Act if the business the person will conduct under the licence is not a business mentioned in subsection (2) but is a business that will otherwise contribute to the Queensland wine industry in a substantial way.

‘(4) Without limiting subsection (3), a person’s business will contribute, or does contribute, to the Queensland wine industry in a substantial way if the person—

(a) buys fruit grown in the State—

(i) to make wine in the State; or reviewed, the chief executive decides the person—

- (a) is a person who grows fruit on the licensed premises from which wine is made or makes wine on the licensed premises, the chief executive must cancel the person's existing licence or joint licences and grant the person a wine producer licence; or
- (b) is not a person mentioned in paragraph (a) but conducts a business that contributes to the Queensland wine industry in a substantial way, the chief executive must cancel the person's existing licence or joint licences and grant the person a wine merchant licence; or
- (c) is not a person mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b), the chief executive must cancel the person's existing licence or joint licences and grant the person an appropriate licence under the Liquor Act 1992.

‘(4) Until the chief executive completes the review of the person's existing licence or joint licences and grants the person a licence under subsection (3), the person's licence under this Act is taken to be a wine producer licence.

‘Transitional provision for applications for licences not decided before commencement of Wine Industry Amendment Act 2000

‘64.(1) This section applies to an application made, and not decided, before the commencement of this section.

‘(2) The application is taken to be an application for a wine producer licence if the business the applicant will conduct under the licence will involve—

- (a) selling wine made from fruit grown, on the premises to which the licence will relate, by the applicant; or
- (b) selling wine made, on the premises to which the licence will relate, by the applicant.

‘(3) The application is taken to be an application for a wine merchant licence if the business the applicant will conduct under the licence is not a business mentioned in subsection (2) but is a business that will contribute to the Queensland wine industry in a substantial way.

‘(4) If the application is taken to be an application for a wine merchant licence, the chief executive may, by written notice given to the applicant, require the applicant, within a reasonable time of at least 14 days stated in the notice, to pay the relevant fee for a wine merchant licence.

‘(5) If the applicant does not pay the relevant fee by the day stated in the notice, the application is taken to have lapsed.

‘(6) In this section—

“relevant fee”, for a wine merchant licence, means the fee prescribed under a regulation for an application for a wine merchant licence less the amount of the fee that accompanied the application for the licence.’.
