Division 2 Sick leave

10 Entitlement

- (1) This section does not apply to—
 - (a) casual employees; or
 - (b) pieceworkers; or
 - (c) school-based apprentices or trainees.
- (2) An employee is entitled to—
 - (a) at least 8 days sick leave on full pay for each completed year of employment with an employer; and
 - (b) for each completed period of employment of less than a year—at least 1 day’s sick leave on full pay for each completed 6 weeks of employment with an employer.
- (3) However, the employee’s entitlement is conditional on—
 - (a) the employee promptly notifying the employer of—
 - (i) any illness that will cause the employee to be absent from work; and
 - (ii) the approximate period for which the employee will be absent; and
 - (b) if the employee is absent for more than 2 days—
 - (i) the employee giving the employer a doctor’s certificate about the nature of the illness and the approximate period for which the employee will be absent; or
 - (ii) the employee giving the employer other evidence of the illness to the employer’s satisfaction.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if—
 - (a) an industrial instrument provides otherwise; or
 - (b) the employee and employer agree otherwise.
- (5) Sick leave may be taken for part of a day.

Examples—

- 1 An employee is ordinarily required to work for 8 hours on a particular day and on that day becomes sick after working 3 hours. The employee may take sick leave for the remaining 5 hours that the employee is unable to work because of the sickness.
 - 2 An employee is ordinarily required to perform work for 40 hours a week over 5 days, but has come to an arrangement with the employer to work 10 hours a day for 4 days a week. If the employee is unable to work because of sickness on a day, the employee may take 10 hours sick leave, which equates to 1¹/₄ days sick leave.
- (6) Sick leave accumulates, unless an industrial instrument provides otherwise.
 - (7) This section does not operate to confer an entitlement or an additional entitlement in relation to employment before the commencement of this section.
 - (8) If this section applies to an employee, without limiting the section, its provisions are taken to be terms of an industrial instrument applicable to the employee.
 - (9) In subsections (2) and (5)— day, for an employee who is paid on the basis of the number of hours worked, means—
 - (a) for an employee for whom an industrial instrument provides sick leave—a day within the meaning of the industrial instrument so far as it relates to sick leave; or
 - (b) otherwise—one-fifth of the number of ordinary hours that the employee would ordinarily have been required to work in a week, averaged over each completed 6 weeks of employment with the employer.

Division 3 Annual leave

11 Entitlement

- (1) This section does not apply to—
 - (a) casual employees; or

- (b) pieceworkers; or
 - (c) school-based apprentices or trainees.
- (2) For each completed year of employment with an employer, an employee is entitled to—
- (a) if the employee is not a shift worker—at least 4 weeks annual leave; or
 - (b) if the employee is a shift worker—at least 5 weeks annual leave.
- (3) Annual leave is exclusive of a public holiday that falls during the leave.
- (4) However, if an employee is entitled to additional annual leave as compensation for working on a particular public holiday, annual leave is inclusive of the particular public holiday.
- (5) In working out a completed year of employment, the following periods when an employee is absent without pay are not to be taken into account—
- (a) a period of more than 3 months when an employee is absent with the employer's approval;
 - (b) a period when an employee is absent without the employer's approval, unless the employee is absent for not more than 3 months because of illness or injury certified to by a doctor.
- (6) This section does not operate to confer an entitlement or an additional entitlement in relation to employment before the commencement of this section.
- (7) Annual leave accumulates, unless an industrial instrument provides otherwise.
- (8) If this section applies to an employee, without limiting the section, its provisions are taken to be terms of an industrial instrument applicable to the employee.
- (9) In this section—
- shift worker* means an employee who—

- (a) is employed in a calling in which shifts are worked 24 hours a day, 7 days a week; and
 - (b) works a rotating roster that includes each of the shifts.

12 Taking annual leave

- (1) An employee and employer may agree when the employee is to take annual leave.
- (2) If the employee and employer can not agree, the employer—
 - (a) may decide when the employee is to take leave; and
 - (b) must give the employee at least 14 days written notice of the starting date of the leave.
- (3) An employee and employer may agree that the employee take all or any part of the employee's annual leave before becoming entitled to it.
- (4) If the employee takes leave before becoming entitled to it, the employee is only entitled, at the end of the completed year of employment, to the balance of the leave that would be due at the end of the year.

13 Payment for annual leave

- (1) Unless an employee and employer otherwise agree, the employer must pay the employee for annual leave in advance.
- (2) The employer must pay for the leave—
 - (a) at the ordinary rate being paid to the employee immediately before the leave is taken; or
 - (b) if, immediately before taking the leave, the employee is being paid at a higher rate than the ordinary rate—at the higher rate.
- (3) If an employee is entitled to receive an amount representing commission in the employee's annual leave payment, the employer must pay the default average commission unless—

- (a) a relevant industrial instrument or contract between the employer and employee otherwise provides; or
 - (b) the commission, on application, considers that the default average commission would not represent a fair amount in the circumstances.
- (4) If, on application under subsection (3)(b), the commission considers that the default average commission would not represent a fair amount in the circumstances, the commission may make the order it considers appropriate in the circumstances.
- (5) If this section applies to an employee, without limiting the section, its provisions are taken to be terms of an industrial instrument applicable to the employee.
- (6) In this section—
- default average commission* means—
- the total commissions payable to the employee in the 1 year before the leave is taken, or during the employee's period of employment, whichever is less
 - divided by 365.25, or the number of days in the employee's period of employment, whichever is less
 - multiplied by the number of days starting on the day the leave commences and ending on the day before the employee is due to return to work.

13A Annual leave loading

- (1) This section applies to an employee under any of the following instruments, unless the instrument provides otherwise—
- (a) an industrial instrument made after 1 September 2005, other than a certified agreement if the application to certify the agreement was made on or before 1 September 2005;
 - (b) a federal award made or varied after 1 September 2005;

- (c) a federal agreement made, varied or approved after 1 September 2005, other than a federal agreement if the application to certify the agreement was made on or before 1 September 2005.
 - (2) In addition to the employee's annual leave entitlement under this division, the employee is entitled to receive a further amount of at least 17½% of the amount payable under section 13(2)(a).
 - (3) However, if the employee's employer pays the employee an amount (however the amount is described, including, for example, an annual leave bonus or annual leave loading) in addition to the employee's annual leave entitlement under this division and that amount—
 - (a) is less than 17½% of the amount payable under section 13(2)(a)—the employee is entitled to receive a further amount so that the employee receives the amount the employee is entitled to under subsection (2); or
 - (b) is at least 17½% of the amount payable under section 13(2)(a)—the employee is not entitled to receive an amount under subsection (2).
 - (4) If this section applies to an employee, without limiting the section, its provisions are taken to be terms of an industrial instrument applicable to the employee.

14 Payment for annual leave on termination of employment

- (1) This section applies if an employee's employment is terminated by the employee or employer.
- (2) If the employee has not taken all the annual leave the employee is entitled to, the employee is presumed to have taken the leave from the day the termination takes effect (the termination day).
- (3) The employer must immediately pay the employee for the annual leave not taken, including any public holiday that falls in the period the employee is presumed to have taken the leave.

[s 14A]

- (4) If the employee has been employed for any period of less than 1 year, the employer must pay the employee proportionate annual leave for the period.
- (5) The employer must pay the employee at least the ordinary rate being paid to the employee immediately before the termination day, unless an industrial instrument states otherwise.
- (6) If this section applies to an employee, without limiting the section, its provisions are taken to be terms of an industrial instrument applicable to the employee.

- (1) This section applies to an employee under any of the following instruments, unless the instrument provides otherwise—
 - (a) an industrial instrument made after 1 September 2005, other than a certified agreement if the application to certify the agreement was made on or before 1 September 2005;
 - (b) a federal award made or varied after 1 September 2005;
 - (c) a federal agreement made, varied or approved after 1 September 2005, other than a federal agreement if the application to certify the agreement was made on or before 1 September 2005.

 - (6) Also, if the employee is not required to serve on a jury for a day or part of a day after attending for jury service and the employee would ordinarily be working for all or part of the remaining day, the employee must, if practicable, present for work at the earliest reasonable opportunity.
 - (7) If this section applies to an employee, without limiting the section, its provisions are taken to be terms of an industrial instrument applicable to the employee.
 - (8) In this section—

Division 5 General

41 Relationship to other rights and industrial instruments

(1) This part has effect despite—

- (a) another law of the State; or
- (b) an industrial instrument or order;

to the extent that the law, instrument or order provides an employee with a benefit that is less favourable to the employee.

(2) To the extent a provision of this part, other than section 38C, applies to an employee, without limiting the provision, the provision is taken to be a term of an industrial instrument applicable to the employee.

Part 3 Long service leave

Division 1 Definitions for part 3

42 Definitions for pt 3

In this part—

continuous service of an employee means—

- (a) in section 50—the period of continuous service the employee is taken to have had with an employer under section 50(4); and
- (b) elsewhere—the employee’s continuous service with the same employer (whether wholly in the State, or partly in and partly outside the State).

period between seasons includes the period between—

- (b) for a particular employee—the day the employee stops employment in 1 season and the day the employee starts employment in the next season.

season means a period (whether falling completely in 1 calendar year or partly in 1 calendar year and partly in the next calendar year) when—

- (a) for the sugar industry—
 - (i) sugar cane is delivered to, and crushed at, a sugar mill; or
 - (ii) sugar cane is harvested, or farm work is performed, in the sugar industry; or
- (b) for a meat works—stock are delivered to, and slaughtered at, the works.

Division 1A Relationship between parts 3 and 6

42A Application of pt 6 for particular purposes

To remove any doubt, it is declared that the provisions of part 6 are to be applied when working out an employee's rights and entitlements to long service leave under this part or an industrial instrument.

Division 2 Employees generally

43 Entitlement

- (1) This section applies to all employees, other than seasonal employees.
- (2) An employee is entitled to long service leave on full pay of—
 - (a) for the first 10 years continuous service—8.6667 weeks; and
 - (b) if the employee has completed at least a further 5 years continuous service—another period that bears to 8.6667 weeks the proportion that the employee's further period of continuous service bears to 10 years.
- (3) An employee who has completed at least 7 years continuous service is entitled to a proportionate payment for long service leave on the termination of the employee's service.
- (4) However, if the employee's service is terminated before the employee has completed 10 years continuous service, the employee is entitled to a proportionate payment only if—
 - (a) the employee's service is terminated because of the employee's death; or
 - (b) the employee terminates the service because of—
 - (i) the employee's illness or incapacity; or
 - (ii) a domestic or other pressing necessity; or
 - (c) the termination is because the employer—

- (i) dismisses the employee for a reason other than the employee's conduct, capacity or performance; or
 - (ii) unfairly dismisses the employee; or
- (d) the termination is because of the effluxion of time and—
 - (i) the employee had a reasonable expectation that the employment with the employer would continue until the employee had completed at least 10 years continuous service; and
 - (ii) the employee was prepared to continue the employment with the employer.
- (5) Long service leave is exclusive of a public holiday that falls during the period of the leave.
- (6) An employee who is entitled to long service leave elsewhere than under this Act, is entitled to leave that is at least as favourable as the entitlement under this section.
- (7) For the purposes of working out when an employee may take long service leave, only two-thirds of the employee's continuous service completed before the commencement of this subsection counts as continuous service.
- (8) Subsection (7) does not reduce an entitlement to long service leave that an employee has accrued before subsection (7) commences.

Examples of subsections (7) and (8)—

An employee has completed 15 years continuous service immediately before the commencement. The 15 years counts as 10 years continuous service for working out when the employee may take long service leave. The employee may take the leave immediately. The employee's entitlement then is 13 weeks (15 x 0.86667 weeks).

An employee has completed 10 years continuous service immediately before the commencement. The 10 years counts as 6.6667 years continuous service for working out when the employee may take long service leave. The employee may take the leave after completing another 3.3333 years continuous service. The employee's entitlement then will be 11.5556 weeks ((10 + 3.3333) x 0.86667 weeks).

An employee has completed 1 year continuous service immediately before the commencement. The 1 year counts as 0.6667 years continuous service for working out when the employee may take long service leave. The employee may take the leave after completing another 9.3333 years continuous service. The employee's entitlement then will be 8.9556 weeks ($[1 + 9.3333] \times 0.86667$ weeks).

An employee starts employment after the commencement. The employee may take long service leave after completing 10 years continuous service. The employee's entitlement then will be 8.6667 weeks (10×0.86667 weeks).

(9) In this section—

proportionate payment means a payment equal to the employee's full pay for a period that bears to 8.6667 weeks the proportion that the employee's period of continuous service (stated in years, and a fraction of a year if necessary) bears to 10 years.

44 Working out continuity of service for service before 23 June 1990

- (1) This section applies to service of all employees who are not casual employees before 23 June 1990.
- (2) The repealed Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1961, sections 17, 18, 19 and 20, applies to—
 - (a) the determination of the employee's continuous service before 23 June 1990; and
 - (b) the calculation of the employee's entitlement to long service leave in relation to continuous service before 23 June 1990.

45 Taking long service leave

- (1) The commission may insert in an industrial instrument provisions—
 - (a) about the time when, the way in which, and the conditions on which, long service leave may be taken; or
 - (b) to the effect that leave in the nature of long service leave taken, before the provisions take effect, by an employee bound by the instrument must be deducted from the long service leave that the employee becomes entitled to under the provisions.

- (2) An employee and employer may agree when the employee is to take long service leave.
- (3) If the employee and employer can not agree, the employer may decide when the employee is to take leave by giving the employee at least 3 months written notice of the date on which the employee must take at least 4 weeks long service leave.
- (4) Subsection (3) applies subject to an industrial instrument.

46 Payment for long service leave

- (1) The employer must pay the employee for long service leave at the ordinary rate being paid to the employee immediately before the leave is taken.
- (2) However, if the employee is, immediately before taking the leave, being paid at a higher rate than the ordinary rate, the employer must pay the employee at the higher rate.
- (3) An employer must not reduce an employee's usual rate, before an employee starts long service leave, with intent to avoid the employer's obligation under subsection (2).
- (4) If satisfied an employer has done so, the commission may order the employer to pay the employee at the usual rate even though the employee was not being paid the usual rate immediately before starting leave.
- (5) If, during the employee's leave—
 - (a) the ordinary rate is increased above the higher rate—the employer must pay the employee at the increased rate for the part of the leave period that the increased rate applies to; or
 - (b) the ordinary rate is reduced—the employer may pay the employee at the reduced rate for the part of the leave period that the reduced rate applies to.

- (6) If an employee is entitled to receive an amount representing commission in the employee's long service leave payment, the employer must pay the default average commission unless—
- (a) a relevant industrial instrument or contract between the employer and employee otherwise provides; or
 - (b) the commission, on application, considers that the default average commission would not represent a fair amount in the circumstances.
- (7) If, on application under subsection (6)(b), the commission considers that the default average commission would not represent a fair amount in the circumstances, the commission may make the order it considers appropriate in the circumstances.
- (8) If a dispute arises between an employee who is paid at piecework rates and the employer about the rate the employee should be paid for long service leave, the commission may decide the rate payable.
- (9) An employee and employer may agree on the times when, and the way in which, the employee will be paid for long service leave.
- (10) The commission may decide any matter relating to payment for long service leave that the employee and employer can not agree on.
- (11) An amount payable for long service leave becomes payable at a time agreed between the employee and employer or, if they can not agree, at a time decided by the commission.
- (12) In this section—
- default average commission means—
- the total commissions payable to the employee in the 1 year before the leave is taken
 - divided by 52.179
 - multiplied by the number of weeks leave for which payment is being made.

usual rate means the rate at which the employee is being paid for ordinary time, being a rate that is higher than the ordinary rate.

Division 3 Casual or regular part-time employees

47 Continuity of service—additional considerations for casual employees

- (1) The service of an employee (a casual employee) who is employed more than once by the same employer over a period is continuous service with the employer even though—
 - (a) the employment is broken; or
 - (b) any of the employment is not full-time employment; or
 - (c) the employee is employed by the employer under 2 or more employment contracts; or
 - (d) the employee would, apart from this section, be taken to be engaged in casual employment; or
 - (e) the employee has engaged in other employment during the period.
- (2) However, the continuous service ends if the employment is broken by more than 3 months between the end of 1 employment contract and the start of the next employment contract.
- (3) In working out the length of an employee's continuous service—
 - (a) the following service must not be taken into account—
 - (i) service by the employee before 23 June 1990;
 - (ii) if the employee only obtained the entitlement because of the enactment of the repealed Industrial Relations Reform Act 1994, section 17—the employee's service between 23 June 1990 and 30 March 1994; and

- (b) subject to subsection (2), a period when the employee was not employed by the employer must be taken into account.
 - (4) Subsection (3)(a)(i) does not affect an employee's entitlement to long service leave under—
 - (a) an award made before 23 June 1990; or
 - (b) the repealed Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1961.
 - (5) This section does not limit any other entitlement to long service leave that an employee may have.

48 Taking long service leave—alternative provision for casual or regular part-time employees

- (1) An employer may agree with a casual or regular part-time employee that the entitlement to long service leave may be taken in the form of its full-time equivalent.

Example—

If an employee—

- (a) is entitled to be paid for 260 hours long service leave; and
- (b) works under an award that provides for a full-time working week of 40 ordinary working hours;

the employee and the employer may agree that the employee take $6\frac{1}{2}$ weeks leave ($260 \div 40 = 6\frac{1}{2}$).

- (2) This section applies subject to a provision in an industrial instrument about the employee's long service leave.

49 Payment for long service leave

- (1) This section applies if an employee who is entitled to long service leave was a casual employee or regular part-time employee at any time during the employee's continuous service to which the long service leave relates.
- (2) The minimum amount payable to the employee for long service leave is worked out using the formula—

$$\frac{\text{actual service}}{52} \times \frac{8.6667}{10} \times \text{hourly rate}$$

Example—

An employee who worked 15600 ordinary working hours over a 10-year period and is being paid an hourly rate of $12 is entitled to be paid—

$$\frac{15600}{52} \times \frac{8.6667}{10} \times $12 = $3120.01$$

(7) In this section—

actual service means the total ordinary working hours actually worked by an employee during the employee's period of continuous service.

casual employee means an employee mentioned in section 47(1).

hourly rate means the hourly rate for ordinary time payable to the employee—

- (a) if the employee takes the long service leave—on the day that the employee starts the leave; or
- (b) if the employee's employment is terminated—on the date that the termination takes effect.

Division 4 Seasonal employees

50 Entitlement—employees in sugar industry and meat works

- (1) This section applies to the following seasonal employees—
 - (a) an employee employed in seasonal employment in the sugar industry;
 - (b) an employee employed in or about meat works in seasonal employment by the meat works owner.
- (2) The employee is entitled to long service leave on full pay of at least the number of weeks worked out using the following formula—

section 43 entitlement $\times \frac{\text{actual service}}{10}$

Example—

An employee who worked half of each year, over a 10-year period, is entitled to half the section 43 entitlement, that is, half of 8.6667 weeks leave ($8.6667 \times \frac{5}{10} = 4.3334$).

- (3) Service with the employer of an employee engaged in harvesting sugar cane or farm work in the sugar industry before 23 June 1990 must not be taken into account in working out the length of the employee's continuous service.
- (4) A period between seasons when the employee is not employed by the employer must be taken into account in working out the length of an employee's continuous service if—
 - (a) in 1 season—the employee's service with the employer continued until the end of the season or until an earlier day when the employee's employment was terminated by the employer; and
 - (b) in the next season—the employee's service with the same employer started on the season's opening or on a later day in the season when the employer required the employee to start employment.
- (5) If an employee is employed by the employer between seasons, the part of the period between seasons when the employee is employed must be taken into account in working out the length of the employee's actual service.
- (6) An employee who is entitled to long service leave elsewhere than under this Act, is entitled to leave that is at least as favourable as the entitlement under this section.
- (7) In this section—

actual service means the total ordinary time actually worked by an employee during the employee's period of continuous service.

section 43 entitlement means the entitlement to long service leave of an employee under section 43.

51 Taking long service leave—employees in sugar industry and meat works

- (1) This section applies to the following seasonal employees—
 - (a) an employee employed in seasonal employment in the sugar industry;
 - (b) an employee employed in or about meat works in seasonal employment by the meat works owner.
- (2) An employee may take long service leave between seasons.
- (3) If an employee takes leave between seasons, the leave is taken to have started when the employee last ceased employment with the employer.

52 Other seasonal employees

The commission may decide the entitlement to long service leave of an employee—

- (a) who is employed in seasonal employment, but who is not employed—
 - (i) in the sugar industry; or
 - (ii) in or about meat works; or
- (b) who is employed in other periodic employment that is not defined as casual employment by the relevant industrial instrument.

Division 5 Miscellaneous

53 Payment instead of long service leave

- (1) An employee may be paid for all or part of an entitlement to long service leave instead of taking the leave or part of the leave if subsection (2) or (3) applies.
- (2) If the relevant industrial instrument provides for the employee to be paid for all or part of an entitlement to long service leave instead of taking the leave or part of the leave, payment may be made, in accordance with the industrial instrument, if the employee and employer agree by a signed agreement.

- (3) If no industrial instrument provides for the employee to be paid for all or part of an entitlement to long service leave instead of taking the leave or part of the leave, payment may be made only if the payment is ordered by the commission on application by the employee.
- (4) The commission may order the payment only if satisfied the payment should be made—
 - (a) on compassionate grounds; or
 - (b) on the ground of financial hardship.
- (5) Despite section 58(2), the full bench must not make a general ruling that allows an employee to be paid for an entitlement to long service leave instead of taking the leave.
- (6) In subsection (3)—

employee includes a registered worker under the Building and Construction Industry (Portable Long Service Leave) Act 1991.

entitlement to long service leave includes an entitlement to long service leave under the Building and Construction Industry (Portable Long Service Leave) Act 1991, section 57(1).

- (1) This section applies if an employee entitled to long service leave dies—
 - (a) before taking the leave; or

- (2) The employer must pay the employee's legal personal representative any amount payable for the employee's entitlement to long service leave that has not been already been paid.

- (3) If the employer does not do so, the employee's legal personal representative or an inspector may recover the amount as unpaid wages.

55 Continuity not broken by service in Reserve Forces

- (1) An employee's service in the reserve forces is taken to be continuous service with the employer who employed the employee immediately before the employee starting service with the Forces.

 - (b) the exemption is in force.
- (2) On application, the commission may revoke an exemption.

57 Person may be employer and employee

If in performing duties in a calling a person is an employee, the person is entitled to long service leave as prescribed under this part despite the person being, by definition for this Act, an employer because of—

- (a) the person's engagement in the calling; or
- (b) the position the person holds in the calling.

57A Provisions taken to be terms of industrial instrument

A provision of this part that applies to an employee, without limiting the provision, is taken to be a term of an industrial instrument applicable to the employee.

Part 4 Review

58 Review of general employment conditions

- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to section 66.

66 Applications under this part

- (1) An application can not be made under this part for an order to secure equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value for an employee if proceedings for an alternative remedy—
 - (a) to secure the remuneration for the employee; or

67 Definition for pt 6

In this part—
service includes employment.

68 How part applies

- (1) This part applies when working out an employee's rights and entitlements under this Act or an industrial instrument by prescribing when the employee's continuity of service is not broken.
- (2) An employee is not entitled to claim the benefit of a right or entitlement more than once for the same period of service.
- (3) However, when working out the minimum period of notice required to be given under section 84 to a transferred employee, any period of notice previously given in relation to the transfer of the calling (whether given before or after the commencement of this subsection) is to be disregarded.

transfer of a calling to the new employer from another employer (the former employer).

- (2) Even if a person is dismissed by the former employer before the transfer of a calling, the person is taken to be a transferred employee if—

 - (b) the employee—
 - (i) was dismissed by the former employer within 1 month immediately before the transfer; and
 - (ii) is re-employed by the new employer within 3 months after the dismissal.

- (4) A period of service with the former employer (including service before the commencement of this section) is taken to be a period of service with the new employer.
- (4A) In relation to the transfer, the transferred employee is not an employee to whom chapter 3, part 4, division 1AA applies, unless an instrument mentioned in section 85A(1) provides otherwise.
- (5) In this section—

71 Continuity of service—generally

- (1) Service with a partnership and an employer who was, or becomes, a member of the partnership is taken to be continuous service with the same employer.
- (2) An employee's continuity of service with an employer is not broken if the employee's service is temporarily lent or let on hire by the employer to another employer.

An employee has completed 10 years of continuous service immediately before the commencement. The 10 years counts as 6.6667 years continuous service for working out when the employee may take long service leave. The employee may take the leave after completing another 3.3333 years continuous service. The employee's entitlement then will be 11.5556 weeks ([10 + 3.3333] x 0.86667 weeks).

An employee has completed 1 year of continuous service immediately before the commencement. The 1 year counts as 0.6667 years continuous service for working out when the employee may take long service leave. An employee starts employment after the commencement. The employee may take long service leave after completing 10 years continuous service. The employee's entitlement then will be 8.6667 weeks (10 x 0.86667 weeks).

- (9) In this section—

proportionate payment means a payment equal to the employee's full pay for a period that represents the same proportion of 8.6667 weeks that the employee's period of continuous service bears to 10 years.

- (2) An employer must not reduce an employee's usual rate, before an employee starts long service leave, with intent to avoid the employer's obligation under subsection (1)(a).
- (3) If satisfied an employer has contravened subsection (2), the commission may order the employer to pay the employee at the usual rate even though the employee was not being paid the usual rate immediately before starting leave.
- (4) If, during the employee's long service leave—

- (4) In this section—

 - (b) the repealed Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1961.
- (6) This section does not limit any other entitlement to long service leave the employee may have.

Example—

An employee who worked 15600 ordinary working hours over a 10-year period and is being paid an hourly rate of $12 is entitled to be paid—

Example—

An employee who worked half of each year, over a 10-year period, is entitled to half the s 71HB entitlement, that is, half of 8.6667 weeks leave ($8.6667 \times \frac{1}{2} = 4.3334$).

- (2) In working out the length of the employee's continuous service—
- (a) service with the employer of the employee engaged in harvesting sugar cane or farm work in the sugar industry before 23 June 1990 must not be taken into account; and

- (2) Each of the following is an invalid reason—

parental leave has the meaning given in section 17.

74 Application for reinstatement

- (1) If it is alleged that an employee has been unfairly dismissed, an application for reinstatement may be made to the commission for the dismissal to be dealt with under this chapter.
- (2) The application must be made within—
 - (a) 21 days after the dismissal takes effect; or
 - (b) a further period the commission allows on an application made at any time.
- (2A) However, a person—
 - (a) who, immediately before the commencement of this subsection, was a federal award employee within the meaning of section 72(8), as in force immediately before the commencement of this subsection; and
 - (b) who was dismissed after 30 June 1999, but before the commencement of this subsection; and
 - (c) who—
 - (i) has made an application for reinstatement relating to that dismissal to the commission, but the application was rejected or dismissed because the person was a federal award employee; and
 - (ii) has not made an application for reinstatement relating to that dismissal to the Australian commission; may make an application within 21 days after the commencement of this subsection.

- (3) An application may be made by—
 - (a) an employee; or
 - (b) with the employee's consent—an organisation whose rules entitle it to represent the employee's industrial interests.
- (4) The registrar may reject an application if the registrar considers the dismissed employee is a person mentioned in section 72(1) as a person to whom section 73(1) does not apply.
- (5) If the registrar rejects the application, the registrar must, by written notice, notify the applicant—
 - (a) that the application has been rejected; and
 - (b) of the reasons why the registrar considers the dismissed employee is a person mentioned in section 72(1) as a person to whom section 73(1) does not apply.
- (6) The applicant may, by written notice given within 21 days after the registrar's notice is received, inform the registrar that the applicant wishes the application to proceed.
- (7) If the applicant does so, the commission must deal with the application, despite the registrar's rejection.
- (8) The commission and registrar must deal with an application as quickly as possible.

75 Conciliation before application heard

- (1) The commission must hold a conference to attempt to settle an application under section 74 by conciliation before it hears the application.
- (2) The commission may, by written notice, require the applicant, employee or employer to attend the conference at a stated time and place.

- (3) If the commission is satisfied all reasonable attempts to settle the matter by conciliation are, or are likely to be, unsuccessful so far as it relates to at least 1 ground of the application or because the applicant is a person to whom section 73(1) does not apply, it—
 - (a) must issue a written certificate stating that the commission—
 - (i) is so satisfied for a stated ground; or
 - (ii) considers the applicant is a person to whom section 73(1) does not apply; and
 - (b) must inform the parties to the conciliation of—
 - (i) the commission's assessment of the merits of the application in relation to the stated ground or in relation to how the applicant is a person to whom section 73(1) does not apply; and
 - (ii) the possible consequences of further proceeding on the application; and
 - (c) may recommend the application be discontinued, whether or not it also recommends another way of resolving the matter.
- (4) The application lapses if the applicant has not, within 6 months after the applicant has been informed by the commission under subsection (3)—
 - (a) taken any action in relation to the application; or
 - (b) discontinued the application.
- (5) The parties may seek further conciliation, or settle the matter, at any time before an order is made under section 78, 79 or 80.
- (6) The president may delegate the functions of the commission under this section to the registrar or a deputy registrar.

76 Arbitration when conciliation unsuccessful

If the commission considers all reasonable attempts to settle an application by conciliation have been made, but have been unsuccessful, the commission may hear and decide the application by—

- (a) making an order under section 78, 79 or 80; or
- (b) dismissing the application.

77 Matters to be considered in deciding an application

In deciding whether a dismissal was harsh, unjust or unreasonable, the commission must consider—

- (a) whether the employee was notified of the reason for dismissal; and
- (b) whether the dismissal related to—
 - (i) the operational requirements of the employer's undertaking, establishment or service; or
 - (ii) the employee's conduct, capacity or performance; and
- (c) if the dismissal relates to the employee's conduct, capacity or performance—
 - (i) whether the employee had been warned about the conduct, capacity or performance; or
 - (ii) whether the employee was given an opportunity to respond to the allegation about the conduct, capacity or performance; and
- (d) any other matters the commission considers relevant.

78 Remedies—reinstatement or re-employment

- (1) This section applies if the commission is satisfied an employee was unfairly dismissed.
- (2) The commission may order the employer to reinstate the employee to the employee's former position on conditions at least as favourable as the conditions on which the employee was employed immediately before dismissal.

- (3) If the commission considers reinstatement would be impracticable, the commission may order the employer to re-employ the employee in another position that the employer has available and that the commission considers suitable.
- (4) The commission may also—
 - (a) make an order it considers necessary to maintain the continuity of the employee's employment or service; and
 - (b) order the employee to repay any amount paid to the employee by, or for, the employer on the dismissal; and
 - (c) order the employer to pay the employee the remuneration lost, or likely to have been lost, by the employee because of the dismissal, after taking into account any employment benefits or wages received by the employee since the dismissal.
- (5) This section does not limit the commission's power to make an interim or interlocutory order.

79 Remedies—compensation

- (1) If, and only if, the commission considers reinstatement or re-employment would be impracticable, the commission may order the employer to pay the employee an amount of compensation decided by the commission.
- (2) The commission must not award an amount of compensation that is more than—
 - (a) if the employee was employed under an industrial instrument—the wages the employer would have been liable to pay the employee for the 6 months immediately after the dismissal, paid at the rate the employee received immediately before the dismissal; or
 - (b) if the employee was not employed under an industrial instrument—the lesser of the wages under paragraph (a) and an amount equal to half the amount prescribed under section 72(1)(e)(iii).

- (3) The commission must take into account any amount paid to the employee by the employer on the dismissal.
- (4) This section does not limit the commission's power to make an interim or interlocutory order.

80 Sanctions for unfair dismissal—invalid reason

- (1) If satisfied an employer has dismissed an employee for an invalid reason, the commission may order the employer to pay the employee an amount of not more than the monetary value of 135 penalty units.
- (2) The commission may make the order in addition to an order for reinstatement, re-employment or compensation.

81 Further orders if employer fails to reinstate

- (1) If an employer wilfully contravenes an order to reinstate or re-employ an employee, the commission may—
 - (a) further order the employer to pay the employee—
 - (i) an amount of not more than the monetary value of 50 penalty units; and
 - (ii) an amount for lost wages; and
 - (b) make further orders until the employer complies with an order under section 78 or this section.
- (2) This section does not affect another provision of this Act allowing proceedings to be taken against the employer.

82 Effect of order on leave

If the commission makes an order under section 78, the interruption to the employee's continuity of employment or service caused by the dismissal must be disregarded when working out the employee's entitlement—

- (a) to annual, sick, family or long service leave; or
- (b) under this chapter.

Part 3 Requirements for dismissal

83 What employer must do to dismiss employee

- (1) An employer may dismiss an employee only if—
 - (a) the employee has been—
 - (i) given the period of notice required by section 84; or
 - (ii) paid the compensation required by section 85; or
 - (b) the employee engages in misconduct of a type that would make it unreasonable to require the employer to continue the employment during the notice period.
- (2) Misconduct under subsection (1)(b) includes—
 - (a) theft; and
 - (b) assault; and
 - (c) fraud; and
 - (d) other misconduct prescribed under a regulation.
- (3) However, subsection (1)(b) does not apply if the employee can show that, in the circumstances, the conduct was not conduct that made it unreasonable to continue the employment during the notice period.
- (4) If an employer dismisses an employee, to whom subsection (1)(a) applies, without giving the required notice or paying the required compensation—
 - (a) on an application under section 74—the commission may order the employer to pay the employee the compensation that the employer was required to pay under section 85; or
 - (b) otherwise—the commission or a magistrate may order the employer to pay the employee the compensation that the employer was required to pay under section 85.
- (5) An application for an order under subsection (4)(b) may be made by—

- (a) an employee who has been dismissed; or
 - (b) with the employee's consent—an organisation whose rules entitle it to represent the employee's industrial interests; or
 - (c) an inspector.
- (6) The application must be made within 6 years after the day on which the employee is dismissed.
- (7) A regulation may exclude from the operation of this section dismissals happening in specified circumstances that relate to the transfer of the employer's business.

84 Minimum period of notice required from employers

- (1) The minimum period of notice is—
- (a) if the employee's continuous service is—
 - (i) not more than 1 year—1 week; and
 - (ii) more than 1 year, but not more than 3 years—2 weeks; and
 - (iii) more than 3 years, but not more than 5 years—3 weeks; and

 - (b) increased by 1 week if the employee—
 - (i) is 45 years old or over; and
 - (ii) has completed at least 2 years of continuous service with the employer.
- (2) A regulation may prescribe matters that must be disregarded when working out continuous service under subsection (1).

85 Minimum amount of compensation required

- (1) The minimum compensation payable to an employee is at least equal to the total of the amounts the employer would have been liable to pay the employee if the employee's employment had continued until the end of the required notice period.

- (2) The total must be worked out on the basis of—
 - (a) the ordinary working hours worked by the employee; and
 - (b) the amounts payable to the employee for the hours, including, for example, allowances, loadings and penalties; and
 - (c) any other amounts payable under the employee's employment contract.
- (3) A regulation may prescribe the amount that is taken to be payable, or how to work out the amount, under an employment contract mentioned in subsection (2)(c), to an employee whose wages before dismissal were decided wholly or partly on the basis of commission or piece rates.

85C Employer may apply for relief

The employer of an employee who is made redundant may apply to the commission for relief from the obligation to make the redundancy payment if—

A person may apply to a magistrate or the registrar for an exemption from membership of an organisation only because of the person's conscientious beliefs.

112 Procedure for hearing

Before deciding the application, the magistrate or registrar must follow the procedure prescribed under a regulation for the hearing.

113 Deciding application

- (b) to ensure the parties are fully informed of the orders that may be made at the hearing.

119 Right to be heard

- (1) The commission must, before making an order under this part against an entity, give the entity an opportunity to be heard.
- (2) This section does not apply to the making of an interim order or interim injunction.

120 Remedies

- (1) If, after hearing the application, the commission is satisfied an entity has engaged in, or proposes to engage in, prohibited conduct it may order the entity—
 - (a) to pay a penalty of not more than the monetary value of—
 - (i) for a corporation—135 penalty units; or
 - (ii) otherwise—27 penalty units; or
 - (b) to reinstate an employee in—
 - (i) the position from which the employee was removed or dismissed because of the prohibited conduct or proposed prohibited conduct on which the ground was based; or

- (2) It is to be presumed, in proceedings under this part arising from the application, that the conduct was, or is being, carried out for that reason or with that intent, unless the entity proves otherwise.

Chapter 5 Awards (pre-modernisation)

Part 1AA Application of ch 5

122B Application of ch 5

This chapter applies to an award other than a modern award.

Part 1 Form and application

123 Form, effect and term of award

- (1) An award—
- (a) must be in a form decided by the commission; and
 - (b) takes effect and has the force of law throughout the State and without limit of time, except as otherwise prescribed by subsection (2).

Note—

An award that is in force immediately before the commencement of part 8 (Modernisation of awards) may be repealed as a result of an award modernisation process carried out under that part.

- (2) An award may state it is in force—
- (a) in a stated locality; or
 - (b) for a stated period; or
 - (c) in relation to a stated employer; or
 - (d) in relation to a stated establishment or operation of a stated employer.
- (3) An award stated to be limited in a way mentioned in subsection (2) has effect only to the extent that it provides.

124 Persons bound by award

- (1) An award binds—
 - (a) subject to paragraphs (d) to (f)—all employers who are engaged in the calling to which the award applies; and
 - (b) subject to paragraphs (d) to (f)—all employees who are engaged in the calling to which the award applies; and
 - (c) all organisations concerned with the calling to which the award applies; and
 - (d) if the award applies only in a stated locality—all employers and employees in the locality who are engaged in the calling to which the award applies; and
 - (e) if the award applies only to a stated employer—
 - (i) the employer and any successor of the employer; and
 - (ii) all employees of the employer and any successor; and
 - (f) if the award applies only to a stated establishment or operation of a stated employer—
 - (i) the employer and any successor of the employer; and
 - (ii) all employees of the employer in the establishment or operation.
- (2) This section applies subject to section 653 and to all exemptions—
 - (a) the effect of which are continued under section 823; or
 - (b) ordered by the commission under section 234.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), an award does not bind a person in relation to a calling if a modern award applies to the person.

Part 2 Commission's powers

125 Repealing awards

- (1) The commission may repeal an award.

Note—

See also part 8 in relation to the modernisation of awards made under this chapter.

- (2) The commission may act under subsection (1)—
- (a) of its own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by—
 - (i) the Minister; or
 - (ii) an organisation; or
 - (iii) an employer; or
 - (iv) a person who satisfies the commission that the person is not an officer of, or acting for, an eligible association.

Part 4 General

133 Enforceability of awards

Action can not be commenced to enforce an award until 21 days after the date it is published on the QIRC website.

134 Effect of appeals on awards

The commission must immediately amend an award to give effect to—

- (a) a decision of the Court of Appeal, court or full bench affecting the award on appeal from a decision of the commission; or

- (b) a decision of the court affecting the award on a case stated by the commission.

135 Inconsistency between awards and contracts

- (1) To the extent of any inconsistency, an award prevails over a contract of service that is—
 - (a) in force when the award becomes enforceable; or
 - (b) made while the award continues in force.
- (2) The contract is to be interpreted, and takes effect, as if it were amended to the extent necessary to make the area of inconsistency conform to the award.
- (3) However, no inconsistency arises only because the contract provides for employment conditions more favourable to the employee than the award.

Part 5 Wages and employment conditions for apprentices and trainees

136 Apprentice's and trainee's employment conditions

- (1) An apprentice or trainee is entitled to the same employment conditions as those fixed by the industrial instrument applicable to employees in the workplace where the apprentice or trainee is employed.
- (2) An apprentice or trainee is entitled to wages at—
 - (a) if an industrial instrument applying to employees in the workplace where the apprentice or trainee is employed or placed states a rate payable to apprentices or trainees—the rate stated in the instrument; or

- (b) otherwise—the rate fixed by the commission, being a proportion of the wages payable for the relevant calling to employees in the workplace where the apprentice or trainee is employed or placed.

Examples—

- 1 An apprentice plumber is placed by a group training organisation in the workplace of a host employer where a federal award applies. The apprentice is entitled to the rate of wages stated in the federal award rather than a State award.
 - 2 An apprentice carpenter is placed by a group training organisation in the workplace of a host employer where a certified agreement applies. The certified agreement does not state the rate of wages payable to an apprentice. The apprentice is entitled to wages at the rate fixed by the commission, being a proportion of the wages payable to a qualified carpenter under the certified agreement.
- (3) If an industrial instrument provides for a tradesperson in a calling to be paid an allowance in addition to wages, an apprentice in the calling is entitled to be paid—
- (a) if, under the instrument, the allowance is taken to be part of the tradesperson's wages—the percentage of the allowance that the apprentice's wages bear to the tradesperson's wages; or
 - (b) if, under the instrument, the allowance is not taken to be part of the tradesperson's wages—the full allowance.
- (4) If an industrial instrument provides for a tradesperson in a calling to be paid an allowance that is assessed as a percentage of the tradesperson's wages, an apprentice in the calling is entitled to be paid the percentage of the allowance that the apprentice's wages bear to the tradesperson's wages.
- (5) Subsection (4) applies whether or not, under the instrument, the allowance is taken to be part of the tradesperson's wages.
- (6) In this section—

industrial instrument includes a federal industrial instrument.

workplace, for an apprentice or trainee employed by a group training organisation, includes the workplace of the host employer with whom the apprentice or trainee is placed.

137 Order setting minimum wages and conditions

- (1) The commission may make an order fixing minimum wages and employment conditions for the following employees, whether or not they are employed under an industrial instrument—
 - (a) apprentices or trainees;
 - (b) different classes of apprentices or trainees.
- (2) In making an order, the commission may consider any matter it considers relevant, including—
 - (a) the age, competency, or method of progression through training of the apprentices or trainees; and
 - (b) an industrial instrument.
- (3) Despite section 136, if there is an inconsistency between an order and an industrial instrument (other than a certified agreement), the order prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.
- (4) The commission may make an order—
 - (a) of its own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by—
 - (i) the chief executive (training); or
 - (ii) an organisation; or
 - (iii) a State peak council; or
 - (iv) the Minister; or
 - (v) another entity with an interest in apprentices or trainees.
- (5) In this section—

industrial instrument includes an award or agreement under the Commonwealth Act.

138 Order setting tool allowance

- (1) The commission may make an order requiring an apprentice's employer to provide the apprentice with—
 - (a) tools relevant to the calling the apprentice is engaged in; or
 - (b) an amount to enable the apprentice to buy the tools (a tool allowance).
- (2) The order may state—
 - (a) the particular tools to be provided and the circumstances in which they are to be provided; or
 - (b) the circumstances in which a tool allowance must be provided.
- (3) The commission may make an order—
 - (a) of its own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by—
 - (i) the chief executive (training); or
 - (ii) an organisation; or
 - (iii) a State peak council; or
 - (iv) the Minister; or
 - (v) another entity with an interest in apprentices.
- (4) An employer must not contravene an order.
Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.
- (5) An offence against subsection (4) may consist of—
 - (a) a single failure to provide the apprentice with the relevant tools, or tool allowance, for a level of the apprenticeship; or
 - (b) a failure to provide the apprentice with the relevant tools, or tool allowance, for the term of the apprenticeship.

[s 138B]

- (6) The offence starts on the day of the failure and continues until the apprentice has been provided with the relevant tools or tool allowance.
- (7) A complaint, or a series of complaints, may be made for any period over which the offence continues.
- (8) However, a complaint may only relate to offences started within 6 years before the complaint is made.
- (9) If a magistrate finds an employer guilty of an offence against subsection (4), the magistrate must, in addition to a penalty the magistrate may impose, order the employer to—
 - (a) provide the apprentice with the tools required to be provided under the commission's order; or
 - (b) pay to the Magistrates Court the amount—
 - (i) stated in the commission's order; or
 - (ii) equivalent to the cost of the tools required to be provided under the commission's order.
- (10) The magistrate may express the order in the alternative so the employer may decide how to comply with it.
- (11) The court must pay an amount paid under subsection (9)(b) to the apprentice.

138B Wages payable to former apprentices or trainees

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an employee was engaged as an apprentice or trainee; and
 - (b) the employer continued to employ the employee after the end of the probationary period; and
 - (c) either—
 - (i) the employer dismisses the employee; or
 - (ii) the employer does not sign a training contract.
- (2) The employee is entitled to the higher of the following for the period after the end of the probationary period—

- (a) the wages that would have been payable under the relevant industrial instrument had the employee continued to be employed as an apprentice or trainee;
 - (b) the wages payable under the relevant industrial instrument applicable to the type of work the employee performed.
- (3) This section does not apply to an employee if a training contract between the employee and employer has been sent to the chief executive (training) for registration.

139A Reinstatement to previous position

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) an apprenticeship or traineeship is started with an employer; and
 - (b) immediately before the apprenticeship or traineeship started, the person training as the apprentice or trainee was employed in a position (the previous position) by the employer; and
 - (c) any of the following events happen—
 - (i) the chief executive (training) refuses to register the person's training contract;
 - (ii) the training contract is cancelled;
 - (iii) the apprenticeship or traineeship ends before the probationary period for the apprenticeship or traineeship ends;
 - (iv) the person completes the apprenticeship or traineeship.
- (2) The person is taken to be immediately reinstated with the employer in the person's previous position.
- (3) The reinstated person is not excluded from the operation of chapter 3 only because of the apprenticeship or traineeship.

Part 6 Labour market programs

140 Orders for wages and employment conditions

- (1) The commission may make an order fixing wages and employment conditions for employees who participate in a labour market program.
- (2) In making an order, the commission may consider any matter it considers relevant, including—
 - (a) the objectives of the program; and
 - (b) any attribute of the participants that affects their ability to get employment, including, for example—
 - (i) the age and competency of the participants; and
 - (ii) any disability or incapacity of the participants; and
 - (c) the kind of work done in the program; and
 - (d) the experience to be gained by the participants; and
 - (e) any relevant industrial instrument; and
 - (f) any remuneration or benefit the participants are receiving from the Commonwealth or the State.
- (3) The commission may make an order—
 - (a) of its own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by—
 - (i) the chief executive (training); or
 - (ii) the Minister.

140C Minister may make award modernisation request

- (1) The Minister may give the commission a written notice (an award modernisation request) requesting that an award modernisation process be carried out.
- (2) An award modernisation request must state—
 - (a) details of the award modernisation process that is to be carried out; and

- (3) The day stated in the notice under subsection (2)(b) must not be later than 2 years after the day on which the award modernisation request is given to the commission.
- (4) An award modernisation request may state any other matter about the award modernisation process the Minister considers appropriate.
- (5) Without limiting subsection (4), the award modernisation request may—
 - (a) require the commission to—
 - (i) prepare progress reports on stated matters about the award modernisation process; and
 - (ii) make the progress reports available as stated in the request; or
 - (b) state permitted matters about which provisions must be included in a modern award; or

(6) In this section—

 - (a) the day stated in the award modernisation request relating to the process; or

- (2) A person does not contravene a term of a modern award unless the award applies to the person.

140EB When a modern award operates

- (1) Subject to section 824, a modern award starts operating on the day stated in the award as the day on which it comes into operation.
- (2) The stated day must not be earlier than the day the modern award is made.
- (3) A modern award continues in effect until it is revoked.

140EC Relationship of modern award with certified agreement

- (1) A modern award may apply to an employee in relation to particular employment at the same time as a certified agreement applies to the employee in relation to the employment.
- (2) If both a modern award and certified agreement apply to an employee in relation to particular employment, the certified agreement prevails to the extent of any inconsistency.

140ED Relationship of modern award with contract of service

- (1) A modern award prevails over a relevant contract to the extent of any inconsistency.
- (2) The contract must be interpreted, and takes effect, as if it were amended to the extent necessary to make the inconsistency consistent with the modern award.
- (3) However, there is no inconsistency only because the contract provides for employment conditions more favourable to the employee than the modern award.
- (4) In this section—relevant contract means a contract of service that is—
 - (a) in force when the award comes into operation; or
 - (b) made while the award continues in operation.

Part 3 Making, varying and revoking modern awards

Division 1 Periodic reviews of modern awards

140F Periodic reviews of a modern award

- (1) The commission must review a modern award (a periodic review) as soon as practicable after each 4th anniversary of the making of the award.
- (2) The president may give a direction about the conduct of a periodic review to the member constituting the commission for conducting the review.
- (3) An industrial commissioner must comply with a direction of the president under subsection (2).
- (4) For the purposes of a periodic review, the commission may make any of the following—
 - (a) a determination varying the modern award;
 - (b) a modern award;
 - (c) a determination revoking the modern award.
- (5) Subsection (4)(a) applies subject to section 140FA.

140FA Requirement about variation of minimum wages

For a periodic review, the commission may make a determination varying the rates of minimum wages in a modern award only if the commission is satisfied the variation is justified by work value reasons.

Division 2 Other exercise of powers to make, vary or revoke modern awards

140G Powers may be exercised to achieve modern awards objectives

- (1) The commission may, other than for the purposes of a periodic review—
 - (a) make a determination varying a modern award; or
 - (b) make a modern award; or
 - (c) make a determination revoking a modern award.
- (2) The commission may exercise a power under subsection (1) only if the commission is satisfied—
 - (a) that making the determination or modern award other than for the purposes of a periodic review is necessary to achieve the modern awards objectives; and
 - (b) for a variation of the rates of minimum wages in a modern award—the variation is justified by work value reasons.
- (3) The commission may exercise a power under this section—
 - (a) on its own initiative; or
 - (b) on application under section 140GA.

140GA Application to vary, revoke or make modern award under s 140G

- (1) This section provides for who may apply for the making of a determination varying or revoking a modern award, or for the making of a modern award, under section 140G.
- (2) An application to vary, omit or include provisions, other than coverage provisions, in a modern award or an application to revoke a modern award may be made by—
 - (a) an employer, employee or organisation to which the award applies; or

- (b) an organisation whose rules entitle it to represent the industrial interests of 1 or more employers or employees to whom the award applies.
- (3) An application to vary or include coverage provisions in a modern award to extend the coverage of the award to include additional employers, employees or organisations may be made by—
- (a) an employer, employee or organisation that the award would start applying to; or
- (b) an organisation whose rules entitle it to represent the industrial interests of 1 or more employers or employees whom the award would start applying to.
- (4) An application to vary or omit coverage provisions in a modern award so it stops applying to employers, employees or organisations may be made by—
- (a) an employer, employee or organisation the award would stop applying to; or
- (b) an organisation whose rules entitle it to represent the industrial interests of 1 or more employers or employees whom the award would stop applying to.
- (5) An application for the making of a modern award may be made by—
- (a) an employee or employer to whom the award would apply; or
- (b) an organisation entitled to represent the industrial interests of 1 or more employers or employees to whom the award would apply.
- (6) Subject to subsections (1) to (5), an applicant may make applications for 2 or more related things at the same time.

Example—

An applicant may apply for the making of a new modern award and the related revocation of an existing modern award.

- (7) In this section—

coverage provisions see section 71MC.

140GB Variation to update or omit name of employer or organisation

- (1) The commission may make a determination varying a modern award—
 - (a) to reflect a change in the name of an employer or organisation; or
 - (b) to omit the name of an employer or organisation from the award, if—
 - (i) the employer or organisation has ceased to exist; or
 - (ii) the organisation has been deregistered under chapter 12, part 16; or
 - (c) to reflect a transfer of a calling from an employer named in the award (the old employer) to another employer (the new employer).
- (2) The commission may make a determination under this section—
 - (a) on its own initiative; or
 - (b) if subsection (1)(a) or (b)(ii) applies—on application by the employer or organisation; or
 - (c) if subsection (1)(c) applies—on application by—
 - (i) the old employer or the new employer; or
 - (ii) a transferring employee to whom the award applied as an employee of the old employer; or
 - (iii) an organisation entitled under its rules to represent the industrial interests of a person mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii).

140GC Variation to remove ambiguity or uncertainty or to correct error

- (1) The commission may make a determination varying a modern award to—
 - (a) remove an ambiguity or uncertainty; or

- (b) correct an error.
- (2) The commission may make a determination under this section—
 - (a) on its own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by—
 - (i) an employer, employee or organisation to which the modern award applies; or
 - (ii) an organisation entitled under its rules to represent the industrial interests of 1 or more employers or employees mentioned in subparagraph (i).

140GD Variation on referral by Anti-Discrimination Commission

- (1) The Anti-Discrimination Commission may apply to the commission for a review of a modern award on the grounds that it is discriminatory.
- (2) If an application is made under subsection (1), the commission must—
 - (a) review the modern award; and
 - (b) if it considers the award requires a person to do an act that would be unlawful under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 had the act not been done under the award—make a determination varying the award so it no longer requires the person to do the unlawful act.

Division 3 General provisions about exercise of commission's powers

140H Requirements about revoking a modern award

The commission must not make a determination revoking a modern award unless the commission is satisfied the award is obsolete or no longer capable of operating.

140HA When variation determination comes into operation

- (1) This section applies to a determination varying a modern award.
- (2) The determination comes into operation on the day stated in the determination.
- (3) The stated day must not be earlier than the day on which the determination is made, unless—
 - (a) the determination is made under section 140GC; and
 - (b) the commission is satisfied exceptional circumstances justify stating an earlier day; and
 - (c) the determination does not adversely affect an employee.
- (4) The determination does not take effect in relation to a particular employee until the start of the employee's first full pay period that starts on or after the day the determination comes into operation.

140HB Retrospective variation of modern awards

- (1) This section applies if a determination varying a modern award operates retrospectively under section 140HA.
- (2) If, before the determination was made, a certified agreement or a variation of a certified agreement was approved by the commission, the validity of the approval is not affected by the retrospective operation of the determination.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if—
 - (a) a person engaged in conduct before the determination was made; and
 - (b) but for the retrospective operation of the determination, the conduct would not have contravened a term of the modern award or a certified agreement.
- (4) The person is taken not to have committed an offence only because the conduct contravened a term of the modern award or certified agreement.

140K Definitions for ch 6

In this chapter—

arbitration period, for a matter, means the arbitration period for the matter under section 149A.

conciliation period, for a matter, see section 148(2).

multi-employer agreement means a certified agreement made with a multi-employer.

peace obligation period see section 147(2).

relevant employee organisation, for a certified agreement or a proposed certified agreement, means an employee organisation that—

- (a) is bound by an award or industrial agreement that binds an employer under the certified agreement or proposed certified agreement, or would bind the employer apart from an award under the Commonwealth Act; or
- (b) if there is no award or agreement that binds, or would bind, an employer under the certified agreement or proposed certified agreement—is entitled to represent the industrial interests of employees of the employer.

141 Meaning of certified agreement

- (1) A certified agreement is a written agreement—
 - (a) between an employer and a group of employees of the employer (whether all employees or a category of employees) who are covered by a modern award; and
 - (b) that has been certified under section 156.
- (2) The certified agreement covers all employees in the group, even if they were employed after the agreement was made.
- (3) In this section—

group of employees includes—

 - (a) employees of a single employer; and
 - (b) employees of a multi-employer; and
 - (c) employees of an employer who are engaged in a project, including a proposed project; and
 - (d) employees proposed to be employed in a new business by an employer, other than a multi-employer; and
 - (e) employees of—
 - (i) the State; or
 - (ii) an entity established for a public purpose under a law of the State or Commonwealth; or
 - (iii) another entity in which the State has a controlling interest.

142 Who may make certified agreements

A certified agreement may be made between—

- (a) on the one hand, the employer; and
- (b) on the other hand—

- (i) 1 or more employee organisations that represent, or are entitled to represent, any employees to whom this chapter applies and who are, or are eligible to be, members of the organisation; or
 - (ii) the employees, at the time the agreement is made, to whom this chapter applies.

Division 1 Making agreements

Subdivision 1 Negotiation

143 Proposed parties to be advised when agreement is proposed

- (1) This section applies when a person (the proposer) proposes to make a certified agreement.
- (2) The proposer must give each of the following persons a written notice (a notice of intention) of the proposer's intention to begin negotiations for the agreement—
 - (a) the other proposed parties to the agreement;
 - (b) for a project agreement—all relevant employee organisations and the commission.
- (3) The proposer must give the notice of intention at least 7 days before the negotiations are proposed to begin.
- (3A) If there is an existing certified agreement or a determination under subdivision 3 between the parties, the proposer must not, despite anything to the contrary in the agreement or determination, give the notice of intention more than 60 days before the nominal expiry date.
- (4) If the agreement proposed is a project agreement, an organisation that receives a notice of intention and wants to be party to the agreement must give written notice of that fact to—
 - (a) the proposer; and

- (b) the commission.
- (5) If the agreement proposed is a multi-employer agreement, a person who receives a notice of intention and wants to be party to the agreement must give written notice of that fact to the proposer and the commission.
- (6) A notice under subsection (4) or (5) must be given within 21 days of the person receiving the advice.
- (7) An agreement may only be made within that 21 days if the other proposed parties to the agreement, and all relevant employee organisations, have given a notice under subsection (4) or (5).

144 What is to be done when an agreement is proposed

- (1) This section does not apply to—
 - (a) a certified agreement to be made with an employee organisation for employees proposed to be employed in a new business; or
 - (b) a project agreement if the agreement is to be made before the project commences.
- (2) When a certified agreement is proposed to be made with an employee organisation or employees, the employer must take reasonable steps to ensure—
 - (a) each relevant employee has, or has ready access to, the proposed written agreement or a copy of it during the period starting 7 days before the day the relevant employees are asked to approve the proposed agreement; and
 - (b) the terms of the agreement (including the procedures for preventing and settling disputes), and the effect of the terms, are explained to each relevant employee before approval is given; and
 - (c) for an agreement with employees—each relevant employee is informed that he or she may ask a relevant employee organisation of which he or she is a member to represent the employee in negotiating with the employer about the agreement.

- (3) If a relevant employee does ask a relevant employee organisation of which he or she is a member to represent the employee, the employer must give the organisation a reasonable opportunity to represent the employee in negotiating with the employer about the agreement before it is made.
- (4) Subsection (3) stops applying if, after the request is made—
 - (a) the relevant employee withdraws the request; or
 - (b) the employee stops being a relevant employee.
- (4A) Subsections (2)(c) and (3) do not apply to an agreement proposed to be made with employees under section 147A.

145 Negotiations for project agreements

- (1) This section applies if more than 1 employee organisation has given notice, under section 143(4), that it wants to be party to a proposed project agreement.
- (2) The employer must negotiate with the single bargaining unit, through a person nominated by the single bargaining unit to represent it.
- (3) An organisation may withdraw as a party to a proposed project agreement by written notice to—
 - (a) the other organisations that comprise the single bargaining unit; and
 - (b) the proposer; and
 - (c) the commission.
- (4) In this section—

single bargaining unit means all the employee organisations that have given notice, under section 143(4), that they want to be party to a proposed project agreement.

146 Negotiations must be in good faith

When negotiating the terms of a proposed agreement, the proposed parties to the agreement must negotiate in good faith.

Examples of good faith in negotiating—

- agreeing to meet at reasonable times proposed by another party
- attending meetings that the party had agreed to attend
- complying with negotiation procedures agreed to by the parties
- not capriciously adding or withdrawing items for negotiation
- disclosing relevant information as appropriate for the negotiations
- negotiating with all of the parties

147 Peace obligation period to assist negotiations

(1) To enable the proposed parties to reach agreement about the terms of the proposed agreement, the proposed parties can not during the peace obligation period—

- (a) take industrial action for the purpose of—
- (i) supporting or advancing claims made in relation to the proposed agreement; or
 - (ii) responding to industrial action by the employer or the relevant employees; or
- (b) ask the commission to help the parties to make the agreement under section 148.

(2) In this section—

peace obligation period means the period of 21 days after the giving of the advice mentioned in section 143(2), ending no earlier than 7 days after the nominal expiry date of any existing certified agreement.

147A Employer may ask employees to approve proposed agreement being negotiated with employee organisation

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the parties to a proposed agreement are an employer and 1 or more employee organisations; and
 - (b) the agreement is not a project agreement.
- (2) The employer may request the employees who will be bound by the proposed agreement to approve it.
 - (3) The request must not be made until after the peace obligation period has ended.
 - (4) In making the request, the employer must comply with section 144(2)(a) and (b).
 - (5) If a valid majority of the employees approve the proposed agreement—
 - (a) the employer may apply to the commission for certification of the agreement under division 2; and
 - (b) the agreement is taken to be made by—
 - (i) the employer; and
 - (ii) the employees at the time the agreement is made.

Note—

See section 142(b).

- (6) For section 156, if, in negotiating a proposed agreement—
 - (a) a step was taken by the employer, or an employee organisation mentioned in subsection (1), to comply with a requirement under this Act; and
 - (b) the employer or employee organisation, as applicable, complied with the requirement as it applied to the proposed agreement;

the requirement is taken to have been complied with as it applies to the agreement made between the employer and the employees.

Example—

For paragraph (a), the step taken was that the employer, or employee organisation, gave a notice of intention under section 143(2).

For section 156, section 143(2) is taken to have been complied with for the agreement made between the employer and the employees.

- (6A) If the commission is satisfied a valid majority of the employees approved the agreement, section 156(1)(c) does not apply to the extent it requires the commission to be satisfied the agreement is signed by or for all the parties.
- (7) Subsection (5) does not prevent an employee organisation mentioned in subsection (1) being bound by the agreement under section 166(2).
- (8) If the full bench, or the commission, has jurisdiction to arbitrate the matter under subdivision 3, this section stops applying and anything being done under this section ends.
- (9) Making a request under subsection (2) does not, of itself, constitute a failure to negotiate in good faith as required under section 146.

Subdivision 2 Conciliation

148 Commission to help negotiating parties

- (1) After the peace obligation period for negotiations for a proposed certified agreement has ended, the commission must help the parties to the negotiations (each, a negotiating party) to make a certified agreement if—
 - (a) all of the negotiating parties jointly ask the commission to help them negotiate the agreement; or
 - (b) 1 negotiating party declares a breakdown in the negotiations and the commission considers further negotiations are unlikely to result in making a certified agreement within a reasonable time; or
 - (c) 1 negotiating party asks the commission for help negotiating the matter and the commission considers that a negotiating party is organising or engaging in, or threatening to organise or engage in, relevant industrial action.

- (2) The negotiating parties must, with the commission's help, try to make a certified agreement during the period (the conciliation period)—
- (a) starting on the day—
 - (i) if subsection (1)(a) applies—the commission is asked to help; or
 - (ii) if subsection (1)(b) applies—the commission notifies the parties that it considers further negotiations are unlikely to result in making a certified agreement within a reasonable time; or
 - (iii) if subsection (1)(c) applies—the commission notifies the parties that it considers that 1 of them is engaging, or threatening to engage, in relevant industrial action; and
 - (b) ending on—
 - (i) the day that is 14 days after the day mentioned in paragraph (a) for the matter; or
 - (ii) if all the negotiating parties agree to end the conciliation period on a later day—the later day.
- (3) In this section—
- relevant industrial action—
- (a) means industrial action—
 - (i) that has been protracted; or
 - (ii) that has caused, is causing or threatens to cause significant damage to any of the following—
 - (A) the economy or a part of it;
 - (B) the local community or a part of it;
 - (C) a single enterprise;
 - (D) the employees; or
 - (iii) that has endangered, is endangering or threatens to endanger the personal health, safety or welfare of the community or a part of it; or

[s 148A]

- (iv) that affects, or threatens to affect, directly or indirectly, access to, or delivery of, services to the community or a part of it; or
 - (v) the cumulative effect of which has affected, or threatens to affect, directly or indirectly, access to, or delivery of, services to the community or a part of it; but
- (b) does not include the making, by a negotiating party, of an application for a protected action ballot order under schedule 4, part 2, section 3.

single enterprise means—

- (a) a business project or undertaking carried on by an employer; or
- (b) the activities carried on by any of the following—
 - (i) the Commonwealth or a State;
 - (ii) a body, association, office or other entity established for a public purpose by, or under, a law of the Commonwealth or a State;
 - (iii) another entity in which the Commonwealth or a State has a controlling interest.

148A Commission's conciliation powers

- (1) In helping negotiating parties make a certified agreement under this subdivision, the commission has the conciliation powers it would have under section 230 if that section applied to certified agreement negotiations instead of industrial disputes.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the commission may make an order—
 - (a) to promote the efficient conduct of negotiations; or
 - (b) to ensure the parties negotiate in good faith; or

- (c) if 2 or more employee organisations are involved in the negotiations—that, for conciliating the matter, the organisations be represented by an authorised person; or
 - (d) that otherwise helps the parties to negotiate a certified agreement.
- (3) In deciding what orders to make, the commission must consider the conduct of each of the negotiating parties.
- (4) In this section—

authorised person, for 2 or more employee organisations, means a person or a group of persons authorised by the organisations to represent them, whether generally or for particular negotiations.

148B Commission can not order wage increase

The Commission can not, in helping negotiating parties negotiate a certified agreement under this subdivision, order an increase in wages payable to the employees.

Subdivision 3 Arbitration

149 Arbitration if conciliation unsuccessful

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the commission has helped negotiating parties to try to negotiate a certified agreement; and
 - (b) when the conciliation period for the matter ends, there remain matters at issue between the negotiating parties.
- (2) The commissioner (the conciliating member) who conciliated the matter under subdivision 2 must prepare a written report (the conciliation report) identifying—
- (a) the aspects of the matter, if any, on which the negotiating parties agree; and

- (b) the aspects of the matter (the issues) that remain at issue between the negotiating parties.
- (3) The conciliating member must, on the day that is 14 days after the conciliation period for the matter ends—
 - (a) give the conciliation report to the president; and
 - (b) give a copy of the conciliation report to each negotiating party.
- (4) The matter must be determined by arbitration within the arbitration period for the matter.
- (5) However, subsection (4) does not apply if the parties reach agreement on the terms of a proposed certified agreement before the commission makes an arbitration determination for the matter.

149A Arbitration period

- (1) Unless the president otherwise directs, the arbitration period for a matter is the period of 90 days after the day the president receives the conciliation report.
- (2) The president may direct that the arbitration period for a matter be a stated period of more than 90 days only if the president considers that the arbitration can not reasonably be determined within 90 days.
- (3) In deciding whether a matter can not reasonably be determined by arbitration within 90 days, the president must consider all of the circumstances, including the number, scope and complexity of the issues identified in the conciliation report.
- (4) An arbitration period mentioned in subsection (2)—
 - (a) starts on the day after the president receives the conciliation report for the matter; and
 - (b) ends on the day stated in the president's direction; and
 - (c) must not be longer than is reasonably necessary.

- (5) The president may make a direction for a matter under subsection (2) at any time—
- (a) after the president receives the conciliation report; and
 - (b) before the full bench makes its arbitration determination.

149B Full bench to determine matters by arbitration unless president directs otherwise

- (1) The full bench is to determine matters by arbitration under this subdivision.
- (2) However, the president may direct that a matter be determined by arbitration by the commission constituted by a commissioner sitting alone.
- (3) The president may make a direction under subsection (2) only if, having considered all of the circumstances including the number, scope and complexity of the issues identified in the conciliation report, the president considers it would not be appropriate to have the matter determined by arbitration by the full bench.
- (4) If the president makes a direction under subsection (2)—
 - (a) the president must choose a commissioner other than the conciliating member for the matter to constitute the commission for the arbitration; and
 - (b) sections 149A(5)(b) and 149C to 149E apply as if a reference in those sections to the full bench were a reference to the commission constituted by a commissioner sitting alone.

149C Arbitration powers of full bench

- (1) For determining a matter by arbitration under this subdivision, the full bench—
 - (a) has the arbitration powers it would have under section 230 if that section applied to certified agreement negotiations instead of industrial disputes; and

- (b) may give directions or make orders of an interlocutory nature; and
 - (c) can not order an increase in wages payable to employees before the full bench makes its arbitration determination for the matter.
- (2) An arbitration determination by the full bench must include the provisions required to be included in a certified agreement under chapter 2A, part 3, division 2, subdivision 3.

149D Issues full bench must consider

- (1) In determining a matter by arbitration under this subdivision, the full bench—
- (a) must limit its consideration to the issues identified in the conciliation report for the matter; and
 - (b) in considering the issues, must consider at least the following—
 - (i) the merits of the case;
 - (ii) the likely effect of the proposed arbitration determination, and any matters agreed between the negotiating parties before the arbitration, on employees and employers who will be bound by the proposed arbitration determination;
 - (iii) the extent to which the negotiating parties have negotiated in good faith;
 - (iv) the public interest.
- (2) In considering the public interest under subsection (1)(b)(iv), the full bench must consider—
- (a) the objects of this Act; and
 - (b) the likely effect of the proposed arbitration determination on the economy and the community or a part of the economy or community; and
 - (c) the employer's efforts to improve productivity in the enterprise or industry concerned; and

- (d) the flexibility of work practices to meet the operational requirements of the enterprise or industry concerned.

149E Full bench must publish reasons

- (1) The full bench must publish its reasons when it makes an arbitration determination for a matter under this subdivision.
- (2) The published reasons must address each of the things mentioned in section 149D(1) and (2) and, for each thing, must—
 - (a) set out the full bench’s findings on material questions of fact; and
 - (b) refer to the evidence or other material on which those findings were based.

150 Arbitration determinations

- (1) An arbitration determination made under this subdivision must specify a date, no later than 4 years after the date on which the determination is made, as its nominal expiry date.
- (2) Subject to subsection (2A), the arbitration determination has effect subject to any conditions specified in it.
- (2A) A wage increase, other entitlement or benefit under the arbitration determination can not—
 - (a) take effect on a day earlier than the day the arbitration period for the matter started; or
 - (b) relate to a period before the day the arbitration period for the matter started.
- (3) The determination (including a determination made before the commencement of this subsection) operates until—
 - (a) before its nominal expiry date has passed—the full bench, acting on an application under subsection (4), revokes it under subsection (5); or
 - (b) after its nominal expiry date has passed—

- (i) it is replaced by a certified agreement; or
 - (ii) the full bench, acting on an application under subsection (4), revokes it under subsection (6).
- (4) The following persons may apply to the full bench to revoke a determination—
 - (a) the employer;
 - (b) a valid majority of the employees to whom the determination applies;
 - (c) an employee organisation that—
 - (i) is bound by the determination; and
 - (ii) has at least 1 member who is an employee bound by the determination.
- (5) Before the determination's nominal expiry date has passed, the full bench must not revoke the determination unless satisfied—
 - (a) the employer and the 1 or more employee organisations, or a valid majority of the employees, who are bound by the determination have agreed to the revocation (for example, because they propose to make an agreement under division 1); and
 - (b) the revocation would not be against the public interest.
- (6) After the determination's nominal expiry date has passed, the full bench must revoke the determination if, and only if, satisfied—
 - (a) for a determination that provides that it may be revoked if particular conditions are met—the conditions have been met; or
 - (b) for a determination that does not provide for the way it may be revoked—it is in the public interest to revoke the determination.
- (7) The revocation takes effect when the full bench's approval takes effect.
- (8) While a determination operates—

- (a) the determination prevails, to the extent of any inconsistency, over an award or industrial agreement or an order made under section 137; and
- (b) the determination can not be amended.

Subdivision 4 Industrial action during conciliation and arbitration periods

150A No protected industrial action during conciliation and arbitration periods

Industrial action is not protected industrial action under section 174 if it is organised, or engaged in, by or on behalf of a negotiating part for a matter—

- (a) during the conciliation period for a matter; and
- (b) if the matter is determined by arbitration under subdivision 3—between the end of the conciliation period and the end of the arbitration period for the matter.

Subdivision 5 Other matters

151 Steps to be repeated if proposed agreement is amended

- (1) If a proposed agreement is amended for any reason, the steps in section 144(2) and (3) must be taken again for the agreement as amended.
- (2) If the agreement is being amended only by adding an employer (a new employer) as a party to the agreement, the steps need only be taken in relation to the new employer's employees.
- (3) However, the steps need not be taken if the commission is satisfied the proposed agreement was amended only—
 - (a) for a formal or clerical reason; or

- (b) in another way that does not adversely affect a relevant employee's interests.

152 Certificate as to requested representation

- (1) An employee organisation may apply to the registrar for a certificate stating that an employee has requested the organisation, under section 144, to represent the employee in negotiating with the employer about a proposed agreement.
- (2) An employer may apply to the registrar for a certificate stating that the employer need not negotiate with an employee organisation about a proposed agreement because of a circumstance mentioned in section 144(4).
- (3) A certificate must identify the organisation, the employer and the proposed agreement.
- (4) A certificate must not identify any of the employees concerned.
- (5) The certificate is, for all purposes of this Act, evidence of the matters stated in it.

Division 2 Certifying agreements

153 Applying for certification

- (1) An application for the commission to certify an agreement may be made by a party to the agreement.
- (2) For an agreement made between a single employer and 1 or more employee organisations, the application may be made even though the agreement has not been signed by or for all the parties if—
 - (a) all the parties have agreed on the terms of the agreement; and
 - (b) the agreement has been approved by a valid majority of the relevant employees at the time in a properly conducted ballot.

- (3) If an agreement has been signed by or for all the parties, the application must be made within 21 days after it is signed.

154 Notice of hearing

The registrar must, at least 7 days before an application for certification of an agreement is to be heard, place a notice in the registry detailing—

- (a) the names of the parties to the agreement; and
- (b) the relevant or designated award; and
- (c) the hearing date.

155 Entities that may be heard on application

- (1) An employee organisation that will be a party to an agreement if it is certified is entitled to be heard on an application for the certification of the agreement.
- (2) As soon as practicable after the application is made, the commission must notify each employee organisation mentioned in subsection (1) that the application has been made and that the organisation is entitled to be heard on it.
- (3) An employee organisation that will not be party to the agreement if it is certified may be heard on the application only by leave of the commission.
- (4) The commission may give leave to an employee organisation mentioned in subsection (3) only if the commission is satisfied there is a reasonable possibility that, if leave is not given, it will not be informed of an issue relevant to its decision to certify, or not to certify, the agreement.
- (5) This section does not affect another right of an employee organisation, or anyone else, to be heard on, or to intervene in, an application.

156 Certifying an agreement

(1) The commission must certify the agreement if, and must not certify the agreement unless, it is satisfied—

- (a) the things required by sections 143, 144 and 145 were done, and in particular, the terms of the agreement were explained in a way that was appropriate, having regard to the persons' particular circumstances and needs; and

Examples of persons with particular circumstances and needs—

- 1 women
- 2 persons from a non-English speaking background
- 3 young persons
- 4 persons with limited literacy or numeracy skills

Note—

For an agreement made with employees under section 147A—see also section 147A(6).

- (b) the employer did not coerce, or attempt to coerce, an employee—
- (i) not to make a request mentioned in section 144(2)(c); or
 - (ii) to withdraw the request; and
- (c) the agreement is in writing and signed by or for all the parties; and
- (d) the agreement complies with chapter 2A, part 3, division 2, subdivision 3; and
- (e) a valid majority of the relevant employees employed at the time approved the agreement; and
- (f) the agreement passes the no-disadvantage test; and
- (g) for a project agreement—each employee organisation that has given notice of wanting to be party to the agreement under section 143(4), and that has not withdrawn as a party under section 145(3), is a party to the agreement; and

- (h) for an agreement to be made with an employee organisation, other than an agreement for a new business—each relevant employee organisation is a party to the agreement; and
 - (i) for an agreement for a new business—
 - (i) the agreement was made before the employment of any of the persons in the new business at the new workplace whose employment will be subject to the agreement; and
 - (ii) the agreement has been made with 1 or more employee organisations that are entitled to represent the industrial interests of the persons.
- (1A) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply if the commission is satisfied, in the particular circumstances, that—
- (a) although the agreement has not been signed by or for all the parties, all the parties have agreed on the terms of the agreement; and
 - (b) the application for the certification of the agreement was made within a reasonable time after the agreement was approved by a valid majority of the relevant employees at the time in a properly conducted ballot.
- (1B) For subsection (1A), in deciding whether all parties have agreed on the terms of the agreement, the commission may consider—
- (a) whether the parties negotiated in good faith as required under section 146; and
 - (b) any other evidence supporting or not supporting the alleged agreement.
- (2) Subsection (1)(h) does not apply if the commission is satisfied a relevant employee organisation—
- (a) has been given the opportunity to be a party to the agreement, but does not want to be a party; or
 - (b) has no members who are to be bound by the agreement.

157 When commission to refuse to certify an agreement

- (1) The commission must refuse to certify an agreement if it considers that a provision of the agreement is inconsistent with—
 - (a) a provision of—
 - (i) chapter 2A, part 4; or
 - (ii) chapter 3; or
 - (iii) chapter 4; or
 - (b) an order by the commission under any of those provisions; or
 - (c) an injunction granted by the commission under any of those provisions.
- (2) The commission must refuse to certify an agreement if satisfied—
 - (a) the employer has, in connection with negotiating the agreement, contravened—
 - (i) section 170; or
 - (ii) chapter 4; or
 - (b) the employer has caused an entity to engage, in connection with negotiations for an agreement, in conduct that, had the employer engaged in the conduct, would be a contravention by the employer of—
 - (i) section 170; or
 - (ii) chapter 4; or
 - (c) an entity has, for the employer—
 - (i) engaged in conduct mentioned in paragraph (b); or
 - (ii) caused another entity to engage in the conduct.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the commission is satisfied the contravention or conduct, and its effects, have been fully remedied.

- (4) The commission must refuse to certify an agreement if it considers a provision of the agreement is a discriminatory provision.
 - (5) The commission must refuse to certify an agreement if a provision of the agreement seeks to prohibit or restrict an application being made under chapter 2A, part 4.
 - (6) The commission must refuse to certify an agreement if—
 - (a) the agreement applies only to a group or category of employees; and
 - (b) the commission considers the agreement defines the group or category in a way that results in other employees not being subject to the agreement, if it would be reasonable for the other employees to be subject to the agreement, having regard to—
 - (i) the nature of the work performed by the other employees; and
 - (ii) the organisational and operational relationships between the group or category and the other employees; and
 - (c) the commission considers it unfair that the other employees are not subject to the agreement.

158 Other options open to commission instead of refusing to certify agreement

- (1) If, under section 156 or 157, the commission has grounds to refuse to certify an agreement—
 - (a) the commission may accept an undertaking from 1 or more of the persons who made the agreement in relation to the operation of the agreement and, if satisfied the undertaking meets the commission's concerns, certify the agreement; and
 - (b) before refusing to certify the agreement, the commission must give the persons who made the agreement an opportunity to take action that may be necessary to enable the commission to certify the agreement.

- (2) If an undertaking is not complied with, the commission, after giving the persons who made the agreement an opportunity to be heard, may—
 - (a) order the 1 or more persons who gave the undertaking to comply with it; or
 - (b) terminate the agreement.
- (3) If—
 - (a) after doing the things required or allowed by subsection (1), the commission is still required to refuse to certify the agreement; and
 - (b) it is so required only because of an inconsistency mentioned in section 157(1);

the commission may conciliate the industrial matter concerned with a view to helping the persons concerned to take the action necessary to enable the commission to certify the agreement.

159 Procedures for preventing and settling disputes

The procedures for preventing and settling disputes contained in a certified agreement may, with the commission's approval, authorise the commission to settle a dispute.

Division 3 No-disadvantage test

160 When an agreement passes the no-disadvantage test

- (1) An agreement passes the no-disadvantage test if it does not disadvantage employees in relation to their employment conditions.
- (2) An agreement disadvantages employees only if the commission considers it would result in a reduction in the employees' entitlements or protections.

- (3) Subsection (2) applies subject to sections 161 and 162.
- (4) Subsection (2) does not apply if the commission considers that, in the context of the employment conditions considered as a whole, the reduction is not against the public interest.

Example of subsection (4)—

The making of the agreement is part of a reasonable strategy to deal with a short-term crisis in, and to help in the revival of, a business.

- (5) If the president considers exceptional circumstances exist, the president may require the registrar to give the commission a report comparing the agreement with the employee's entitlements or protections.
- (6) In this section—
entitlements or protections means the entitlements or protections under—
 - (a) a relevant award, designated award, industrial agreement or order under chapter 5, part 5; or
 - (b) chapter 2, chapter 2A or chapter 3, part 4, division 1AA.

161 Special case—employee eligible for supported wage system

- (1) This section applies if a certified agreement provides for the payment of wages to an employee who is eligible for the supported wage system at a rate not less than the rate set in accordance with that system for the employee.
- (2) The agreement does not disadvantage the employee in relation to the employee's employment conditions only because of the reduction of the employee's wages.

162 Special case—employee undertaking approved apprenticeship or traineeship

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a certified agreement provides for the payment of wages to an employee undertaking approved training (a

- training employee*) in a particular trade, occupation or work, or a trade, occupation or work similar to the particular trade, occupation or work (the work); and
- (b) there is a relevant award, designated award or order providing for the payment of wages to employees undertaking benchmark training for the work.
- (2) The agreement is taken to disadvantage the training employee in the employee's employment conditions if the agreement provides for the payment of wages to the employee at a rate less than the rate payable to an employee undertaking benchmark training (the benchmark employee) under the relevant award, designated award or order, as adjusted under subsection (3).
- (3) For subsection (2), the rate payable to a benchmark employee is to be adjusted to take into account the proportionate difference, as decided by the approving authority, between the productive time of a training employee and the productive time of a benchmark employee.
- (4) If the agreement adopts, as the qualification for a wage level, a criterion decided by the approving authority (the decided criterion) instead of a specified criterion applying under the relevant award, designated award or order (the award criterion), the award is taken, for this section, to have effect as if the decided criterion were substituted for the award criterion.
- (5) This section does not apply to a trainee bound by—
- (a) the Training Wage Award—State; or
- (b) the National Training Wage Award 1994.
- (6) In this section—
- benchmark training* means training for an apprentice or trainee in a particular trade, occupation or work if the trade, occupation or work is recognised under an award or under an order made under section 137.

163 Deciding designated awards

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an employer or organisation of employees proposes to make a certified agreement; and
 - (b) there is no relevant award for some or all of the persons to whom the agreement will apply.
- (2) The employer or organisation must apply to the commission for a decision under subsection (3).
- (3) On application, the commission must decide that an award (regulating employment conditions of employees engaged in a similar kind of work as the person under the proposed agreement) is appropriate for deciding whether the agreement passes the no-disadvantage test.
- (4) The commission must inform the employer or organisation in writing of its decision.

Division 4 Effect of certified agreements

164 When a certified agreement is in operation

- (1) A certified agreement starts operating when it is certified.
- (2) The agreement continues to operate until—
 - (a) after its nominal expiry date, it is replaced by another certified agreement; or
 - (b) it is terminated under section 158, 171, 172 or 173.

165 Certified agreement's effect on awards, agreements or orders

- (1) While a certified agreement operates, it prevails, to the extent of any inconsistency, over an award or industrial agreement or an order made under section 137.
- (2) While a project agreement operates, it operates to the exclusion of any other certified agreement.

166 Persons bound

- (1) A certified agreement binds—
 - (a) the employer—
 - (i) for an agreement made by an organisation of employers for a project—for whom the agreement was made; or
 - (ii) who made the agreement; and
 - (b) all persons who are, while the agreement operates, relevant employees; and
 - (c) if the agreement is made with 1 or more employee organisations—the 1 or more organisations.
- (1A) Subsection (1) applies even though an employer or employee organisation has not signed the agreement if the commission is satisfied, under section 156(1A) in the particular circumstances, that the agreement does not need to be signed by or for all the parties.
- (2) For a certified agreement made between the employees and employer, the commission must decide that the agreement also binds an employee organisation if—
 - (a) before the agreement is certified, the organisation gives the commission and employer notice that it wants to be bound by the agreement; and
 - (b) the organisation satisfies the commission that it—
 - (i) is a relevant employee organisation; and
 - (ii) has at least 1 member whose employment will be subject to the agreement and who asked the organisation to give the notice.

167 Successor employers bound

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an employer is bound by a certified agreement; and

- (b) at a later time a new employer becomes the successor (whether or not immediate) of the whole or a part of the business of the employer bound by the agreement.
- (2) From the later time—
- (a) the new employer is bound by the certified agreement, to the extent it relates to the whole or part of the business; and
 - (b) the previous employer stops being bound by the certified agreement, to the extent it relates to the whole or part of the business; and
 - (c) a reference in this chapter to the employer includes a reference to the new employer, and ceases to refer to the previous employer, to the extent the context relates to the whole or part of the business.

Division 5 Extending, amending or terminating certified agreements

168 Extending a certified agreement

- (1) On or before the nominal expiry date of a certified agreement, the following persons may apply to the commission to extend a certified agreement's nominal expiry date—
- (a) if 1 or more organisations are bound by the agreement—the employer and the 1 or more organisations;
 - (b) otherwise—the employer.
- (2) However, the nominal expiry date can not be extended beyond—
- (a) for a project agreement—the date on which the project ends; or
 - (b) for another agreement—4 years after the date on which the agreement came into operation.

- (3) The extension has no effect unless the commission approves it.
- (4) The commission must approve the extension if, and must not approve the extension unless, satisfied a valid majority of the relevant employees at the time approved the extension.
- (5) The extension takes effect when the commission's approval takes effect.
- (6) This section does not apply to—
 - (a) an agreement made with an employee organisation for employees proposed to be employed in a new business; or
 - (b) an agreement to which section 160(4) applies.

169 Amending a certified agreement

- (1) This section does not apply to an amendment of the parties to the agreement, other than in a multi-employer agreement (a multi-employer amendment).
- (2) The following persons may apply to the commission to amend a certified agreement—
 - (a) if 1 or more organisations are bound by the agreement—the employer and the 1 or more organisations;
 - (b) for a multi-employer amendment—the person who wants to become a party to the agreement (the new employer);
 - (c) otherwise—the employer.
- (3) The commission must approve the amendment if, and only if, satisfied—
 - (a) the amendment has been approved by—
 - (i) for a multi-employer amendment—
 - (A) a valid majority of the new employer's employees whose employment will be subject to the amended agreement; and

- (B) the other parties to the agreement, or their representative; or
 - (ii) for any other amendment—a valid majority of the relevant employees at the time; and
 - (b) the commission would be required to certify the agreement as amended if it were an agreement whose certification was applied for under this chapter.
 - (4) In applying subsection (3)(b)—
 - (a) a requirement about a majority of persons making or approving the agreement is taken to be satisfied; and
 - (b) section 158 is to be disregarded.
 - (5) The amendment takes effect when the commission's approval takes effect.
 - (6) The commission may, on application by a person bound by a certified agreement, amend a certified agreement—
 - (a) to remove ambiguity; or
 - (b) to include, omit or amend a term, however specified, that allows an employer to stand down an employee; or
 - (c) in another way, if—
 - (i) the following persons have agreed to the amendment—
 - (A) for an agreement between the employer and an employee organisation—the employer and organisation;
 - (B) for an agreement between the employer and employees—the employer and a valid majority of the relevant employees at the time; and
 - (ii) the commission is satisfied the amendment does not disadvantage the relevant employees; and
 - (iii) the commission is satisfied exceptional circumstances have arisen in the workplace that necessitate the amendment.

- (7) A certified agreement may be amended only under—
- (a) this section (including as it applies under section 170); or
 - (b) section 168; or
 - (c) section 171.

170 Amendment if discrimination between unionists and non-unionists

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) 1 or more employees whose employment is not subject to the agreement ask the employer to—
 - (i) amend the agreement so that their employment is subject to the agreement; and
 - (ii) seek the approval of the commission for the amendment under section 169; and
 - (b) their employment would be subject to the agreement if—
 - (i) they were members of an employee organisation or of a particular employee organisation; or
 - (ii) they were not members of an employee organisation or of a particular employee organisation.
- (2) The employer must seek the commission's approval to amend the agreement in accordance with the request.
- (3) The commission must disregard section 169(3)(a) in deciding whether to approve the amendment.

171 Other options open to commission instead of refusing to approve amendment of agreement

- (1) If, for section 170, the commission is not satisfied as required under section 169(3)—

- (a) before refusing to approve the amendment, it must give the persons who amended the agreement an opportunity to take action necessary to enable the commission to approve the amendment; or
 - (b) it may accept an undertaking from 1 or more of the persons who amended the agreement in relation to the operation of the agreement as amended and, if satisfied the undertaking meets the commission's concerns, approve the amendment.
- (2) If an undertaking is not complied with, the commission, after giving the persons who amended the agreement an opportunity to be heard, may—
- (a) order the 1 or more persons who gave the undertaking to comply with the undertaking; or
 - (b) undo any effect of the amendment; or
 - (c) terminate the amendment.

172 Terminating certified agreement on or before its nominal expiry date

- (1) On or before a certified agreement's nominal expiry date, the following persons may terminate the agreement by notice—
 - (a) if 1 or more organisations are bound by the agreement—the employer and the 1 or more organisations;
 - (b) otherwise—the employer.
- (2) The commission must approve the termination if, and only if, satisfied a valid majority of the relevant employees at the time approve its termination.
- (3) The termination takes effect when the commission's approval takes effect.

173 Terminating agreement after its nominal expiry date

- (1) After a certified agreement's nominal expiry date, the following persons may apply to the commission to terminate a certified agreement—
 - (a) the employer;
 - (b) a valid majority of the relevant employees;
 - (c) an employee organisation that is bound by the agreement and that has at least 1 member who is a relevant employee.
- (2) If the agreement does not provide for the way it may be terminated after the agreement's nominal expiry date has passed, the person who intends to apply to terminate it must give all other persons bound by the agreement notice of the intention.
- (3) The commission must approve the termination if, and only if, satisfied—
 - (a) for an agreement that provides that it may be terminated if particular conditions are met—the conditions have been met; or
 - (b) for an agreement that does not provide for the way it may be terminated—it is in the public interest to terminate the agreement.
- (4) The termination takes effect when the commission's approval takes effect.

Division 6 Industrial action

174 Protected industrial action

- (1) This section applies to industrial action that is organised, or engaged in, by a protected person or the employer for the purpose of—
 - (a) supporting or advancing claims made in relation to a proposed agreement; or

- (b) responding to industrial action by the employer or the relevant employees.
- (2) An action for the industrial action taken after the peace obligation period does not lie under any law, unless the industrial action has involved or is likely to involve—
 - (a) personal injury; or
 - (b) wilful or reckless destruction of, or damage to, property; or
 - (c) the unlawful taking, keeping or use of property.
- (3) However, subsection (2) applies to—
 - (a) a strike by a protected person, only if the protected person has genuinely tried to reach agreement before the strike starts; and
 - (b) a lockout by an employer, only if the employer has genuinely tried to reach agreement before the lockout starts.
- (3A) Also, subsection (2) applies to industrial action only if the requirements stated in the following provision are complied with—
 - (a) if the action is in response to, and is taken after the start of, industrial action by another negotiating party in relation to a proposed agreement—section 175;
 - (b) if the action is organised, or engaged in, by an employee organisation or employees and paragraph (a) does not apply—section 176;
 - (c) if the action is organised, or engaged in, by an employer and paragraph (a) does not apply—section 177.
- (4) Despite subsection (2), an action for defamation may be brought in relation to anything that happened during the industrial action.
- (5) If the employer lawfully locks out an employee, the employer may refuse to pay the employee remuneration for the period of the lockout.

- (6) The employer can not lock out an employee unless the continuity of the employee's employment, for the purposes prescribed under a regulation, is not affected by the lockout.
- (7) In this section—
protected person means—
 - (a) an employee organisation that is a negotiating party; or
 - (b) an officer or employee of the employee organisation acting in that capacity; or
 - (c) an employee who is a negotiating party or a member of the employee organisation.

175 Requirements for industrial action in response to industrial action by another party

- (1) This section applies to industrial action in response to, and taken after the start of, industrial action by another negotiating party in relation to a proposed agreement.
- (2) The person intending to take the action must give all of the negotiating parties written notice of the intended action.

Note—

See also section 177A in relation to the notice required to be given under this subsection.

- (3) However, if the person is an employer who is negotiating an agreement with employees, the employer may take other reasonable steps to notify the employees of the intended action instead of giving a written notice.

176 Requirements for other industrial action by an employee organisation or employees

- (1) This section applies to industrial action that is organised, or engaged in, by an employee organisation or by employees, other than industrial action to which section 175 applies.
- (2) The industrial action must be authorised by a ballot conducted under schedule 4 (a protected action ballot).

- (3) Industrial action is authorised by a protected action ballot if—
- (a) a protected action ballot order has been made by the commission in relation to the proposed action; and
 - (b) the action was the subject of the protected action ballot; and
 - (c) at least 50% of the employees on the roll of voters for the ballot voted; and
 - (d) more than 50% of the valid votes cast approved the industrial action; and
 - (e) the industrial action starts—
 - (i) during the 30-day period starting on the day the results of the ballot are declared; or
 - (ii) if the commission has extended the period under subsection (7)—during the extended period.

Note—

See also sections 186 and 187 in relation to the authorisation of industrial action by a protected action ballot if—

- the action is later found not to have been authorised by the ballot; or
- there is a technical breach relating to the protected action ballot order.

- (4) However, the industrial action must not start before the peace obligation period has ended.
- (5) The person intending to take the industrial action must give written notice of the intended action to all of the negotiating parties.

Note—

See also section 177A in relation to the notice required to be given under this subsection.

- (6) For subsection (5)—
- (a) the written notice must not be given until the results of the protected action ballot have been declared; and
 - (b) the period of the notice given must be at least—

- (i) 3 working days; or
- (ii) if the protected action ballot order states a longer period of notice for the purpose of this subsection—the stated period.

Note—

Under schedule 4, section 8(5) the stated period must not be more than 7 working days.

- (7) The commission may extend the 30-day period mentioned in subsection (3)(e)(i) by not more than 30 days if—
 - (a) an applicant for the protected action ballot order applies to the commission for the period to be extended; and
 - (b) the period has not previously been extended.
- (8) Subsection (9) applies if—
 - (a) the nature of the proposed industrial action stated in the question put to the employees in the protected action ballot included periods of industrial action of a stated duration; and
 - (b) the question did not state that consecutive periods of the industrial action may be organised or engaged in.
- (9) For subsection (3)(b), only the first period in a series of consecutive periods of the industrial action is taken to be the subject of the protected action ballot.

177 Requirements for other industrial action by an employer

- (1) This section applies to industrial action that is organised, or engaged in, by an employer, other than industrial action to which section 175 applies.
- (2) The employer must give all of the negotiating parties at least 3 working days written notice of the intended action.

Note—

See also section 177A in relation to the notice required to be given under this subsection.

- (3) However, if the employer is negotiating an agreement with employees, the employer may take other reasonable steps to notify the employees of the intended action instead of giving a written notice.

177A Provision about notice of industrial action

- (1) This section applies to a notice required to be given under section 175(2), 176(5) or 177(2).
- (2) The notice must state the nature of the intended action and the day it will start.
- (3) The notice may be given before the end of the peace obligation period if the intended action does not start before the end of that period.

179 Employer not to dismiss employee for engaging in protected industrial action

- (1) An employer must not—
- (a) dismiss an employee, injure an employee in his or her employment or change an employee's position to the employee's prejudice; or
 - (b) threaten to dismiss an employee, injure an employee in his or her employment or change an employee's position to the employee's prejudice;
- wholly or partly because the employee is proposing to engage, is engaging, or has engaged, in protected industrial action.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to any of the following actions taken by the employer—
- (a) standing down the employee;
 - (b) refusing to pay the employee if, under common law, the employer is permitted to do so because the employee has not performed work as directed;
 - (c) action of the employer that is itself protected industrial action.

- (3) In proceedings under section 183 for an alleged contravention of subsection (1), it is to be presumed, unless the employer proves otherwise, that the alleged conduct of the employer was carried out wholly or partly because the employee was proposing to engage, was engaging, or had engaged, in protected industrial action.

section 176

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Purpose of sch 4

The purpose of this schedule is to establish a process enabling employees to choose, by a fair and democratic secret ballot, whether they wish to engage in particular industrial action in relation to a proposed agreement if negotiations for the agreement have begun.

Note—

Under section 176 of this Act, industrial action by employees in relation to a proposed agreement is not protected industrial action unless the action has been authorised in advance by a protected action ballot.

2 Definition for sch 4

In this schedule—

protected action ballot order means an order of the commission requiring a protected action ballot to be conducted to determine whether employees wish to engage in particular industrial action in relation to a proposed agreement.

Part 2 Protected action ballot orders

3 Application for protected action ballot order

- (1) An application for a protected action ballot order may be made to the commission by—
 - (a) if the proposed agreement is an agreement with 1 or more employee organisations—an employee organisation that is a negotiating party; or
 - (b) if the proposed agreement is an agreement with employees—an employee who the commission is satisfied is a negotiating party.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the proposed agreement is a project agreement.
- (3) The application must state—
 - (a) the group of employees who are to be balloted; and
 - (b) the question to be put to the employees who are to be balloted, including the nature of the proposed industrial action.
- (4) For subsection (3)(a), a group of employees stated in the application is taken to include only employees who—
 - (a) will be bound by the proposed agreement; and
 - (b) if the proposed agreement is an agreement with 1 or more employee organisations—are members of an employee organisation that is an applicant.
- (5) To remove any doubt, it is declared that applying for a protected action ballot order does not constitute organising industrial action.

4 When application may be made

- (1) This section applies if 1 or more existing certified agreements bind the employees who will be bound by the proposed agreement.

- (2) An application for a protected action ballot order must not be made earlier than 30 days before the nominal expiry date of the existing certified agreement, or the latest nominal expiry date of those existing certified agreements, as the case may be.
- (3) A reference in subsection (2) to an existing certified agreement includes a determination relating to an existing certified agreement.

5 Notice of application

Within 24 hours after making an application for a protected action ballot order, each applicant must give a copy of the application to—

- (a) the employer of the employees who are to be balloted; and
- (b) the ECQ.

6 When application must be decided

- (1) This section applies if an application for a protected action ballot order is made and the commission is satisfied section 5 has been complied with.
- (2) The commission must, as far as practicable, decide the application within 2 working days after the application is made.

7 Dealing with multiple applications together

The commission may deal with 2 or more applications for a protected action ballot order at the same time if—

- (a) the applications relate to industrial action by—
 - (i) employees of the same employer; or
 - (ii) employees at the same workplace; and

- (b) the commission is satisfied that dealing with the applications at the same time will not unreasonably delay the deciding of any of the applications.

8 Making of protected action ballot order by commission

- (1) The commission must make a protected action ballot order in relation to a proposed agreement if—
 - (a) an application for the order has been made under section 3; and
 - (b) the commission is satisfied each applicant has been, and is, genuinely trying to reach agreement with the employer of the employees who are to be balloted; and
 - (c) negotiations for the agreement have begun.
- (2) The commission must not make a protected action ballot order if the requirements under subsection (1) are not satisfied.
- (3) A protected action ballot order must state the following—
 - (a) the name of each applicant for the order;
 - (b) the group of employees who are to be balloted;
 - (c) the date by which voting in the ballot closes;
 - (d) the question to be put to the employees who are to be balloted, including the nature of the proposed industrial action.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if the commission is satisfied that exceptional circumstances relating to the proposed industrial action justify the period of notice mentioned in section 176(6)(b) of this Act being longer than 3 working days.
- (5) The protected action ballot order may state a longer period of not more than 7 working days.

9 Notice of protected action ballot order

- (1) As soon as practicable after making a protected action ballot order, the commission must give the following persons a copy of the order—

 - (a) give notice under subsection (2) to employees; or
 - (b) prepare for the protected action ballot.

Note—

See chapter 6, division 7 for penalty provisions applicable to contraventions of this subsection.

10 Protected action ballot order may require 2 or more ballots to be held together

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the commission has made a protected action ballot order; and
 - (b) the commission proposes to make 1 or more other protected action ballot orders; and
 - (c) the orders would require a protected action ballot to be held in relation to industrial action by employees of the same employer or employees at the same workplace.

- (2) The commission may make, or vary, the protected action ballot orders to require the protected action ballots to be held at the same time if the commission is satisfied—
 - (a) the level of disruption of the employer's enterprise, or at the workplace, could be reduced if the ballots were held at the same time; and
 - (b) requiring the ballots to be held at the same time will not unreasonably delay any of the ballots.

11 Variation of protected action ballot order
