Domestic and Family Violence Protection Regulation 2012

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Domestic and Family Violence Protection Regulation 2012.

2 Commencement

This regulation commences on 17 September 2012.

3 Publication of certain information is permitted—Act, s 159(2)(g)

- (1) For section 159(2)(g) of the Act, the publication is permitted if the publication is of information that relates to a proceeding—
 - (a) that relates to a matter in the public domain; or
 - (b) in which the community has a legitimate interest.
- (2) For subsection (1)(a), a proceeding relates to a matter in the public domain if—
 - (a) a domestic violence order was made in the proceeding—
 - (i) against a person as a respondent; or
 - (ii) for the benefit of a person as the aggrieved, or a relative or associate of the aggrieved; and
 - (b) the person has later been convicted of an offence under another Act that was factually related to the domestic violence order.
- (3) For subsection (1)(b), the community has a legitimate interest in a proceeding if an incident happens in which—
 - (a) a respondent in the proceeding causes the death of, or injury to, the aggrieved or a named person in the proceeding and the incident results in the death of the respondent; or

- (b) the aggrieved or a named person in the proceeding causes the death of, or injury to, a respondent in the proceeding and the incident results in the death of the aggrieved or the named person.

4 Declared interstate orders

For section 173 of the Act, each of the following is declared to be an interstate order—

- (a) an apprehended domestic violence order or interim apprehended domestic violence order under the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007 (NSW);
- (b) a domestic violence order within the meaning of the Domestic and Family Violence Act (NT), section 4, definition domestic violence order, paragraph (a);
- (c) an FVO, interim FVO or PFVO under the Family Violence Act 2004 (Tas);
- (d) a protection order or after-hours order under the Family Violence Act 2016 (ACT);
- (e) a family violence intervention order or family violence safety notice under the Family Violence Protection Act 2008 (Vic);
- (f) an intervention order under the Intervention Orders (Prevention of Abuse) Act 2009 (SA) that includes a declaration under section 15A of that Act that the order addresses a domestic violence concern;
- (g) a family violence restraining order or police order under the Restraining Orders Act 1997 (WA);
- (h) a violence restraining order under the Restraining Orders Act 1997 (WA) made before 1 July 2017 that addresses a domestic violence concern within the meaning of the Domestic Violence Orders (National Recognition) Act 2017 (WA), section 9(1).

5 Declared registered foreign orders

For section 174(b) of the Act, a New Zealand order that is also 1 of the following is declared to be a registered foreign order—

- (a) an external protection order—
 - (i) within the meaning of the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007 (NSW), section 94, definition external protection order, paragraph (a); and
 - (ii) that is registered under that Act;
- (b) an external order—
 - (i) within the meaning of the Domestic and Family Violence Act (NT), section 4, definition external order, paragraph (a); and
 - (ii) that is registered under that Act;
- (c) an external family violence order under the Family Violence Act 2004 (Tas) that is registered under that Act;
- (d) a New Zealand FVO under the Family Violence Act 2016 (ACT) that is registered under that Act;
- (e) a corresponding New Zealand order under the Family Violence Protection Act 2008 (Vic) that is registered under that Act;
- (f) a foreign intervention order under the Intervention Orders (Prevention of Abuse) Act 2009 (SA) that is registered under that Act;
- (g) a foreign restraining order under the Restraining Orders Act 1997 (WA) that corresponds with an order under part 1B of that Act and is registered under that Act.

6 Registration of New Zealand order—Act, s 176N

- (1) For section 176N(6) of the Act, the clerk of the court registers a New Zealand order by entering details of the order in a register kept by the clerk for registering New Zealand orders.

- (2) The clerk of the court must keep the register in a physical or electronic form.
